Numerous Democrats and Republicans attended the conventions in Baltimore on Thursday.

MESSRS. G. E. Noland, J. Elwood Morris and Charles L. Dood, the new State Central Committee for Kent county, met yesterday afternoon and organized by electing Mr. G. E. Noland chairman. The committee immediately drew up an order directing the Supervisors of Election to place the name of Mr. James Bramble on the ballot in the election.

The old State Central Committee went out of existance with the counting of the official ballots and the new committee has the authority under the law to order Mr. Bramble's name placed upon the ticket.

HON. PHILIP LEE GOLDSBOROUGH was nominated for Governor by the Republ- State Convention in Baltimore on Thursday. Sidney P. Townshend, Esq., represented the Republican State Central Committee from Kent, and was among Col. "Billy" Stone's guests at a big dinner on Wednesday night. The race between Senator Gorman and Mr. Goldsborough is now on, and on the 7th of November, Gorman will finish a winner by a big majority. The platform upon which Gorman stands is a fine one and appeals to all elements of the Democratic party, and Gorman will keep the pledges contained in the platform and seek to carry out its provisions in the passage of beneficial laws.

IF THE election was perfectly fair, and Mr. Beck is honestly nominated for the State Senate, why should Mr. Wickes, his counsel, put up such a poor excuse as a technicality of the law to prevent opening the ballot boxes? If a man believes he is fairly nominated, he will not object to turning "on the light" and proving to his opponent that he was fairly and honestly nominated. An honor that comes upon us by dishonest methods, is robbed of all pleasure and satisfaction and the Organization will never gain any friends in this county by the unjust manner in which they have counted Senator Foxwell out of what is justly his due, and what the people intended that he should have. It is to be hoped that this matter will be taken to the Court of Appeals and finally settled, so that even if the decision of the lower court is upheld, the people of the State may be apprised of what a farcical law this Lee primary law is. If the returns had not given Senator Foxwell a single vote, there would be no more redress under this farcical law to secure his rights than the decision of the lower Court seems to indicate that there is now, when every evidence shows that Senator Foxwell has been unjustly deprived of the right which every man should have under the law to redress a manifest wrong.

THE NOMINATION of Senator Arthur P. Gorman for Governor was ratified on Thursday by the delegates in State Convention and a splendid platform was adopted by the Democrats upon which the candidates will make a strong and vigorous fight in the election. The ticket nominated by the Democrats is an exceptionally strong one. We believe that Senator Gorman, who will be elected Governor of the State, will seek to carry out every pledge in the platform and that he will use his very best influence and power to give the people of the State a clean and business like, as well as an economical administration. We know Senator Gorman to be a man of his word. He has pledged himself to an administration of economy and to the passage of laws which have for their object the welfare of the people of the State. The recent primary contest was an extremely close one. We do not believe that it has left any sore spots, and from what we heard and saw at the State Convention we are sure that the party has entered the contest for the election firmly united and with the fullest desire to win. The State of Maryland cannot afford to take a backward step into the Republican ranks. The people of this State, our agricultural interests and all other interests know what such a step would mean, and the wave of Democracy now sweeping over the entire country will know no receding in Maryland, because the Republican party has been tried in both the nation and state and has been found to be the party of extravagance and class privilege. The Democrats of Maryland will never better political conditions by turning the State over to the Republicans. The white people of this State know what such a step would mean. They see the great danger to our industrial and agricultural interests such a step would be, and while a critical stage may have been reached in the history of the Democratic party in Maryland, yet such a condition is a most dangerous precedent upon which to anchor a Republican victory. We believe the Democratic party will be triumphant in November. Maryland is a Democratic State. It's political history is written in Democratic achievements and victories, and we have only to study political conditions in the States of Pennsylvania and Deleware to see the danger of a Republican administration. We shall do everything in our power to elect the entire state and county Democratic ticket.

SENATOR FOXWELL AND MR. BECK.

The TRANSCRIPT and the Anti-Organization faction in Kent are by no means willing to concede the nomination of Mr. Beck for the Senate over Senator Foxwell. The official returns show that Mr. Beck defeated Senator Foxwell by only five votes, and yet we have in our possession unquestioned evidence that Senator Foxwell has been illegally and unjustly deprived of his nomination. Mr. Foxwell was seriously handicapped in this campaign by an ailment which made it impossible for him to make the effective campaign of which he is capable, and even on the day of the primaries he was confined to bed and unable to get to the polls in Kennedyville where he usually does such effective work. And yet, handicapped as Senator Foxwell was, his friends made a most effective campaign against one of the greatest campaigners the Organization can put up, and Senator Foxwell's friends are unwilling that he shall be deprived of the nomination, when they have the most convincing evidence to prove that Senator Foxwell was justly nominated. Under the present primary law the court ruled on Monday that they have no jurisdiction in such cases, not even in the case of the tie vote between Messrs. Nicholson and Bramble does the court feel that it has any jurisdiction to determine what shall be done, and the matter will be finally determined by the Court of Appeals at its October sitting. The strange part to the people in regard to this matter is the unwillingness of the Organization to agree to a recount to determine any point involved in the controversy. They, we are told, would prefer to run the county to the expense of another election in the case of Bramble vs. Nicholson, rather than have a recount, because they know that if Mr. Bramble shows a gain of 12 or 14 votes over Nicholson, and there is convincing evidence to prove that he will, then a recount for Bramble and Nicholson would show Foxwell a winner. But aside from this the position of the Organization in this matter is far from being a proper and fair one. If they are sure that Mr. Beck has been fairly and honestly nominated, and that no Anti-Organization ballots have been thrown out in nearly every precinct in the county, which under the law should have been counted, why should they object so strenuously to a recounting of the ballots, instead of running the taxpayers to the expense of $1800 or $2000 to determine whether Bramble or Nicholson has won. An honor that is tainted with the odor of unfairness in the winning, proves a heavy burden ofttimes to the man who wins it.

