GET THE BEST.

In buying shoes bear in mind the fact that there is no part of your apparel that is obliged to stand as much service and exposure and should, therefore, be selected with the view of securing only those composed of the best materials and put together in a substantial and thorough manner.

I have a full and complete stock of Carroll, Adams & Co.'s strictly first-class shoes, including the celebrated FAULTLESS line for fall wear. The best shoes for every-day wear on the market, and a trial will convince you.

I have the most complete up-to-date shoe stock in this vicinity.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Chestertown, Md., Dec. 11, 1911.

TO OUR PATRONS:

We take pleasure in announcing to you that we have secured the services of formerly of Galena, this county, who has this day assumed charged of our Horse Shoeing, Wagon Ironing and Repairing and AUTOMOBILE WORK of all kinds. Mr. Leager is an expert in his line and we only ask you to try him to prove that what we say is correct. He has made a special study of the shoeing of fast horses as well as roadsters, and he has devoted much time and attention to the repairing of AUTOMOBILES. We can refer you to people who have been helped out of Automobile trouble which will convince you without question that he can do the work. We have make many changes in the construction of our FARM WAGON for this coming season, and we are sure beyond a doubt that everyone of them will be beneficial to the man who intends buying a wagon. We only ask that you call and see us and look over them before you buy. If you fail to see our New Warner Wheel Wagon you will never know what a good thing you have missed until you see your neighbor's. We assure you that the addition of Mr. Leager to our already skilled force of Mechanics puts us in a position to do any and all kinds of Wood and Iron work with promptness and despatch, and we think we are able to give better and more prompt service than ever before. We are prepared to handle MILL WORK of all kinds, such as can be done in a mill eauipped for both Wood and Iron work. We thank each and every one for the liberal share of patronage with which we have been favored, and we trust that with our improved facilities and with fair and square dealing we shall merit a larger share than we have heretofore received.

Wishing each one of you the compliments of the season and anticipating your future favors to which we promise our best attention. We are,

Faithfully yours,

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, Maryland, in Equity, No. 1798.

JOSEPH BROWN, Colored,

vs.

James Wright, Carrie Brown, George Brown, Joseph Wright, Joseph Thomas, William Thomas, Sylvester Thomas, Carrie Thomas, Joseph Thomas, Edith Harris Ringgold, George Ringgold, Hester Tiller, Alfred Tiller, Kosora Bright, William Bright, Mary Priscilla Parker, Emma Taylor and all the unknown heirs of Richard Hazzard, colored.

The object of this bill is to procure a decree of this court for the sale of the real estate of Richard Hazzard, colored, deceased, situated in Kent county, Maryland, and for a distribution of the proceeds to the heirs at law. The bill states:

1. That Richard Hazzard, colored, late of Kent county in the State of Maryland, deceased, died many years ago, and at the time of his death was seized and possessed of certain real estate situated, lying and being in the Second Election District of Kent county, Maryland, in that part of said district known as "Big Woods," and containing some 13 acres of land, more or less.

2. That the said Richard Hazzard left surviving him, the following children, namely: Caroline Hazzard, who married William Harris, both of whom are dead, and the said Caroline Hazzard Harris left surviving her, a son, Joseph Brown, the plaintiff, whose wife's name was Sophia Brown, but she is now dead. The said Caroline Hazzard Harris also left a daughter, Elizabeth Brown, who married James Wright. She is dead and left the following children, namely: Carrie Brown, who inter-married with George Brown and Joseph Wright; Annie Brown, who is dead, but who married Joseph Thomas and by him had the following four children, namely: William Thomas, Sylvester Thomas, Carrie Thomas and Joseph Thomas, all adults, and all living in Wilmington, Del.; and a daughter, Edith Harris, who inter-married with George Ringgold, both of whom live in the City of Chester, in the State of Pennsylvania. And the said Caroline Hazzard Harris left a daughter, Aggie Harris, who married Samuel Tillotson; they had two daughters, one Hester Tiller, she married Alfred Tiller, both of whom live in the "Big Woods," and the other daughter of Aggie Harris Tillotson was Kosora, who married William Bright, both of whom also live in the "Big Woods." And the said Richard Hazzard left a daughter by the name of Mary Priscilla Parker, who, your plaintiff is informed, resides in Chester, Pennsylvania. And also Richard Hazzard also left a daughter, Emma Taylor, who, your plaintiff alleges, resides in the city of Philadelphia, in the State of Pennsylvania. And these, your plaintiff alleges, are the only children and heirs at law of the said Richard Hazzard known to him; and it is unknown whether the said Richard Hazzard left any other heirs surviving him.

3. That the said real estate is not susceptible of partition without material loss and injury to the parties entitled to interests therein as above stated, and that in order to make division of said interests it will be necessary for said real estate to be sold and the proceeds divided among the parties entitled thereto according to their several interests therein. It it thereupon, this 11th day of December, 1911, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent county, in equity, that the plaintiff by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper, published in said Kent county, once in each of four successive weeks before the 15th day of January next, giving notice to the said non-resident defendants, Edith Harris Ringgold, George Ringgold, Mary Priscilla Parker and Emma Taylor, and the unknown heirs not named in this proceeding of Richard Hazzard, warning them to appear in this court by person or by solicitor, on or before the 1st day of February next, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

ONE FIDDLES, THE OTHER DANCES.

