VOL. 67. CHESTERTOWN, MD., SATURDAY, MARCH 10, 1906. NO. 40

SPRING THOUGHTS

The fast approaching time for warmer weather carries our minds gently to the thought of the various articles of dress, which we are are in the habit of providing. This time it is Shirts — something that half your life is lived in and ought to be your most congenial companion.

The $1.00 Faultless Shirt for this spring is made to fit just like our clothing and besides a matter of fit, they have other points of advantage over the average shirt that we'd be glad of the opportunity to show them to you.

N. B.—We will continue our Reduction Sale of Winter Goods a while longer If you want bargains, come get 'em.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Rev. Amos Hattan Greenfield, father of Dr. D. L. Greenfield, died in Baltimore Tuesday night, after a long illness, aged about 83 years. He was engaged in merchandising for many years in Belair, and for a long period was judge of the Orphans' Court of Harford county. He was an active and enthusiastic Mason and a life-long Democrat, and a local minister of the Meth. Prot. church. His grandfather was a Lieutenant-Gov. of Md. when Lord Calvert was Proprietory, and others of his ancestors were prominent in civil and church affairs of the colony. The body will be brought to Chestertown tonight and the funeral will take place at Christ Church parsonage tomorrow, Sunday, morning, at 9.30, interment (private) in Chester Cemetery, Revs. White and Martin officiating; J. N. Dodd, undertaker.

Mr. Luthur Cole, near Lynchs, died March 8, aged 78. Funeral to be held in Still Pond Church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, March 11th. His wife died six weeks ago. The bearers will be F. H. Harper, C. B. Krusen, Wm Hague, B F Crew, Geo W Atwell, Harrison Parsons; Undertaker Krusen will have charge of arrangements.

Harry Walter White, son of Harry and Ella White, died at the home of its parents on Monday, March 5th, aged four and one half years, of spinal meningitis. Interment at Chester cemetery. Rev. Mr. Bayard officiated.

Wm. Eglington, Mound Prairie, Minnesota, died at his home near that place, on Thursday, March 1, aged 55 years.

Mrs. Susan E. Duyer, widow of the late Isaac Duyer, of Still Pond Creek, died at the home of her daughter in Baltimore, on Thursday evening of pneumonia, aged 70 years. The remains will be brought to Kent on the steamer Susquehanna this Saturday afternoon and transferred to the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. E. Taylor, at the head of Still Pond Creek. Funeral service will be held Sunday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock, Rev. T. S. Holt, officiating. Interment will be made in Still Pond cemetery.

LIVE CHURCH NOTES

A Delightful Surprise and Anniversary at Chestertown M. E. Church—Bishop McCabe to Come to Kent.

Rev. William N. Sherwood, of Wilmington, will fill the pulpit of Christ M. P. Church on Sunday at 10.30 A. M., and 7.30 P. M. The other services will be held at usual hours.

Rev. J. Baker, of Baltimore, preached in the Chestertown M. E. church, Sunday morning on "Kindness" and his address was kindly received. When he invited penitents to seek salvation there were five young men who came forward. This was something unusual and the spirit of brotherly love soon held full sway and all present enjoyed the service. At night the Sunday school held its annual missionary exercises and the following program was presented: organ voluntary, Miss Anna G. Lambert; anthem by church choir under direction of Dr. A. S. Hall; chorus by school; prayer by the pastor, W. L. White; chorus by school; scripture reading by Mr. Houston Toulson; song and exercise by primary department; recitation by Henry Lambert; collection from classes; chorus by school, recitation by Miss Eunice Lambert; solo by Alice Kershaw; recitation by Lucy Frazier; recitation by Rebecca Davis; solo by Nelson Baker; recitation by Grace Nickerson; chorus by school; address by Mr. John Baker, of Baltimore; chorus by school; recitation by Leslie Duyer; chorus by school; report of classes; presentation of banner to Mrs. White's class, by Harrison W. Vickers, Jr. Esq.; Glory song; benediction. The instrumental music was augmented by the Sunday school orchestra consisting of Messrs. E. F. Hitch, Kemp Bordley, Roland Matthews violins, and Jacob F. Thompson, cornet. The banner class had over $30 while the collection for the night amounted to over $80.

