THE GRIM REAPER.

MR. EDWARD FAULKNER.

Mr. Edward Faulkner died at his home in Kennedyville on Thursday morning of paralysis aged 80 years. He leaves a widow and three daughters, Mrs. John E. Matthews, of Chestertown, Mrs. Henry Rosin, of Sassafras, and Mrs. Roberts, of Baltimore. Funeral services from the residence of Mr. Wm. T. Hague in Kennedyville, to-day at 1.30 P. M. Rev. F. H. Mullineaux officiating. Interment at Shrewsbury, undertaker Wm. H. Krusen in charge.

Kennedyville Items.

Mrs. L. A. Pennington, with her little girl, Dorothea, is visiting a sister in Newark, Delaware.

A large and interesting congregation attended the Harvest Home and Thanksgiving services at the Methodist Protestant Church last Sunday.

Mr. Edward Faulkner of about eighty two years of age, was stricken with general paralysis Tuesday night, while in bed, in the building next to the post-office, and resulted in his death later.

On the Saturday evening, Dec. 2nd, in Weer's Hall, there will be given by Mr. Mullineaux, assisted by Miss Virginia Synder, a trained and accomplished soloist of Baltimore city, a great illustrated Holy Land entertainment. Mr. Mullineaux has traveled extensively in the Oriental countries. and has a great many curios and costumes fresh from Jerusalem, Nazareth, Bethlehem and other places, and his entertainments are exceedingly interesting, instructive, amusing and profitable. You must not miss this rare treat. Miss Snyder will take an active part singing several appropriate selections in Oriental costumes. You want to see the real Holy Land Shepherd Robe, and club; the "Mysterious woman" of Jerusalem and Constantinople; the beautiful uaveiled girl of Bethlehem in robe of 15 colors. The nose jeweled woman of Egypt, and hear Pharaoh's daughter in Egyptian garb, sing a most beautiful selection. You must see the realistic "moving pictures" just as they appear in the land of our Lord to-day, and be instructed and edified by many object lessons which will make more plain to you the Word of God. The habits and customs of the people of the far East, courtship and marriage will be made plain. Grangers throughout the county must be present to get the benefit of how the land of Canaan, flowing with "milk and honey" is farmed. Come see the Barley bread, the River of Jordan, and Sea of Galilee water and many other cuios direct from the land made historic and sacred by its being the birthplace and home of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Entertainment to begin at 7.30 P. M. Admission, adults, 20 cents, children, 10 cents,

Proceeds for the benefit of the M. P. Parsonage. Should Saturday evening be stormy, the entertainment will be given on the following Monday evening, Dec. 4th.

Revival services in the M. P. Church, Kennedyville, all day Sunday, Dec. 3rd. Everybody welcome. Come and worship with us.

Rock Hall Items.

Captain Frank Satterfield, of New York, spent several days this week with his father, Nathan Satterfield.

Last Saturday night some person scattered "Kercho," a sneezing powder, in the Moving Picture Show. Every one was greatly annoyed and was very much put out about it. There should be steps taken to prevent such persons, as those who wish to indulge in such acts, from associating with crowds who wish to enjoy themselves at places of amusement. The trustees of the hall have offered a reward of $25.00 for information leading toward conviction of the guilty party or parties.

The Ola Bidwell entertainment held in the Mechanics' Hall last Thursday night was a great success both socially and financially.

Among the new ones to have the Pitner Gas plant installed are T. B. Durding, Snowden B. Maslin and Max Alexander.

John Lewis and son have moved in their new store which they had built, just above postoffice. Epsey, the barber, will occupy the room made vacant by the change.

A barrel of apples was stolen from a dealer who had stopped at the "Chesapeake House." The guilty pasties, a crowd of mischievous boys, hid them in a neighboring wood pile and caused the owner of the apples quite a little anxiety.

The Daughters of America held an anniversary Tuesday evening in the Jr. O. U. A. M. Hall. The Juniors were invited to attend. The whole affair was a success.

The teachers of the R. H. H. S. attended a "Teachers' Institute" in Chestertown on Wednesday, school having been closed on Tuesday. Prof. F. A. Greenhawk, after going to Chestertown, joined an automobile party and will very likely visit Easton, his home town, on the trip.

Joseph Sewell, Jr., who fell from the back porch of his home and dislocated his elbow, has received another fall. And, as a result, he has been taken to a hospital in Baltimore, where he will have to undergo an operation.

Miss Nettie Willson, who has been attending Mt. St. Agnes College, and Miss Mildred Durding, of Baltimore, State Normal School, spent the Thanksgiving holidays in Rock Hall.

The Odd Fellows held a dance in Durding's Hall Wednesday night.

The Red Men had an entertainment Thursday night in the K. of P. Hall.

Miss Milly Willson and Mr. Ringgold Jones were married in Chestertown on Wednesday.

Still Pond Notes.

Mr. Golden Warren, of Philadelphia, spent Thanksgiving with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Warren.
