Rev. Dr. F. T. Little occupied his pulpit morning and evening last Sunday for the first time since his recent severe iliness. He preached two splendid sermons, and large congregations greeted him and gave him a cordial welcome home. Dr. Little and his family are very popular with the people of the church and community generally, and he has been the recipient of many substantial tokens of affection and esteem since his return home.

Sunday morning, Sept. 24th, subject, Opportunity; text, Mark 14:7, "Not Always." Evening, Epworth League, led by Miss Jennie Rowers, subject, "Exemplary Life." Public invited.

Betterton Notes.

What was a few weeks ago a summer resort is so scerene and quiet, one would hardly believe we had any summer visitors here. There are still quite a few lingering around, loth to give up. The season was profitable though not so good as compared with previous seasons.

The schools have opened and teachers report very good attendance. We were sorry to part with Miss Anna Smyth. She had made many friends during her short stay, and they regretted her leaving. We have in her place Miss Margaret Brinsfield. Miss Brinsfield is very much liked, and makes herself useful in all church work. This is where we missed Miss Smyth, and wish we had both of the estimable ladies with us.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Owens have returned from a two weeks' stay at Atlantic City. Mr. Owens says we don't know what a summer resort is. Well, we hope some day some one will come in and start a Coney Island or Atlantic City. At present we are very much handicapped for water front for these places of amusements.

Quite a number of our people attended the circus in Chestertown, and as usual all had a very good time.

Reports are we will have another building boom this fall. We don't object—the more the merrier.

The Ericsson Line day boats have discontinued their daily trips. We miss these boats very much; the officials report a better season than last.

Many of the men are preparing for fall fishing. As hook and line fishing is better than for years, we hope they will have a successful season.

The church services held on the Ericsson Pier were successful in every particular. Every Sunday evening we had a visiting minister of some denomination, which relieved Rev. John Beauchamp, and he did not have to preach at all, though he was only with us on two occasions. I suppose he thought he was having a well-earned vacation.
