HELPFUL WORDS

From a Chestertown Citizen.

Is your back lame and painful?
Does it ache especially after exertion?
Is there a soreness in the kidney region?
These symptoms indicate weak kidneys.
There is danger in delay.
Weak kidneys fast get weaker.
Give your trouble prompt attention.
Doan's Kidney Pills act quickly,
They strengthen weak kidneys.
Read this Chestertown testimony.

John M. South, photographer, Imperial Hotel, Chestertown, Md., says: "I suffered a great deal from my back and kidneys. The passages of the kidney secretions were irregular and I had pains through my sides and back. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I got a supply at Toulson's Drug Store and they gave me entire relief. I consider Doan's Kidney Pills worthy of the strongest praise."

I will be in Chestertown at Dr. H. G. Simpers' office on Tuesday, August 22nd, and in Church Hill on Wednesday, August 23rd, at Dr. Coppage's office until 1 o'clock and at Dr. Dudley's in the afternoon.

Millington Items.

Mrs. Dr. Jeter is in Germantown, Pa., Julian Jeter, her son, is at Hotel Vansant.

Wm. Wyatt, of Wilmington, Del., spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Chas. Harris.

Mrs. Ross has returned to Philadelphia, Pa.

Mrs. Whittington has gone to visit her son, who lives at Clayton, Del.

Mr. Julian Power and family are at home, in their new home, next to the M. E. parsonage.

Dr. Jeter has returned to town.

Mrs. Jarman, of Chesterville, Md., expects to occupy her new home some time next month.

Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Disharoon's mother who has been away for some months, returned Sunday eve.

Mrs. Julia Tyler went to Frostburg last week.

Mrs. Dr. Brice has returned to her home after a short absence.

Mr. John Gillespie is improving since his return from the hospital.

The two new houses being built, one by Mr. J. Jones, the other by Mr. Hurlock, are progressing, and will be ready for occupancy by 1912.

Mr. Wm. Davis and family who had the "Phillips" house on Crane st., have gone to Wilmington, Del.

Mr. Fletcher Hurd has rented the Price farm, near No. 10.

Mr. James Vansant and family, of Philadelphia, are at Hotel Vansant.

Rock Hall Items.

Quite a number of persons from Rock Hall are attending court in Chestertown this week.

Miss Mary Whaland, teacher of the second grade, R. H. H. S., fell last Monday and sprained her ankle very badly. She was taken over to her boarding house, then to Mr. John Brice's, where she remained for a few days. She resumed her duties the latter part of the week.

It is reported that the dredge Alaska will do some digging on the inner harbor; the oystermen should take this opportunity to have Rock Hall creek dug for their many small boats. This would be a great benefit to the watermen as well as the town and could be accomplished at a small cost.

There is the largest display of clothing and shoes at Kramers' that Rock Hall has ever seen. Why not give him a call, after consulting his advertisement on another page in the TRANSCRIPT?

The young people of the M.E.Church will hold an entertainment on the 16th of Nov. in the Mechanics' hall.

Tickets are now on sale for the minstrel at T. B. Durding's store, for the benefit of the manual training department. Come along and help this cause. If you don't care to go send some friend. An illustrated lecture by one of the 10th grade on one of our largest industries: Lumbering. Bound to be a success.

Still Pond Notes.

Mrs. Harry Watkins, of Rock Hall, is spending a few days with her father, Mr. Wm. Capps.

Mr. Charles Severson, of Baltimore, spent a few days with his father, Mr. James Severson.

Mrs. Fred Ford and daughter, Velma, of Baltimore, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Thompson.

Mrs. Lester Coleman, of Baltimore, visited her parents the past week.

Mrs. Edw. W. Ford has returned home after a pleasant visit to relatives at Clayton and Wilmington, Del.

Mr. and Mrs John Parrott attended the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Gulia Benson, Brooklyn, A. A. county, the past week.

Mrs. Sallie Norris is visiting at Wilmington, Del.

Mr. Arthur Bacon, of Chestertown, spent a few days in our town.

Miss Mary Capps and Mabel Norris as delegates attended the Epworth League convention at Greensboro on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. Edw. W. Ford spent the week end at Clayton, Del.

Miss Mary Parson spent Sunday at her home, near Worton.

Mr. Edw. Schofield, of Worton, spent Sunday with his family in our town.

In Honor of the Cardinal.

As a tribute to his worth as a churchman many thousands of Catholic laymen of the Archdiocese of Baltimore and clergymen and churchmen of high rank in the hierarchy of the Catholic Church in America assembled within the walls of the historic Cathedral of Baltimore yesterday and sent up a prayer of thanksgiving and a song of Jubilee for the presence in their midst of James Cardinal Gibbons, archbishop of Baltimore, 50 years a priest and 25 years a prince of the church of which he is the head in this country.

No less than 10,000 people, including those within the edifice and those without, who lined the sidewalks as onlookers, witnessed the most brilliant church pageant ever held in the United States. Never before were seen so many prelates and priests and church dignitaries in general as participated in the monster procession that wound its way into the Cathedral yesterday morning as a preamble to the ceremony that followed.

Long before the procession set itself in motion throngs of people were massed solidly along the streets adjoining the Cathedral. Finally the procession began to pass in kaleidoscopic review before the dazzled eyes of the spectators, and the long line of prelates, robed in scarlet, purple, white and brown and somber black, slowely and with stately dignity filed into the gray stucture of the Cathedral, where the ceremonies incident to the celebration of the silver and golden jubilee took place.

W. C. Loses.

Washington College journeyed to Emmitsburg on Saturday and tussled for football honors with the Mt. St. Mary's team, whose conch is the former popular coach of the Washington squad, Mike Thompson. The score was 17 to 12 in favor of of Mt. St. Mary's which is not such a stinging defeat for the W. C. boys, when the material from which to draw a football team of weight and experience is considered. In many of the fine points of the game, especially in working the forward pass, Washington excelled, but they failed to show quite as good defensive work as their opponents. Capt. Porter played a star game, and succeeded in making the two goals for W. C. The college team is showing up better in each game, and Coach Turner hopes to be able to bring back a victory to-day from Newark, when the opponents will be Delaware College.

Do not forget the fine Sacred Heart supper this evening. A big crowd attended last evening and the supper was fine.
