GETS WORD OF LOST DAUGHTER.

Message Says Schoolgirl Is Safe At Rock Hall.

A long-distance telephone call was received by Mrs. Fannie Davis, 504 South Broadway, Saturday night which stated that a girl answering the description of her missing daughter, Miss Bertha Davis, 17 years old, was seen Saturday at the home of Mrs. Pauline Asher, Rock Hall, Md. Miss Davis has been missing since Thursday, when she left, telling her mother that she was going to the Eastern High School to take an examination that she had failed to pass last spring.

The telephone message came from a lady who gave her name as Mrs. Alexander, also of Rock Hall. Mrs. Davis is of the opinion that her daughter went to Rock Hall to visit Mrs. Asher, as the latter is a friend of the family, and mother and daughter had been contemplating a trip to her home for some time.