The Bramble-Nicholson case has got to be settled some way. One or two ways seem open to a settlement. One is by a recount, the other by a special election. A recount for Bramble will undoubtedly disclose the fact of Foxwell's nomination. A special election would be held to determine the Bramble-Nicholson case only. But the matter will be determined by the Court of Appeals in October, and until a final disposition is made of the matter, the TRANSCRIPT will refuse to concede Mr. Beck's nomination. The TRANSCRIPT and its friends have always proven to be good losers, and have always given the heartiest support to the Democratic ticket, even though our friends have suffered defeat. There never was a rawer deal given to anybody in a contest than was given to the Antis in this fight. They were not given a judge or a clerk in a single precinct in the county, and the instructions to the judges given by Mr. Lewin W. Wickes were entirely at variance with the instructions furnished by Attorney General Straus. And yet with the exception of Senator Foxwell and Mr. Bramble, every candidate on the Anti-ticket was nominated by majorities ranging from 86 to 178. Why then should Foxwell and Bramble be defeated, and why should not the Organization be fair enough to agree to a recount if they are satisfied that Beck has been fairly and honestly nominated? The TRANSCRIPT and its friends will wait for the decision of the Court of Appeals.

INSTRUCTIONS AT VARIANCE.

The recent primary election in this county should have been conducted according to the instructions furnished for every county in the state by Attorney General Isaac Lobe Straus. Instead of that Kent's primary was conducted according to instructions furnished to the election officials by Lewin W. Wickes attorney to the Supervisors of Election, and these instructions furnished by Mr. Wickes are entirely at variance to those given by the Attorney General. The conditions under which a voter could participate in the Democratic primaries according to the instructions of Attorney General Straus are contained in the following paragraph which is section 160E, of the present primary law. It says:-

"Every person offering to vote at a primary election in the counties shall be required to state to which party he belongs and which party's candidates he intends to vote for at the State or county elections, and every qualified person offering to vote in the several counties in the State at a primary election shall be permitted to vote in the primary election of that party to which he belongs, and whose party candidates he intends to vote for at the State or county election."

Mr. Wickes' instructions to the election officials differ materially from the above instructions of the Attorney General, and are as follows:-

2. He must belong in fact to the Democratic party and the judges must ask every registered person offering to vote, to what party he belongs.

3. He must state that he intends to vote for the Democratic candidates at the State and county elections though not necessarily for all of such candidates. The judges must ask every registered person offering to vote, which party's candidates he intends to vote for at the State and county election.

4. No Republican has the right to vote the Democratic ballot, and should be refused.

5. No person whose habit in the past has been to vote a part of the Democratic ticket and a part of the Republican ticket, has a right to vote the Democratic ballott and should be refused.

6. A voter who in the past has been voting the Democratic State and county ticket and the Republican ticket for president, has a right to vote the Democratic ballot.

It will be noticed that these instructions given by Mr. Wickes are at variance with the instructions furnished by Attorney-General Straus. Under the instructions of the latter the only requirement of a voter in the county is that he state to which party he belongs and his willingness to support the nominees of the party in whose primaries he offers to participate in the general election. The judges had no right to question the man's past politics, and this instruction was given by the Attorney-General in order to make the primaries in the counties conform to the primaries in Baltimore city, where, because of the registration law, a voter had a right to change his party affiliation the day before the primary if the sitting was held then, in order to vote as he pleased, provided he expressed his willingness to support the nominees of the party in whose primaries he asks to participate. The instructions of Mr. Wickes were not legal under the primary law, and Kent county's primaries were illegally conducted wherever the instructions of Mr. Wickes were followed instead of those of the Attorney-General of the State. At Betterton 7 voters were refused the right to vote, at Worton Station 3 voters, and at Chestertown 2 voters. In each case we are advised these men would have voted the Anti-Organization ticket. Mr. Benjamin F. Rash, one of our best and most conscientious citizens, was refused the right to vote, although Mr. Rash stated that he desired to vote the Democratic ticket and obligated himself to support the nominees of the Democratic party in the election. Does anybody doubt Mr. Rash's sincerity? At Betterton, a man known by every one to be a Republican was allowed to vote, while 7 men who prescribed to the oath and complied with the instructions of the Attorney-General were turned down, and every one of these seven men were avowed Foxwell and Anti-Organization men. We cite these few instances, every one of which can be proven, and the men are ready to go upon the witness stand, to show how unfairly the Anti-Organization was treated in the recent primary. With such evidences of unfairness as these it seems unusually strange that there is no redress in a court of law.

