FOR years the name of Charles T. Westcott has been identified with the social, religious, business and political interests of this community, and while for ten years he had not been actively identified with the community, yet his influence was still felt here, and will even continue to be felt by those who knew him well and respected him highly. Mr. Westcott was a good man, and his influence was always exerted for the good of his community and his fellowman.

THE TRANSCRIPT wishes its patrons and friends a very merry Christmas and a happy new year. We sincerely trust that Old Kris will be kind to the little folks and grownups, and that he will make an effort to supply all their needs. We hope that all may have a joyful Christmas and live to see many more such joyous occasions. But refrain from doing anything to mar the spirit of the occasion or to cast any reproach upon the name of Him whose birth is the source of so much joy and so many blessings to us.

THERE is a well defined movement on foot among certain influential Republican in Washington to make Theodore Roosevelt the next nominee of the Republican party for president. President Taft, however, desires another term, and as he has the powerful lever of Federal patronage to help his cause, it looks as though he can't be beaten for the nomination. From our view point it looks as though the National Republican party is in a "stew." Let the Democrats take advantage of the predicament and nominate the right man, and a Democratic president in 1912 is a sure thing.

FOR years past the Republican party has been pensioning old soldiers, and the outlay of money has reached millions of dollars. Now because a Democratic House of Representatives has voted to give the soldiers a pension which Congress believes is commensurate with the service they rendered the country, the Republicans are howling that the increase will take millions out of the national treasury, and they are attempting to play politics by forestalling the passage of the bill in the Senate. If the Republican party were half as anxious to protect the people of the country from the depredations of the moneyed interests, which control the price of the necessities of life and thereby increase the burdens of life, as they seem to be now to protect the national treasury against the just claims of our old soldiers, there might be some semblance of reason in the position they take on the pension bill. It is a false economy that believes in taking in at the spigot and letting out at the bung.

THE SCHOOL COMMISSIONERSHIP

Governor Crothers, upon the recommendation of Senator-elect William W. Beck, who has not yet qualified as Senator from this county and of a number of Organization Democrats, appointed Mr. Wm. F. Russell, cashier of the Kent County Savings Bank, school commissioner for this county, to succeed Mr. W. Bradford Copper, who has not resigned, and whose term as commissioner does not expire until May next. We understand that Mr. Copper, who has been elected and who has qualified as chief judge of the Orphans' Court, will not resign as school commissioner, but will continue to serve the county in the office which he has so acceptably filled until the expiration of his term in May, without pay, allowing his salary to revert to the school treasury for the benefit of the school fund. Mr. Copper can pursue this course under the law, and as Mr. Russell's appointment would be only for Mr. Copper's unexpired term—that is until May next, when a Republican Governor will make the appointment to succeed Mr. Copper, Mr. Copper's friends desire him to serve his full six-year term. The law which allows Mr. Copper to hold his office as school commissioner while performing the duties of judge of the Orphans' Court, is as follows:

"The Constitution of Maryland, Article 35, says 'that no person shall hold, at the same time, more than one office of profit created by the Constitution or laws of this State.' But in 19th Maryland, School Commissioners vs. Goldsborough, it was held that a school commissioner is not a civil officer within the meaning to Article 2 of Section 15 relating to the removal of officers."

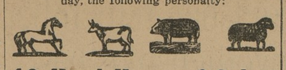

Name Changed.—Mr. E. Radzewski, the well-known harness dealer of Millington, has applied to the court and has received permission to change his name to E. Radnor. Hereafter he will be known by the changed name as his advertisement appears in this issue over the name of E. Radnor. Mr. Radnor will give you a first-class job of repairing or will sell you as good a set of harness etc., for the money as can be found in Kent county.
