HOSPITALS CROWDED

MAJORITY OF PATIENTS WOMEN

Mrs. Pinkham's Advice Saves Many From this Sad and Costly Experience.

It is a sad but certain fact that every year brings an increase in the numberofoperations performed upon women in our hospitals. Morethan three-fourths of the patients lying on those snow-white beds are women and girls who are awaiting or recovering from operations made necessary by neglect.

Every one of these patients had plenty of warning in that bearing down feeling, pain at the left or right of the abdomen, nervous exhaustion, pain in the small of the back, pelvic catarrh, dizziness, flatulency, displacements or irregularities. All of these symptoms are indications of an unhealthy condition of the female organs, and if not heeded the trouble may make headway until the penalty has to be paid by a dangerous operation, and a lifetime of impaired usefulness at best, while in many cases the results are fatal.

Miss Luella Adams, of Seattle, Wash., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"About two years ago I was a great sufferer from a severe female trouble, pains and headaches. The doctor prescribed for me and finally told me that I had a tumor and must undergo an operation if I wanted to get well. I felt that this was my death warrant, but I spent hundreds of dollars for medical help, but the tumor kept growing. Fortunately I corresponded with an aunt inthe New England States, and she advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it was said to cure tumors. I did so and immediately began to improve in health, and I was entirely cured, the tumor disappearing entirely, without an operation. I wish every suffering woman would try this great preparation."

Just as surely as Miss Adams was cured of the troubles enumerated in her letter, just so surely will Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cure other women who suffer from female troubles, inflammation, kidney troubles, nervous excitability or nervous prostration.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all young women who are ill to write her for free advice. She is daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for twenty-five years has been advising sick women free of charge. Address, Lynn, Mass.

To A Smart Property Owner.

Painting is practical work. Skill wins. It's the same with paint making.

You know 4 gallons L. & M. mixed with 3 gallons Linseed Oil makes enough paint for a moderate sized house--the best paint money can buy--because the L. & M. Zinc hardens the L. & M. White Lead and makes the L. & M. Paint wear like iron.

Buy L. & M. and don't pay $1.50 a gallon for Linseed Oil, as you do in ready-for-use paint, but buy oil fresh from the barrell at 60 cents, and mix with the L. & M.

L. & M. costs only $1 20 per gallon.

Robert M. Catts, Trustee. versus
Martha J. McWhorter. Emma C. Wright. George E. Wright. Edmund M. Wright. Ethel J. McWhorter. Thos. H. McWhorter. Ola J. Catts.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, Maryland, in Equity No. 1579.

THE object of this suit is for Robert M. Catts to be relieved and discharged as trustee from the further execution of the trust mentioned in these proceedings

The bill states that under and by virtue of the deed of trust from Martha J. McWhorter to Robert M. Catts, trustee, dated the 25th day of February, 1902, and recorded in Liber J. T. D., No. 6, Folio 216, &c., one of the land record books for Kent county, Maryland, your petitioner was appointed sole trustee of the said Martha J. McWhorter of the real estate mentioned in the said deed, to collect the rents, issues and profits thereof, and apply the same in the first place to the payment of all taxes thereon and the expenses incident to the management of said property in the manner in which, in the judgment of said trustee, its productiveness will be best maintained, and afterwards to pay the net rental or income therefrom to the said Martha J. McWhorter during her natural life, and after her death in trust to continue to hold said property upon like trust for the benefit of said Emma C. Wright during her natural life, and immediately after the death of the said Emma C. Wright then to and for the use and benefit of the children then living of the said Emma C. Wright, and if the said Emma C. Wright does not leave any children, then to the brothers and sisters of the said Emma C. Wright. And that the said Robt. M. Catts duly accepted said trust and entered upon the duties of the same on the 25th day of February, 1902.

