THE GRIM REAPER.

THOMAS RASIN.

Thomas Gale, son of Mr. and Mrs. William T. S. Rasin, of Quaker Neck, died at his parents home near Cliff City on Saturday of Brights disease aged 2 years and one month. Funeral services were held at the house on Monday morning at eleven o'clock Rev. Mr. McCann, of Pomona, officiating. The bearers were Howard and Walter Crouch, Carroll Brown and Walter Rash. Interment was in Still Pond cemetery. Undertaker W. H. Krusen had charge of the funeral arrangements.

CATHERINE KING.

Catherine, the seven-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. King, formerly of Chestertown, died at the home of her parents in Wilmington last Saturday. The remains were brought here on Monday and interred in Chester cemetery. Services at the grave were conducted by Rev. Dr. F. T. Little. The pall bearers were Albion Bailey, Duncan Derringer, Merrick Horn and Walmsley Davis. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd in charge.

MILDRED DIXON.

Mildred, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Dixon, of near Millington, died last Friday of typhoid fever and spinal meningitis, after an illness of several weeks. The funeral took place from the home of her parents on Monday at 11 A. M. The pall bearers were Master George Tonkin, Clifton Clark, Newnam Stevens and Harry Purnell. Rev. H. S. Thompson officiated. Mr. J. L. Smith had charge of the funeral arrangements. The little girl was a favorite of all who knew her and her parents have the sympathy of the community.

Still Pond Notes.

Mrs. Hazel Knox Bornschein is hard to beat. The weather did not affect her at all last Monday evening, and we venture to say, if we had had a good evening, and all of our young folks had been able to come, her "57 ways to catch a man," plus one big full moon, would have kept the clerk busy at the court house this week. As it was, only a few were present, but we noticed that there was a line-up, two deep, at the back of the hall (all gentlemen) waiting to run if necessary. So be sure to hear it girls the next time she gets down here. She was great! In her new monologues she was irresistible, and when she sang, "I've Got a Pain in My Saw Dust," the audience with one accord, had it too. They laughed and stopped, then laughed again, and I think they all had a bad case of appendi-saw dust all the evening. Her Irish songs in costume were dear. Her child songs cute, and "I'm wearin' awa'" made you feel like crying. She had to repeat some, then gave a couple of old favoirtes too. Miss Olga von Hartz is one of the best violinists ever heard here. She is a talented pupil of Mr. Bornschein at the Peabody. Her tone is deep and full of feeling and every note true. She is a woman of strong personality, and that made her numbers so attractive to the whole audience. She gave a Gavotle, Polish dance, Russian march, Traumeric, Cavilleria Rusticana, and accompanied Mrs. Bornschein in two numbers. About 70 were present and all had plenty of chicken salad, etc. Proceeds $23, for the benefit of the Ladies' Aid of Still Pond M. E. Church.

Mr. John Hurlock, of Bridgeville, spent the past week with Mr. J. L. Price.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Watson, of Newark, Del., spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rasin.

Mrs. John Beauchamp, spent a few days at Upper Fairmont.

Rev. E. H. Collins, of Parsonburg, Md., visited Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Price.

Mrs. Wm. Jewell and Mrs. Thomas Bradley spent Friday in Baltimore.

Miss Mary Parsons spent the past week at her home, near Worton.

Mrs. Howard Atwell and children, of Lynch, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jewell.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Walter spent a few days in Baltimore.

Mrs. Howard Atwell and sister, Miss Elizabeth Jewell, visited Baltimore, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Parrott, visited Chestertown, on Wednesday.

Miss Jennie Bowers is getting along as well as can be expected of typhoid fever. Miss Edman a trained nurse of Baltimore, is with her.

Harvest Home services were held at Still Pond M. E. Church on Sunday, November 5th. The decorations were magnificent, every variety of fruit, vegetable and grain were represented. A large and appreciative audience was present, and our pastor, Rev. T. H. Beauchamp, gave one of his best sermons of the year. He chose a subject not usually preached about, "And Now Concerning the Collection." I Cor. 16th chapter, 1st verse, and presented it in a new and beautiful manner. Even the children could follow him as he led, and when the benevolent collection was taken and $156 realized, we knew the older ones had taken it to heart and (pocketbook, too.) Mrs. Hazel Knox Bornschein, of Baltimore, gave in a superb manner "The King of Love, My Shepherd is," and "My Redeemer" with violin Obligato by Miss Olga Van-Hartz, of the Peabody. Miss Van-Hartz also gave two more numbers.

Worton Items.

Tuesday, election day, passed off very quietly in our village.

Mr. Roscoe Wharton, the obliging clerk for Mr. A. S. Turner, has accepted a position in Long Island and left the first of the month to enter upon his new duties. Mr. Turner has engaged the services of Mr. Walbert.

Mr. Thomas Fowler bought the fine driving horse belonging to Mr. Roscoe Wharton.

Mr. Perry Rasin is building a new house on his farm opposite Catts Corner, and is giving the house on the home farm a new coat of paint.

Mr. Theodore Jewell has purchased the house where Mr. L. J. Keyser now lives and will occupy the same next year. Mr. Keyser will remove his family to Betterton.

Mr. Edw. Schofield has rented the place where Mr. Joseph Dwyer lives. Mr. Dwyer will go to Chestertown.

Revival meetings are going on at Union M. E. Church.

Miss Bessie Cooper is quite sick with typhoid fever.

Mrs. Joseph Dwyer, Jr., and brother, Rasin Gears, who have both had typhoid are convalescent.

Norman Cooper, eldest son of Mr. George Cooper, has also been a victim of the same fever, but is very much improved this writing.
