Instructions To Voters

How to Proceed to Cast a Ballot Under The Election Law.

Attorney-General Isaac Lobe Straus has prepared the following Instructions to Voters as directed by Article 32, Code of Public General Laws, and amendments thereto:

1. To vote. Enter room, step up to guard rail, give name and registered residence to the Judges. Wait until your name is found upon the registers, then get ballot from the judge in charge of the ballots. See that he has written your name and number on the coupon attached to the ballot and his own name or initials on the back of the ballot itself.

2. Upon receiving your ballot, retire to one of the booths or compartments and prepare your ballot by marking with an indelible pencil after the name of every person, or persons for whom you wish to vote, and to the right thereof, in the blank space provided therefor, a crossmark, for example X; and in case of a question submitted to a vote of the people, by making likewise in the appropriate space a cross-mark (X) against the answer you desire to give.

3. In marking the ballot you may take with you into the polling place any written or printed memorandum or paper to assist you in preparing your ballot, except a fac-simile of the ballot to be voted. You must prepare and deposit your ballot without undue delay. Before coming from behind the curtain in front of your compartment you must fold your ballot in the same way as it was folded when you received it, so that the marks which you have made upon it shall be entirely concealed. You then hand your folded ballot to the judge at the ballot-box, give him your name and registered addres and wait until he tears off the coupon containing your name and number and strings it, and deposits your ballot in the ballot-box. You must then leave the polling room and cannot again go behind the guard rail during the day.

4. A voter must not go into any compartment occupied by another or converse with any other voter while engaged in a compartment, nor can he occupy a compartment more than seven (7) minutes if others are waiting.

5. You must not take any ballot outside the guard-rail. If you spoil a ballot you must deliver the spoiled ballot to the judge in charge of the ballots and receive another from him. If you spoil three ballots you lose your vote.

6. A voter who is physically disabled from marking his ballot, must make affidavit to that effect if he desires assistance. The two polling clerks, after such affidavit has been made, can accompany him into one of the apartments and there mark his ballot as he instructs them, marking only the names of the candidates whom he shall name. The clerks are not allowed to read the ballot to him.

7. Any voter who shall allow his ballot to be seen by any person with the apparent intention of letting it be known how he is about to vote, or place any distinguishing marks upon his ballot, or who shall make a false statement as to his inability to mark his ballot, or who shall interfere or attempt to interfere with any voter when inside the enclosed space in the polling-room, or when marking his ballot, or who shall endeavor to induce any voter before voting to show how he marks or has marked his ballot, shall be punished by a fine of not less than ($5.00) dollars nor more than one hundred ($100,00) dollars or by imprisonment in jail for a period of not exceeding sixty (60) days, or by both fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the Court.

By order

POLITICAL NEWS.

Baltimore, October, 3, 1911.

The old adage about the person who laughs last, laughs longest is going to come into play in this campaign. If one should take seriously the big display lines, known by newspaper men as scare heads, in the Baltimore city papers, he would be led to believe the fair Monumental City, the State's metropolis, is a veritable Sodom and Gomorrah, in so far as politics goes, and the papers causing the sensations not being able to dictate to the Democratic party, charge all the uncleanness of the recent Primary Election in this city to that party and have never mentioned a single time that there has been just as many Republicans arrested for the supposed trickery in counting the ballots as there are Democrats. Fortunately, the Criminal Courts do not know either Democrat or Republican when the traverser comes to the Bar of Justice. If the irregularities had been confined to the Twenty-third ward, then it would be reasonable to consider these discrepancies venal and a matter of collusion—but the wrong counts in other wards sometimes favor one candidate and then another, and this does not only apply to the leading candidates, Mr. Gorman and Mr. Lee, but applies to all the other candidates as well, which shows instead of collusion to defeat any one candidate; these discrepancies are the results of carelessness arising from the fact that as yet the people—we mean the election officials, also do not realize what a legal primary is. The Republican candidates, Goldsborough, Cunningham and Soper, under the skillful guidance of that arch-political manipulator, Stone, knew the primary in its many details, as the law now stands could hardly be carried through successfully even by the shrewdness of the proverbial Philadelphia lawyer, therefore they declined to let their people, the Republicans, register a choice at the polls and refused to run until canned nominations could be given them. It must be also understood that election officials, both Republicans and Democrats, are not just anybody picked up at random, or persons who are susceptible to bribery, but said officials of both parties have to run the gauntlet of a perfectly honorable Board of Election Supervisors after a recommendation by their party managers, and police investigation as to honesty and sobriety. The clouded skies politically will soon clear, and we have not the slightest doubt of Democratic ascendency. No doubt it has been noticed that the Independents, so called, or the Reform League, have not charged the Democratic Party with either bad faith or bad acts, and their leaders, William Cabell Bruce, George Morrison, William L. Marbury, and a host of others stand solidly behind Mr. Gorman and his associates on the State ticket. While the turmoil has been going on in the city, just exactly the opposite is happeninig in the counties, from which come the most encouraging reports. All the sores caused by the primary fight have been healed. Many Democratic clubs are being formed, and the party in the counties in solid front will be presented to the Republicans on election day. The large popular majority received by Mr. Gorman over the entire state in the primaries foretells his election in November, even if quite a few go over to the enemy in Baltimore city. We do not believe many will desert the Democratic ranks. Once a Democrat always a Democrat is an old absolute truism. What is to be gained by going into the camp of the enemy? Are the Republicans in the States where they have complete control any more honest than the Democrats have been in Maryland? Not at all, and then again look at the candidates and their records, are the Republicans in any way superior to the Democrats? Not at all; look closer, compare your personal friends of both political complexions and then honestly, do you believe as a deserter from the political camp of your fathers, that you will fare better in the camp of your heretofore political enemies, not much. Governor Crothers after three days of consideration and after weighing the whole matter very carefully, decided the calling of an extra session of the Legislature was not necessary to count the disputed ballots of Baltimore city, but he didn't so decide until the Grand Jury now probing the matter promised quick action in finishing. The count, the leaders among the Democrats are perfectly satisfied with this, and are assured they will have the last laugh and that it will be Governor Gorman after January 2nd, next. The self-satisfied hog, while in the fattening pen, cracking his corn, is always quiet and tractable, but when the killing time comes he squeals from fear, and that is the position of the Republican, now that the killing is in sight.
