SUNDAY TRAINS will be placed on the Delaware road with the new spring schedule. This is a step backward.

A GOOD MOVEMENT is on foot in Baltimore and elsewhere for the protection of policy holders in insurance companies. It is worth considering by all who have life insurance, especially in big companies.

THE hotel Lexington, adjoining Holiday street theatre in Baltimore, has been purchased by the present occupant, Mr. C. W. Greeble, for $55,000—a very low price for such valuable property. It will be greatly improved.

EVERYBODY who visits Annapolis speak of the great progress of the Ancient City. One of our Chestertown lawyers happily expressed his appreciation in saying—"I really thought, as I walked through one of the new State buildings, that I was in Washington."

THE death of Rev. Dr. David Wilson at Denver, Col., is announced to have occured on Wednesday last. Dr. Wilson was a distinguished member of the Maryland Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church and was at one time—many years back—a popular pastor of that church in Chestertown.

WE fear Eastonians have overdone it in their new charter efforts. Some of the provisions proposed seem to be cumbersome and impractical. No wonder that a decided opposition is being manifested. Still that proves nothing. The best things proposed are often opposed. Chestertown's charter needs doctoring badly but it may be better to "suffer the ills we have than fly to those we know not of."

THE great New Dock enterprise was begun in Baltimore last Thursday. Millions of money will be spent in this vast undertaking and it will take years to do the work. One of the most attractive of all the public enterprises proposed there to the people of Kent will be the widening of Light street. We are glad to say that this project seems sure of fulfillment.

THE 30th annual report of the New Jersey State Hospital at Morris Plains is on the NEWS desk. Dr. Britton D. Evans, an Eastern Shore boy, is medical director and has been the leading spirit in advancing this institution among the very front rank of the hospitals of the country. There are about 1600 patients now in the hospital and the work being done under Dr. Evans' supervision is a flattering testimonial to his ability and thoroughness.

Stop Dredging.

A committee of fifteen members of the Maryland Legislature, of which Delegate Crane was a member, visited the Virginia Legislature last Tuesday and that body treated the Marylanders with distinguished courtesy. The oyster dredging question was considered and it was decided to stop all dredging in the Potomac for two years. Now let our Legislature do the same thing for Maryland waters and the balance of the oyster question will be easy of solution.

The Trolley Is Coming.

Our people generally will rejoice to learn of the almost certain success of the latest trolley move. A prominent farmer was in the NEWS office this week discussing the prospect and was so elated that he could hardly express his joy. He said he would be glad to help on the enterprise even to the extent of a thousand dollars, so fully assured did he feel that the line would be a god-send to the county.

We are informed that all the rights of way for the line between Chestertown and Tolchester have been secured and friends of the road are at work to secure the extension to Rock Hall. This is thought to be also well assured.

The greatest difficulty has always been in getting the right of way over private lands and the disposition of land owners to grant this heretofore has knocked out every proposed line.

The people now seem better disposed and by selecting a new route the whole line is practically secured. Our readers, especially in the lower section of the county will be glad to hear this, but much more will they rejoice when the cars are on the track and running on regular schedule. The accommodation to travelers and for freight between all points on the line will be of vast advantage to the people and we may expect a marked increase in the value of lands and the products. Let the road come. The sooner the better.

IT is expected that "Maryland Day," March 25, will be observed in the schools of the state in a fitting manner. The day is the anniversary of the landing of the Maryland Pilgrims, when the two little vessels, the Ark and the Dove, after a voyage that had lasted over many months, and which had included many hardships, landed with their cargo of first Marylanders at St. Clements Isle.

ANNAPOLIS NEWS.

Senator Foxwell has introduced a bill to provide a fund for stocking the State with partridges by imposing a license tax on dogs. Also by request to require nonresident hunters to take out a license to hunt game and to regulate the killing, sale and shipment of birds and game.

Bills have been introduced to require Kent County Commissioners to pay $500 annually to Galena and Millington.

The repeal of the Judges' Pension Bill has passed to the third reading in the House and will come up in Senate next Tuesday.

The Compulsory Education Bill was reported unfavorably. It is well said that the people of the counties did not think it to their interest to compel the negro children to go to school.

A delegation from Chestertown went before the Ways and Means and Finance Committee asking for an appropriation of $15,000 for the maintenance of Washington College at Chestertown. The buildings being added to the institution are being paid for by the college. Those who appeared in the interest of the college were Dr. J. W. Cain, president of the college; M. DeK. Smith, Dr. W. F. Hines, L. W. Wickes, W. M. Slay, Senator Clarence W. Perkins, Charles L. Harley, Senator Garrett Foxwell, J. W. Chapman and ex-Senator William T. Hepbron.

It looks as if the Haman bill will be defeated.

After a sharp debate the oyster bills were all recommitted, and, it is said, a compromise measure will be reported next Tuesday.

Contradicting Himself.

MESSRS. EDITORS:

"Observer's" reply to my statement in the NEWS of Feb. 17th, does not really call for anything further from me except that my silence might be considered a concession to his far-fetched insinuations. Bad as his motive seems to be he is fair enough to give the prime fact, that is, there are no bonds due and unpaid. His complaint is that Messrs. Smith Bros. still hold $10,000 of these bonds and none of them have been paid. Then follows this admission: "In fact none of these bonds will be due until 1912." Further on he admits—"The present board had nothing whatever to do with such indebtedness." Yet he writes and fusses with this same board because this debt which he admits cannot be paid before 1912 is not paid now!

The bonds held by Smith Bros., are represented in the interest mentioned in my previous letter; amount of interest on all bonds, including those held by Smith Bros., and school Bonds are $1,350. Nothing was omitted or left out as he would have you believe.

My learned legal friend answers his own charge. He could not do otherwise and be truthful. His charge was that "we are paying interest on bridge and jail bonds that should long since have been paid by our commissioners." Now he reiterates the charge but nullifies it by admitting that the bonds are not due until 1912.

If this does not show an over anxious disposition to find fault with the county commissioners then we do not understand the spirit of fault finding, and I am surprised that this anxious critic did not wait for a better occasion or a clearer target.

The last annual statement of the county board is a full answer to all such charges as "Observer" makes, but in addition to this the people have been given the report of the county Auditing Committee, which covers every character of county expenditure and details an honest exhibit of county affairs. Does any one question this last report? We don't believe Observer does himself. What then is his object? Simply to find fault and criticise that which he is not permitted to control. I am sure that very few will be "gulled" by such an attempt to mislead tax-payers as Observer indulges in. He will have to write more good sense and less contradictions to deceive any one in his anxiety to pose as a champion of our tax-payers.

The books in the county commissioners office, with the report of the Auditing Committee are open to the inspection of all and I will take pleasure in showing them.

Respectfully,
CHARLES L. DODD.

Petition for New Road.

The Honorable Board of County Commissioners for Kent County, Maryland.

Gentlemen:—We, the undersigned taxpayers and citizens of the Seventh Election District of Kent county, Md., most respectfully represent that the public road leading from Pomona to Chestertown, is too narrow and inconvenient for public use. It being only 16 to 20 feet wide in many places.

Therefore, we urgently petition your Honorable Board to widen this road to at least 35 feet, because the public demands a wide road for security in passing rapid going vehicles near the county town as well as large loads of straw and hay.

As this road adjoins or connects the country with the county town and as the public traffic grows larger every year this necessary improvement ought to be made now, while the road can be built at less cost than any time in the future after new homes have been erected near the road making it more difficult to secure the right of way.

We respectfully submit this needed improvement to the consideration of our esteemed County Commissioners, hoping and expecting a favorable action thereon.

Very respectfully submitted,