During the two weeks in which the Enterprise has been villifying and contemptuously abusing the TRANSCRIPT certain Organization Democratic henchmen have been making their rounds endeavoring to make political capital out of such slush. One henchman took a copy of the Enterprise in a certain store and started to read the stuff to several gentlemen, and he was severely called down by one of the proprietors. Another henchman took the paper to the home of a neighbor and a good friend of the TRANSCRIPT'S in the country, and endeavored to poison this friend's mind by reading the same stuff to our friend. He received the rebuke he deserved, and the further thrust that "the TRANSCRIPT is the people's friend, and you can't hurt the TRANSCRIPT by such stuff as that. The people know what the TRANSCRIPT has done for them, and all such rot as that is doing the TRANSCRIPT good, so keep it up."

You know the old story that "Nero fiddled while Rome burned." Well, the Enterprise has been "playing the fiddle" and certain Organization Democrats have been "burning" with enthusiasm and anxiety to poison somebody's mind against the TRANSCRIPT, and so it looks like the old combination against the people is still doing business at the same old stands.

Will Probated and Letters Granted.

The last will and testament of David Ashley, late of Rock Hall, was admitted to probate in the Orphans' Court on Tuesday, letters testamentary having been granted to the executor, D. W. Crosby. The will bequeathed the home and lot of land in Rock Hall, his canoe and seine and seine boat to his son, Daniel A. Ashley, in fee simple, and after the payment of his just debts, he orders the residue of his real and personal property to be sold and the proceeds divided equally among his heirs. The will was made in 1907, and was witnessed by Messrs. James Wood and John B. Glenn.

Letters of administration upon the estate of Victor Hendrickson were granted to George and Sarah C. Hendrickson. Mr. Hendrickson left no will. The court appointed Messrs. Edgar J. Watson and Harry Nicols to appraise the estate

Old Kris Coming.

Old Kris will come to Chestertown on Sunday night, December 24th. He advises us to say to all the good little boys and girls in Chestertown and Kent county that he has heard all about what you want, and he will endeavor to supply your needs. If the weather is favorable, he will come to Kent in an automobile about like Mr. Jacob Thompson's big car, and what he is unable to bring in that, he will get at the stores in the town and county, all of which are supplied with an excellent assortment of Christmas presents. He asks us to tell the children's parents to leave all orders for him at the town and county stores and not to go to the city, as he wants to get all the presents he is unable to bring in his automobile at the stores in the town and county. So be just as good as you can, and go to bed early.

Wedding Announcements.

Mrs. Lee A. Durding, of Rock Hall, has issued invitations to the marriage of her daughter, Edna Elizabeth, to Mr. Walter Thomas Bramble, of Chestertown. The ceremony will take place on Christmas day, Dec. 25th, at 10.30 A. M., in the Rock Hall M. E. Church.

Mrs. Joseph H. Crew, of Betterton, has issued invitations to the marriage of her daughter, Hettie Olivia, to Mr. Herman Merritt Crew, the ceremony to take place Wednesday evening Dec. 20, in Betterton M. E. Church.

Mrs. F. G. Brown has issued invitations the marriage of her daughter, Mary Carsdalle, to Mr. W. Ambrose Carroll, on Wednesday evening December 20th, 1911, at six o'clock in Christ Church, Nashville, Tennesse. Mr. and Mrs. Carroll will be at home to their friends at 901 Demonbreun street, Nashville, Tennessee.

Students Honor Foot Ball Team

The students of Washington College and their friends brought the successful season of 1911 to a pleasant ending by a reception and dance Friday night in honor of the foot ball team. The guests were received in the library by Mrs. Lewin W. Wickes and Mr. Wendell D. Allen, '13. A number of the alumni from out of town were present to offer congratulations to the team on its splendid showing during the season. After the reception the dance was held in the gymnasium and supper served in the college dining room.

During the reception F. Stanley Porter, captain of the team, was presented a miniature gold foot ball in the form of a watch charm, in recognition of his fine record as a player and leader. The presentation was made by Dr. Cain on behalf of the donor, Judge James A. Pearce.

It Pays To Advertise.

Prof. J. M. Munyon, the great druggist of Philadelphia, in an address on the value of advertising before the Baltimore Advertising Club on Wednesday said:

"Advertising is a living element so powerful that it is beyond the power of man to stop its forward stride. The year in which I spent the most money in advertising I made the most money. If you want a big business and desire to earn big money you must do big advertising. Destroy all your literature, history books and news columns, but preserve the pages of advertising. It has revolutionized the world."

The TRANSCRIPT is the best advertising medium in Kent county, as our many patrons will testify.