And that the real estate consists of a farm of 107 acres, on the north side of the road leading from Millington to Smyrna, in the First District of Kent county; and also a farm containing 232 acres, 2 roods and 21 perches, near Millington; and also a farm containing 45 acres of land, more or less, near Millington; reserving and excepting from the 232 acre farm 60 acres tenanted by Daniel Burgett.

And the bill further states that the said Martha J. McWhorter resides in the city of Philadelphia, Pa., and the said Emma C. Wright, intermarried with George E. Wright, and they have one child, a minor, Edmond Wright, all residents of Philadelphia, Pa., and that the said Emma C. Wright has one brother, Thomas H. McWhorter, and two sisters, Ethel J. McWhorter and Ola J. Catts, wife of the said Robert M. Catts, all adults, and residents of Philadelphia, Pa.

The bill states that your petitioner desires to retire from said trust and has filed a full and particular account of his receipts and disbursements as such trustee.

To the end that this Honorable Court assume jurisdiction in the premises, it is therefore, this 2nd day of February, 1906, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent county, in equity, that the plaintiff by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Kent county, Maryland, once in each of four successive weeks before the 5th day of March, 1906, giving notice to the said non resident defendants, Martha J. McWhorter, Emma C. Wright, George E. Wright, Edmund Wright, Ethel J. McWhorter, Thomas H. McWhorter, and Ola J. Catts, of the object and substance of this bill and warning them to appear in this court in person or by solicitor on or before the 23d day of March, next, to show cause if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

MILLION DOLLAR WEDDING!

The Bride's Hat Cost $1800—Her Income $3,000 per year, Inherited From Her Mother—Two Dogs Valued at $1500 Among the Presents—Cuba Sends a $25,000 Gift—The Bride's Lovely Gown, Etc.

Washington, Feb. 17.—The President's eldest daughter was married at the White House today. Before an altar erected in the East Room, amid flowers breathing the perfume of spring, Miss Alice Lee Roosevelt and Representative Nicholas Longworth, of Ohio, were declared man and wife.

The President and Mrs. Roosevelt, members of the Cabinet, the Speaker of the House, Justices of the Supreme Court, Ambassadors and Ministers of foreign Governments and especially favored Senators and Representatives in Congress, accompanied by their wives, richly gowned for the occasion, were assembled with the relatives and personal friends of the bride and groom in the East room to witness the ceremony, while a throng of people fairly representative of the fashionable set at the capital stood about the White House, crowding a space of several blocks.

Washington Took Holiday.

The wedding was the most brilliant Washington has witnessed and full of interest to all the population of the capital.

The marriage ceremony occured at noon precisely, the Bishop of Washington, Rt. Rev. Henry Yates Satterlee officiating. A thousand guests were by invitation present at the ceremony. Five or six thousand stood about the White House grounds.

After 11.30 o'clock the guests began to arrive rapidly. Among the early ones was the White House bride of 30 years ago, who in that very room became the wife of Charles Algernon Sartoris, of England. This was Nellie Grant. She arrived with Mrs. Hobart, widow of Vice-President Garrett A. Hobart. Her gown was of mauve chiffon velvet, trimmed with a serpentine band of rich sable. The bodice was trimmed with old point lace. She wore a black hat with white plumes and a rich cape of sable. About her neck was a pearl necklace, which had a large pearl in the clasp surrounded with diamonds, one of her own wedding gifts when she was the daughter of a President and the favoritve of the people, as was the bride of today.

When The Bride Appeared.

Promptly at 12 o'clock the bugles sounded the "salute to the colors," signifying the coming of the President. Simultaneous the wide doors into the state dining room were thrown open and the bride, leaning on the Presidents arm, was revealed behind the ushers, who had formed in couples in front of these doors. At the same time Mr. Longworth descended the small stairs with his best man and took his place at the foot of the platform in front of Bishop Satterlee. The "salute to the colors" over, the orchestra began the wedding march from "Tannhauser" and the procession passed through the corridor to the East Room and the members of the bridal party took their places. The bride, with her father, stepped upon the platform.

