THE GRIM REAPER.

HARVEY M. CULP.

Mr. Harvey M. Culp, youngest son of the late Wm. S. and Ida Isabelle Culp, and a native of this town, died at his home in Barberton, Ohio, last Friday afternoon, after a long illness of a complication of diseases, aged 38 years. The deceased grew up to young manhood in his native town and was educated in our public schools. He went to Philadelphia and was engaged with the great Cramp shipyard for a number of years. It was while there that he married a Miss Brady, and together they went west, where after spending some years at Dayton, the deceased accepted a lucrative and very responsible position with the great boiler works firm of Babcock & Wilcox in Barberton. The deceased was a young man of fine mechanical mind, and though somewhat reserved in his manner, he was one of those men whose friendship is a valuable asset to anyone because of his sincerity. He is survived by a widow and two small children. He also leaves two brothers, Messrs. William M. and Alwyn M., of this town, and one sister, Mrs. Evans, of Baltimore. Superintendent of schools Milton Melvin and Mr. W. Fletcher Melvin are uncles. The remains were brought to Chestertown by train on Monday at noon and rested at the home of his brother, Mr. A. M. Culp, on Washington avenue, until 2.30 o'clock, when they were taken to their last resting place in the family lot in Chester Cemetery, where final funeral services were conducted by Rev. Dr. F. T. Little. The pall-bearers were Messrs. George D. Lofland, Wm. F. Russell, Wm. B. Usilton, Eben F. Perkins, J. H. Sides and William L. Fowler. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements.

MRS. REGINA M. KEENAN KNOTT.

Mrs. Regina M. Keenan Knott, wife Gen. A. Leo Knott, of Baltimore, and one of the best known women in social circles in that city, died suddenly on Monday night of heart failure at her home 1029 St. Paul street. Mrs. Knott was well-known throughout the State, and for years was active in charity work, and in the Daughters of the American Revolution.

MRS. HANNAH A. A. BECK.

Mrs. Hannah A. A. Beck, widow of the late William E. Beck, died at her home in Lynch on Monday morning after a lingering illness from general debility, aged 86 years. Funeral services took place at her late home Wednesday afternoon. Interment was made in the cemetery at Still Pond. Undertaker W. H. Krusen had charge of the funeral arrangements.

POMONA GRANGE.

The third quarterly meeting of the Kent County Pomona Grange was held in Firemen's Hall, Chestertown, on Thursday, and the meeting was a great success. Grangers were present from all parts of the county. The business meeting was called to order at 11.30 o'clock by County Master Edward A. Corey, but owing to the lateness of the hour in calling to order the session was adjourned until two o'clock, when the election of officers took place. The following officers were elected:

Master—Harry Griffith, Sassafras Grange.
Overseer—F. H. Cornelius, Still Pond Grange.
Lecturer—Mrs. A. V. Crew, Fairlee Grange.
Steward—L. W. Ford, Still Pond Grange.
Asst. Steward—Geo. Rash, Chestertown Grange.
Chaplain—Rev. F. H. Mullineaux, Kennedyville Grange.
Treasurer—Dr. J. W. Urie, Kennedyville Grange.
Secretary—Edgar Pennington, Kennedyville Grange.
Gate-keeper—Harvey Morris, Kennedyville Grange.
Ceres—Mrs. Harry Griffith, Sassafras Grange.
Flora—Mrs. S. A. Cornelius, Still Pond Grange.
Pomona—Mrs. Ethel Morris, Chestertown Grange.
Lady Asst. Steward—Mrs. Wm. T. Baxter, Kennedyville Grange.

Messrs. M. A. Toulson and Thomas S. Bordley very kindly donated the use of the shacks on the square, where a sumptuous dinner, consisting of fried oysters, potato and chicken salad, roast duck and sweet potatoes, country ham, fried and baked chicken, celery, mock terrapin, all kinds of bread, coffee, etc., was served in abundance in charge of the ladies of the Chestertown Grange.

At the afternoon session Mr. H. P. Skipper gave an interesting talk on hog cholera serum, urging the grangers to request our representatives in the Legislature to work for the passage of a bill in the next session providing for the manufacture of the serum within the State. A resolution was passed requesting a change in the officers of the National Grange. Owing to the success of the recent Pomona corn contest, county lecturer Wm. G. Smyth urged a Pomona grange wheat contest, but the question was deferred to the next quarterly meeting. A rising vote of thanks to the Chestertown Grange for its splendid entertainment, and to those in charge of the flower show of the night before for the loan of flowers for stage decoration was taken, after which the grange adjourned to meet in January, by invitation, in Still Pond. The ladies of the Chestertown Grange wish to thank the firm of Lofland & Culp for the loan of cook stove and heaters.

At the corn contest at Fairlee Grange last week, Mr. W. G. Skirven won first prize, his yield on the one acre being 89 bushels. Mr. Wm. T. Nicholson won second with a little over 80 bushels per acre, while Mr. T. E. W. Crew was an extremely close third.

Still Pond Grange will hold their regular meeting on Tuesday afternoon at 2.30 P. M.

The D. or D. section of the F. F. F.'s will entertain by holding a "Pie-fest". So come out and have a good time.

Betterton Notes.

The Epworth League held a Hallowe'en social at the Belmont, about one hundred and fifty were present and all enjoyed themselves very much. Ghosts greeted you and really the sights made one feel like turning back.

Mr. L. H. Kaisen and family visited Baltimore this week and took in the sights.

Quite a number of our people attended the Bentztown Bard at Galena, and were very much pleased with the performance.

One of our teachers Miss Margaret Brinsfield has been confined to her home with sore throat, but at this writing is very much improved.

Mr. Ernest Horsey was in Baltimore the past week on business, and we think a little pleasure, but Mr. Horsey keeps mum while Mr. Chas. Bacon does the guessing.

Mr. Clarence Crew has just finished a neat little cottage for Mr. John Brice, on Wheeler avenue.

The men's improvement association will hold a business meeting at Idlewhile Saturday evening. All members are especially requested to attend, as this is the first meeting since last spring.
