NUPTIAL EVENTS.

CREW—CREW.

A beautiful Christmas wedding took place in Betterton M. E. Church at 7.30 Wednesday evening, when Miss Hattie Olivia, only daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Crew, became the bride of Mr. Herman Merritt, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Crew. The church had been elaborately trimmed for the occasion with holly, festoons of laurel and Christmas bells. The bridal party stood beneath a triple arch of evergreen with a background of potted plants. The bride, who entered the church with the groom, wore a gown of white satin trimmed with duchess lace, a tulle veil fastened with orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. She was attended by Miss Helen Crew as maid of honor, wearing white messaline with silver trimmings and carrying a bouquet of carnations. The three bridesmaids, Miss Anna B. Smyth, of Chestertown; Misses Ethel Young and Estella O'Neal, both of Baltimore, were gowned in cream silk with pearl ornaments and carried pink carnations and ferns. Mr. George Brice was the best man and the ushers were Mr. James Brice and Mr. Horton Silcox, who, with the groom, wore the conventional black with white vests, ties and gloves. The wedding march was skilfully rendered by Miss Bessie Leigh, and many loving thoughts followed the impressive service in which Rev. J. H. Beauchamp officiated. Immediately after the ceremony, a large reception was held at the home of the bride's mother. Many costly and handsome gifts were received. Among the out-of-county guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harry O'Neal, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Young, Mrs. Gates, Miss Addie Cadwalader, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Litsinger, of Philadelphia, and Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong, of Detroit, Michigan.

PRETTYMAN—DAVIS.

Miss Mildred Davis, private secretary to county superintendent of schools, Milton Melvin, and daughter of Mrs. Avis Davis, will be married at seven o'clock this morning to Mr. Arthur Prettyman, a prominent young insurance representative of the Prudential Life Insurance Company of this town. The ceremony will be performed at the home of the bride's mother by Rev. Dr. F. T. Little. Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Prettyman will leave by train for Philadelphia, where they will spend the Christmas holidays with his parents. Upon their return to Chestertown they will reside with the bride's mother on Cannon street.

CULLOM—KING.

Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Cullom have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Beulah Mae, to Mr. L. Price King, Jr., Wednesday evening, December 24, 1911, at 8 o'clock, at Grace Methodist Protestant Church, Pittsville, Md. At home after January 15 at Warwick, Md.

FRENCH—HATCHERSON.

Mr. William J. French, son of Mr. Jas. French, of near town, and Miss Ethel M. Hatcherson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Hatcherson, of near Fairlee, were married at Alnutt Memorial M. P. parsonage, Baltimore, on Wednesday evening last by the pastor, Rev. Dr. John S. Bowers. The ceremony was witnessed by Mr. and Mrs. Howard C. Jones.

JONES—LEAVERTON.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Leaverton, of near Fairlee, have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Anna Elizabeth, to Mr. H. Raymond Jones, at seven o'clock on Wednesday evening January 3rd, 1912, at their home, near Fairlee. A reception from 7 to 11 will follow the wedding.

State's Attorney-elect Harrison W. Vickers and Miss Rebecca Eliason will be quietly married in the M. E. Church by Rev. Dr. L. E. Barrett on Wednesday afternoon next, December 27th. Owing to the recent death of the groom's father, only the immediate families of the contracting parties will witness the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Vickers will leave on the afternoon train for a short wedding trip, after which they will reside in their pretty home on Washington avenue. They will be at home to their friends after February 1.

Our Advertisers.

Our merchants are reporting a good Christmas trade, and they are expecting to do a record breaking business to-day. Here's hoping all will have the best Christmas ever.

Moody & Lusby have been doing a rush business all the week and their Christmas clothing, hats and furnishings have been finding numerous purchasers. They have one of the best overcoats we have ever seen for the money for Christmas. It is a combination dress and storm coat, and will make a most suitable Christmas present.

One of the best things for a Christmas present is a savings account in the Third National Bank. It is the only National Bank in Kent county, and its total resources are very near the million dollar mark.

Have you seen those stylish and attractive suits, overcoats and gents furnishings Denny Hoffecker is offering for Christmas? He sells handkerchiefs, gloves, fancy stockings, neckties, etc. of splendid texture and you can get fitted in styles from head to f[illegible] t reasonable prices.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Chestertown, Md., Dec. 11, 1911.

TO OUR PATRONS:

We take pleasure in announcing to you that we have secured the services of

MR. IRA T. LEAGER,

formerly of Galena, this county, who has this day assumed charged of our Horse Shoeing, Wagon Ironing and Repairing and AUTOMOBILE WORK of all kinds. Mr. Leager is an expert in his line and we only ask you to try him to prove that what we say is correct. He has made a special study of the shoeing of fast horses as well as roadsters, and he has devoted much time and attention to the repairing of AUTOMOBILES. We can refer you to people who have been helped out of Automobile trouble which will convince you without question that he can do the work. We have make many changes in the construction of our FARM WAGON for this coming season, and we are sure beyond a doubt that everyone of them will be beneficial to the man who intends buying a wagon. We only ask that you call and see us and look over them before you buy. If you fail to see our New Warner Wheel Wagon you will never know what a good thing you have missed until you see your neighbor's. We assure you that the addition of Mr. Leager to our already skilled force of Mechanics puts us in a position to do any and all kinds of Wood and Iron work with promptness and despatch, and we think we are able to give better and more prompt service than ever before. We are prepared to handle MILL WORK of all kinds, such as can be done in a mill equipped for both Wood and Iron work. We thank each and every one for the liberal share of patronage with which we have been favored, and we trust that with our improved facilities and with fair and square dealing we shall merit a larger share than we have heretofore received.

Wishing each one of you the compliments of the season and anticipating your future favors to which we promise our best attention. We are

Faithfully yours,

Davis & Satterfield,
Cross Street, near Depot,

GET THE BEST.

In buying shoes bear in mind the fact that there is no part of your apparel that is obliged to stand as much service and exposure and should, therefore, be selected with the view of securing only those composed of the best materials and put together in a substantial and thorough manner.

I have a full and complete stock of Carroll, Adams & Co.'s strictly first-class shoes, including the celebrated FAULTLESS line for fall wear. The best shoes for every-day wear on the market, and a trial will convince you.

I have the most complete up-to-date shoe stock in this vicinity.

Give me a trial.

NOW IS THE TIME
To See About Your Painting.

I give my personal attention to every detail of every painting job. A large part of my success is due to the fact that we use only the best material, Lewis white lead, (Dutch Boy painter, trade mark) and absolutely pure Linseed Oil, our other materials are of equally high value. Always ready to show sample cards and quote prices. Let me estimate on your painting.
