Horse Notes.—Mr. John F. Godwin, agent, sold a large personalty last week. Belton, 2.17¼, the sire of many in the 2.30 list and better, brought $400 and the cash was paid on the spot. The purchaser was Mr. D. B. McMenamin, of Chestertown. Belton is 23 years old and does not carry a blemish. Belton will be in charge of his old trainer, Mr. Johnson, and will make the season in Kent.

Col. Albert Story, of Queen Anne's, drives a pair to Chestertown that attracts much notice. On the off side is a brown stallion, three years old, by Maryland Russell, out of the dam of Schley Russell, and on the near side is a seven year old bay mare, by Evans' Belmont, son of Belton, 2.17¼; dam by David Wallace, 2,29¼, a son of Mambrino Pilot. Each is over sixteen hands and the pair weighed 2,240 pounds with the pole and harness.

Mr. Howard Clendaniel, of near Kennedyville, lost a valuable horse on Sunday evening. Mr. Clendaniel was returning to his home, and when near the big woods, near Kennedyville, Mr. Clendaniel's young horse shied to the left of the road and collided with a team driven by a colored man who was coming in the opposite direction. The shaft of the colored man's vehicle penetrated the breast of Mr. Clendaniel's horse for about eighteen inches, killing it almost instantly. Mr. Clendaniel had recently refused $250 for it.

Mr. Harry Walls, of Morgnec, is the possessor of one of the finest colts in Kent. It is a sorrel filly that fell April 9th, 1905, consequently is a little over ten months old, and is nearly 15 hands high. Mr. Walls (who is a large man) has ridden behind this colt twice hitched to a four-wheel wagon. This colt is by Mr. W. C. A. Thompson's Bedworth, Jr., colt, John B., and out of Lady Belle (a registered mare). One of her colts sold for $600. Mr. Walls has an offer of $100 for this ten-months old colt which he refused.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

When a man is loaded you always know it, but it's different with a gun.

Keep telling a boy he never will amount to anything, and he generally won't.

A six weeks' engagement will put a lot of conceit into a man, but six minutes of married life are sufficient to take it out.

It is wonderful how many have watches considering how few there are in the world to whom time really seems to be of any value.

Perhaps a man's eyesight grows poorer with the years as a merciful way of preventing him from seeing his wrinkles and gray hairs.

We suppose a man is called "woman's protector" for the reason that he protects her from others imposing upon her, preferring to do it all himself.—Atchison Globe.

Praising the Lazy Man.

It must be admitted that some of the best work that has lived has been done by indolent men. This is especially true as regards literature. The finest description of a sunrise was written by the poet Thomson in bed. Coleridge was one of the most indolent of men, yet his work is, of its kind, unapproached. One of the most important improvements in the steam engine was due to the indolence of James Watt. Many other examples might be quoted; but, as a general rule, it is fairly correct to say that work which is the outcome of meditation or prolonged observation is best performed by people whose natural indolence makes them careless of the strife and bustle in which an active temperament would tend to immerse them.—Pearson's.

Nerve of a Stowaway.

The captain of a Mediterranean liner was talking about stowaways.

"Most of those fellows," he said, "have an excessive quantity of cheek—of brass. Once we discovered a stowaway a few days out from New York and put him to work in the galley. A lady on a tour of inspection paused by the stowaway as he sat peeling potatoes.

"'How soon do you think we'll reach Naples?' she said to him.

"'Well, madam,' he replied, 'I'm doing all I can to get her in by Tuesday.'"

An Affidavit.

The suggestion of an English barrister that a certain matter was a proper subject for oral examination, not for affidavit, agreed with the emphatic opinion of an English justice recently retired. He was once trying a case at the Manchester assizes in which a man had been cross examined upon an affidavit. Summing up the evidence to the jury, the judge said, "Gentlemen, of all the weapons in the whole armory of iniquity there is nothing to equal an affidavit for concealing the truth."

Didn't Need To.

"It's too bad," said the judge caustically, "that the defendant should have chosen you for counsel. You know nothing about law."

"Well, your honor," replied the young lawyer, "I don't need to in this court."—Philadelphia Press.