Telegrams were brought to the bride, who stood and read them all, laughing at many of them. One was from a stranger in Uniontown, Pa., and read, "We have named our baby Alice. She has just arrived." This was shown to one or two friends, and the bride was very perceptibly pleased.

While the bride was attempting to get a few bites to eat her tiny Manchurian poodle was brought in by a guest who had picked him up. The bride had a champagne glass in one hand and a plate in the other. She handed them both to a guest standing by, and with a little cry of delight she took the little dog in both arms and held him very close to her for a few minutes. He is a tiny, silky, black, long-haired dog, and and was dressed up for the wedding in a wide necktie of rich yellow satin ribbon.

The bride and Mr. Longworth rushed themselves into the great automobile of Mr. and Mrs. John R. McLean, and were quickly whirled out of the grounds and up Seventeenth street to the superb country place, Friendship, of the Cincinnati millionaire, where they will spend some days. Friendship is just above Georgetown, on the Tenleytown road. This is the house in which Admiral and Mrs. Dewey went to spend their honeymoon.

It is understood that Mr. and Mrs. Longworth will remain there about four days and then leave Washington for Palm Beach, Fla. The entire mansion, which is surrounded by several hundred acres of land and an Italian garden, has been placed at the disposal of the President's daughter and son-in-law.

Mrs. Roosevelt's gown was one of unusual beauty. It was of golden brown and white brocade, the train, three yards long, made all of the shimmering material, the bodice being embellished with cloth of gold, brown chiffon and point lace. Around her neck she wore a diamond necklace. Miss Ethel Roosevelt, the young sister of the bride, was in a girlish gown of white liberty silk trimmed with bows of white ribbon. Her hair was tied loosely with white ribbon and there were white bows on her white shoes.

The answer is easy—everybody knows it.

QUALITY

Captain Emory grew on one occasion 17 tons per acre. Mr. Zac T. Gilbert grew 19 tons to the acre. Mr. G. W. Collins has bought as high as 50 tons per year, and his men grew from 12 to 15 tons per acre. We have sold already in Anne Arundel county, the lower counties and New Jersey, hundreds of tons already. Messrs Biker and Morgan have bought as high as twelve hundred dollars worth; Messrs. Smith, Rouse & Webster have bought in the past as much as several thousand. Captain Dashiel says he would have it if he had to give $50.00 per ton for same. Mr. Joseph Downey says when he was canning that he could actually tell the difference in tomatoes grown with Peerless when brought to his cannery. Mr. Numsen says he knows that tomatoes grown with our goods are fine. Mr. Frank Moore who runs Assaw Bains & Co.'s cannery, says the best tomatees brought there are from Peerless. Mr. Loose, a customer of his, says a ton of Peerless grew him $96.00 worth more tomatoes than another goods costing $7.00 less per ton. Mr. Money says it is certainly good. We could go on, but with a testimonial will close.

Unsolicited, some time ago Mr. W. S. Elburn & Son came into our office and said: "I believe your Peerless to be the best tomato goods I ever saw. You remember what an advocate I was of it when I lived out at the mill. Well, wherever I have lived since, on the Western Shore or elsewhere, I would have it, and last year I put some of this same goods on some onions grown from the seed, and they were as fine as Bermudas. Many measured 4 inches in diameter, and I grew over 600 bushels per acre, or at the rate of 1162 baskets. I used it on strawberries and picked 8000 quarts per acre.

The above testimony should, therefore, be convincing.
Respectfully,

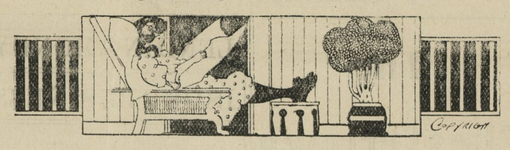

WILBUR W. HUBBARD,
