THE MAIN CHANCE.

The following very sensible editorial showing the folly of knifing the Democratic ticket for the sole purpose of improving political conditions, appeared in Saturday's Baltimore Sun, and every Democrat in Kent county should read it. It is for this reason that it is reproduced in part in the TRANSCRIPT:

"We do not blame our neighbors of the Republican press for being anxious that the whole Democratic State ticket shall be entangled and stay entangled in the mesh in which the election thieves of Baltimore have been caught. It is natural that they should do everything they can to keep alive until election day the public resentment that has been aroused. They would like to stretch out the grand jury probe, and then start up the recount of the ballots in the spring primary and election and have it all dragging along up to election day with an indeterminate result.

"The Sun looks at the situation from a different angle. First, the Sun wants to get some practical result for good government out of the aroused feeling of the public. Second, while we should be unwilling to sacrifice the cause of good government in Baltimore and Maryland, we should like to see this Democratic State put in such a position as to be able to declare its adherence to Democratic principles and against Republican principles.

"We have no confidence whatever in any positive benefit from Republican State rule. Maryland went through a Republican regime from 1895 to 1898. It was not a satisfactory experience. The very election law taking the machinery out of the hands of the ring and giving the people a free ballot, upon which the reform campaign of 1895 was fought, was passed on the last night of the legislative session of 1896, after a heart-breaking scrimmage against Republican resistance, and on that last night only by the help of Democrats. And after the mightmare of Republican legislative graft and folly, the machine elements in the Democratic party came back to power on a tremendous wave of reaction.

"It would be so again, only worse. The Federal officeholders are the dominant power in the Republican party at this time. There is not an ounce of reform in the whole outfit.

"Until we try the fishing where the fish are running, let us not fish for wiggle-waggles in our mother's rain barrel.

"Let us move warily and with purpose and not yield ourselves to a blind and impotent indignation. Let us not neglect what may be a moment of great opportunity."

First Maryland Corn Received.—The first receipts of new Maryland corn were received and sold at the Chamber of Commerce, Baltimore, on Friday. Stevens Bros. received 30 bushels of yellow corn from O. L. Fluharty, of Caroline county. It was bought by Charles J. Landers & Co. at 70 cents a bushel. The same commission firm also got 10 bags of yellow cob corn from C. H. McKee, of Queen Annes county. It was also bought by Mr. Landers on the basis of $3 a barrel.
