THE GRIM REAPER.

MRS. EMILY R. GALE.

Mrs. Emily R. Gale, widow of the late John Gale, died at her home on Queen street, last Friday night, after an illness of two months, aged 47 years. The deceased was before marriage a Miss Gemmill, having resided in the State of Virgina. Mrs. Gale was a woman of the most exemplary christian character. Quiet in manner, gentle in disposition and of an even temper, she endeared herself to her family in bonds of the sweetest love and affection and held the esteem of a host of friends throughout the county because of her genial and friendly spirit. For many years Mrs. Gale was actively identified with St. James M. P. Church. To its interests she, with her lamented husband, devoted a great part of her activities, and its highest welfare was ever upon her heart and mind, and though for the past two years she had resided in Chestertown, she frequantly attended service at the church of her choice. She was a patient sufferer throughout a baffling disease, and with a fortitude born of a splendid character and a firm faith in her Creator, she awaited the summons and calmy answered the great roll call.

She is survived by two daughters, Misses Addie and Ethel Gale. She was also step-mother to Prof. Walter R. and Miss Lillian Gale. Funeral services were held from her late residence on Queen street on Monday afternoon at three o'clock, conducted by Rev. G. A. Morris, pastor of St. James, assisted by Rev. Dr. F. T. Little. Interment was made in the family lot in Chester cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Walter T., John E. and J. Elwood Morris, Edgar P. Beck, R. G. Nicholson and Wm. B. Willis. Undertaker Chas. L. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements.

MISS MARY GRAY.

Miss Mary Gray, niece of Mrs. Wm. E. Jarrell, died at the University of Maryland Hospital, where she had been a trained nurse during the past year, of typhoid fever on Wednesday morning at 7 o'clock. The illness of Miss Mray was noted in our last issue, and her many friends here had hoped for her early recovery. The deceased was the daughter of Mrs. Hooper Gray, of Goldsboro, Caroline county, and had frequently been the guest of relatives and friends here. She was a young lady of sweet christian character, and her untimely demise is greatly regretted by a host of friends here who sympathize with her mother, sister and relatives in their affliction.

John Albert, the nine-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Nickerson, residing in Morgnec, died last Saturday. Funeral services were held on Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. F. H. Mullineaux, of Kennedyville. Interment was made in Chester cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Chas. Hague, George Webb, Wilmer Webb and Albert Baxter. Undertaker Chas. L. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Isabelle Myrtle Johnson, aged 13 months, died at the home of her grandfather, Mr. J. D. W. Vansant, near Fairlee, Thursday. Funeral services this morning at 10 o'clock, Dr. Barrett officiating. Interment in Chester cemetery. Undertaker, C. L. Dodd.
