THROUGH OTHER EDITORS' EYES ON TOPICS OF THE CAMPAIGN.

MEN LIKE LEE AND GORMAN.

The Westminster Advocate says: Men like Lee and Gorman are an honor to the party and to the State. The courageous way in which Lee met defeat in the primaries and then put forth his best efforts to elect his opponent afford an excellent example for other defeated candidates. And Gorman demanded a searching investigation as soon as he heard there was fraud in a single precinct, declaring that he would not have a tainted nomination. As some one recently remarked: "With men like Gorman and Lee in the saddle, young, clean, ambitious and capable, the Democratic party in Maryland is safe from all assaults from without, and fully able to ferret out and punish all irregularities within."

Every Maryland voter should remember the extravagance of the Republican party during its administration of State affairs from 1896 to 1900. He should remember the haphazard manner in which public offices were conducted by incompetent Republican officials. How Baltimore city was dotted with negro Republican clubs, and how negroes, thinking they had a political pull, gave vent to indulgence in crime.

Lloyd Lowndes was a high class gentleman, and meant to do right, but his party would not support him in doing so. Mr. Goldsborough may personally and socially be a fine gentleman, but his political associations have been bad. He is not any stronger mentally or intellectually than Gov. Lowndes, and giving him credit for his good promises, he would do no more than did the last Republican Governor of Maryland.

The people of Maryland are not going to be fooled again by Republican promises.

MARYLAND DEMOCRATS STAND BY YOUR PARTY.

(The Towson Democrat-Journal.)

Democrats of Maryland should stand by their party in the present contest, and elect a Democratic Governor by such an overwhelming majority that encouragement will be given to bring about the election of a Democratic President next year. Maryland in recent presidential elections has been close, and therefore the result of the election here in November will be watched throughout the county with interest.

"VOTE FOR A MAN AND NOT A FIGUREHEAD."

To the Editor of The Sun—Sir: So much has been said lately regarding the candidacy of Hon. Arthur P. Gorman for Governor—several letters even impeaching his character as a statesman—let me impress the Democratic voters at large that I challenge anyone, Democrat or Republican, to produce before the State of Maryland a man his equal in intellectual power, moral character, honesty, fairness, love and justice toward his fellowmen. Arthur P. Gorman is a man who cannot be bought. His aim has always been honesty to everybody, and that is why some one is kicking him. No one can better fill the position which he seeks and to which he was nominated by the people at large, and not behind the Custom House doors like the other fellow was. Therefore stand by him. His record shows who Arthur P. Gorman is.

Some one signing himself as "Pat" in a recent letter talks about knifing him. Does he know what Democracy means? No, I don't think he does; for if he did he wouldn't talk that way. But I guess he isn't the only one.

Vote for a man and not a figurehead.

JOHN W. BARTON.

A GARRULOUS FOREMAN.

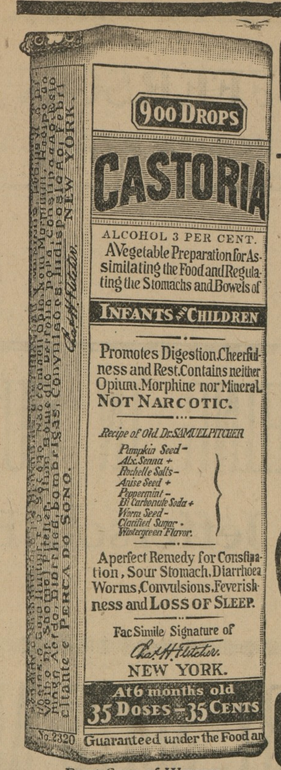

Question? Is Mr. Dodson the foreman of the Baltimore City Grand Jury, the new Republican Campaign Manager. Never before has a Foreman of a Grand Jury publicly threatened what his fellow-Jurors would do. The doings of the Grand Jury under their oath are secret. In this case it seems "a little power makes one mad," and this Foreman lays aside all the sanctity of his oath for campaign purposes. In an interview as reported in the Baltimore Sun, he is alleged to have said: "Before this Grand Jury goes out of business, the Democratic ring in Baltimore City will be out of business."

Another question—Mr. Dobson. How about the Republican ring for whom you are working so industriously?