PLANKS IN DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

Indorsement of the administration of Governor Crothers.

Continuance of road improvement and amending the law so that roads can be built more expeditiously and cheaper.

Indorsement of the Corrupt Practices act, with amendments designed to stop the existing loop holes.

Indorsement of the Public Utilities act.

Strengthening the present Primary Election law, providing that the primaries be held later than fixed at present and giving Anti-Organization candidates an even chance with those of the Organization.

Providing for a new registration in the counties and for the affiliation of voters the same as in Baltimore city. No voter to be allowed to change his affiliation six months prior to the primaries.

Providing for a recount of the primary vote in case of contest or evidence of fraud.

New Charter for Baltimore city, according to the lines laid down by the Charter Revision Commission of 1910.

A decided reduction in legislative expenses.

Improvement of the public school system.

Granting Baltimore City powers to make improvements and bring commerical enterprises to the city.

It declared that the constitutional amendments increasing Baltimore's representation in the Legislature have been passed by a Democratic Legislature and are up to the people for ratification.

The party will not wage a fight to ratify the suffrage amendment.

Pomona Items.

One of the most delightful musical concerts ever given in Kent county was the one on Tuesday evening at the home of Rev. and Mrs. W. M. McCann, in Pomona. The following persons took part—Prof. E. E. Hand, Mrs. E. E. Hand, Mr. Everett E. Hand, Jr., Master Leslie Hand, Miss Gladys Hand and Miss Ethel Hudson, all of Brooklyn, N. Y. The parsonage was decorated with fall flowers and the effect was handsome. There were eighty invited guests. Mrs. Hand was presented with a bouquet of handsome roses after singing the last solo. The guests were served with refreshments. Guests were present from West Virginia, Still Pond, Md., Brooklyn, N. Y., and Eddystone, Pa. The program as given follows and every number was a masterpiece :

FIRST PART.

Cornet Solo with Violin and Piano—"The Lost Chord," Master Leslie Hand.
Solo—(a) "Butterflies," Corbett; (b) "Roses in June," German with Violin Obligato; (c) "Love the Pedlar," Mrs. E. E. Hand.

The Ushers Union of Mowbray M. E. Church will meet at the parsonage on Thursday evening next week.

Grange Notes.

After a hot summer, when meetings were discontinued, Still Pond Grange is about "to sit up and take notice." There will be a big family picnic on Thursday, Sept. 14, at the residence of the secretary, Mr. A. L. Harris. At this meeting plans will be discussed for the betterment of the Grange, and Mrs. Harry Williams has a good big interesting program "on top". So bear the time 10.30 A. M. Bring your friend with you, this will be a free-for-all meeting, also your lunch basket for may be you will get hungry down there near the water. In the afternoon there will be bathing and crabbing on the wharf. So come prepared to have a good time even if you have not yet joined us.

The Kennedyville Grange met in the hall Monday night with quite a number present. Topics of interest were discussed and much attention given throughout the entire evening. The next meeting will be first Monday evening in October. The lecturer, Bro. John Medders has a programme prepared for that evening, consisting of a debate, Resolved, That "The Sower deserves more reward than The Reaper;" affirmative Bro. J. Redmile, Sisters Otherson and Shafer, Negative Sister Fannie Bramble, Bros. Hague and Comly. Singing by the Kennedyville Grange male Quartette. Messrs. Medders, Othoson, Hague, Pennington, Duet, Misses Hague and Othoson. Doors open to the public.

PROMPT SETTLEMENT OF CLAIM.

The late W. Emerson Sparks, who died last week, had his life insured in the Continental Life Ins. Co., of Wilmington, Del. On May 19th, Mr. Frank V. Simpers wrote a policy for Mr. Sparks for $1,000 at a cost of $16.19. Mr. Sparks died on Tuesday, Aug. 29th, and on Saturday, Sept. 2 last, the check for the full amount was paid by Mr. Simpers to the father of the deceased. This is very prompt settlement indeed when it is known that the claim papers were not completed until last Friday, the day after Mr. Sparks was buried. The Company started business four years ago this month with its home office in Wilmington, Del. The directors are from the nine counties on the Eastern Shore and the three counties in Delaware. It is therefore a home company and is deserving of the insuring public's support, for their stock proposition is a winner. The company has placed nearly seven millions of good business on its books. Mr. Frank V. Simpers, lately with the Prudential has had splendid success since his connection with the Continental. Since April 17th, he has written, placed and paid for $106,000. Mr. Wilbur Hubbard, of Chestertown, is one of the directors of the Continental. 1t.
