Northern Convocation and Dual Anniversaries.

The Northern Convocation of the Diocese of Easton and the dual anniversaries, the 218th anniversary of the organization of St. Paul's Parish, and the 200th anniversary of the building of the edifice, were held at St. Paul's church on Wednesday. The following program was ably rendered:

Morning service—Celebration of the Holy Communion, addresses on the anniversaries by the dean, the Rev. Geo. C. Sutton, D. D., and the Rev. Mr. Hepburn.

Afternoon session —(Missionary) Foreign, addressed by Rev. Mr. Robinson; Domestic address by Rev. C. R. Birnbach.

Evening closing service—Topic, "Communion of Saints," addresses by Rev. H. M. Huff, Dean Coale and the Rev. Wm. Schouler.

St. Paul's Parish is the oldest in the county with the possible exception of Shrewsbury. It is one of the most beautiful church properties naturally in the State, and many of the most sacred reminiscences, both historical and religious, center around the sacred edifice and slumber beneath its stately shade trees. Members of many of the county's most prominent families lie buried beneath the sod, and the church and its rectors hold a very dear spot not only in its hearts of its parishoners but also in the memory of all who have its religious interests at heart. The TRANSCRIPT noted two weeks ago the age of the colonial silver now in the possession of the parish, and also gave the name of the donor, Col. Thomas Smyth. The TRANSCRIPT extends congratulations to the parish and parishoners, and wishes it continued religious prosperity. A splendid luncheon was served by the ladies of the parish in the vestry room, and everything was done to make the day a memorable and enjoyable one.

Cure For Hog Cholera.

Mr. Thomas J. Hackett, of Hurlock, Dorchester county, has an interesting article in the Baltimore Sun on Wednesday relative to the treatment of hogs infected with the dread hog cholera. For the benefit of our farmers we publish the statement in full in the hope that it may be of benefit to those who are now losing so many of their hogs. Mr. Hackett says:

"I have learned that in the locality of Oak Grove and Seaford, Del., as well as the upper part of Dorchester county, Maryland, the people are losing their hogs with cholera or some infectious disease that seems to almost paralyze them. The disease causes a high fever and attacks their throat, and a strictly white hog will show purple or scarlet in the skin; and if it lingers a few weeks will often peel off. The hog usually lies stretched out and appears helpless.

"About 15 years ago I had two hogs, weighing about 250 pounds each, attacked in like manner, and from the first I concluded that I would not give them anything to eat or drink, with the result that in about three weeks they got up and rooted the ground down to the yellow dirt for water. Then I gave them about one pint each. Afterward I gave bran and water for a few days before giving any solid food. The hogs lived and lost but little flesh. This was in August and September and the thermometer ranged near the 100 mark.

"This seems like cruel treatment, but in cases of typhoid a human patient is often restricted from eating for even a longer period without any great suffering, whereas if wholesome food is given it is sure death. This treatment does not cost anything, and you can save your hogs. Dr. H. F. Nichols, of East New Market, and Daniel H. Harper, of Hurlock, Md., did the same thing and saved theirs.

THOMAS J. HACKETT."

Teachers' Association.

The Public School Teachers' Association will meet in the Chestertown High School building on Wednesday, November 29th. Superintendent of Schools, Milton Melvin, has arranged the following interesting programme:

11.00 A. M.—ROLL CALL.

Discussion—Teachers of Latin tell us that many pupils, promoted to the eighth grade, cannot, at once, take up the study of Latin, because of the deficiency in their knowledge of English. In what respect is their knowledge of English deficient? How can this be prevented? To be discussed by teachers of high school grades.

How can Maury's Geography be used in teaching geograhy as suggested by Miss Davis at our last Teachers Institute? To be discussed by teachers of all grades.

Extracts from letters and other papers on Teaching Agriculture. To be read by Superintendent Melvin.

1.00 P. M.—ADJOURNMENT.

Note—Desiring to make the session as short as possible, no opening exercises have been provided for. Teachers will please be on hand promptly at the hour named, that the work may be completed by one o'clock.