Mr. T. J. Willis has been elected delegate and Mr. J. C. Jones, alternate, to represent St. James and Lynch M. P. Churches at the coming session of the annual conference, in Baltimore.

Kennedyville, M. P. Church, Rev. R. S. Rowe pastor. Public worship with preaching Sunday 11th. Subjects: 10 30, a. m. "Were there not cleansed but where are the nine?" 7 p. m. "Ephraim is a cake not turned"

Bishop C. C. McCabe, of Philadelphia, who will be received by the Methodists of Dover on his way to preside over the Wilmington M. E. Conference at Pocomoke City, next week, will spend the entire week in the conference territory, ascertaining all he can concerning the needs and the possibilities of the Wilmington Conference and of the Delaware Conference (colored), over which he will preside at Chestertown following the Pocomoke City convention.

Inasmuch as the Rev. D. Wilbur F. Corkran and the Rev. Dr. Charles S. Baker will resume their ministerial relations in the Wilmington Conference at the session in Pocomoke City, Md., beginning Wednesday next, there is much interest as to where the two preachers will be assigned by Bishop McCabe. They have not had pastorates during the past church year, because of the action of the last conference in suspending them from exercising ministerial relations.

No formal action is required to induct the two ministers into the conference, they again becoming active members of the conference by virtue of the expiration of the term for which they were releived of pastoral duties Whether they will remain in the Wilmington Conference or seek an appointment elsewhere remains to be seen.

It was said that there is a possibility of Dr. Corkran becoming pastor of Asbury Church, near Crisfield, Md., where the Rev. H. S. Dulaney is now pastor. It also was reported that Dr. Baker may become pastor of the church at Fairmount, Md., where the Rev. E. H. Hoffecker is the present pastor.

SELECTING SEED CORN.

Rich Neck Farmers Hold an Interesting Meeting at Mr. S. R. Hurlock's—Prof. C. W. Nash Explains How to Select Seed Corn—A Splendid Spread.

"Wilburton," the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Hurlock, just across the river, was the meeting place Thursday evening of the Rich Neck Farmers' Club. This is one of the best equipped, most productive and well tilled farms in Queen Anne's, where the elegant home is luxuriously furnished and over which the wife presided with queenly grace and uncommon skill.

The guest of the evening was Prof. C. W. Nash, of the Maryland Agricultural College Experiment Station, who addressed the club in a most learned and interesting manner on selection of seed corn, its planting, cultivation, &c.

"A desirable stalk," said Prof. Nash, "is one without suckers, or offshoots, thick at the base, with well-developed roots, gradually tapering toward the top, and bearing a good ear or ears slightly below its middle point. It is perhaps not advisable, even in the Southern States, to obtain a taller growth of stalk than 10 feet, the stalk should be free from smutt or other disease, possess well-formed blades, preferably 12 to 16, and have its ear attached by an ear stalk, or shank, not more than 4 or 5 inches in length. It is therefore necessary to select seed ears from stalks that are well developed, and this can be done only by selecting from standing stalks at ripening time.

An ear of cylindrical shape, well rounded at each end, affords the largest percentage of grain per cob as well as kernels of the most uniform shape. The cob should be neither too large nor too small, and should possess the property of drying well and quickly, causing it to be of light weight and of a bright, healthy color. The kernels should fit compactly together throughout their full lenght on both sides and edges, and should be uniform in shape and length on all portions of the ear. In poorly selected strains of corn undesirable ears of almost every possible size and form occur.

Length is a very desirable character for the kernals of a corn to possess, as it is by increased length in proportion to the diameter of cob that the percentage of grain is increased. Soft, chaffy kernels, though long, or kernels with prolonged chaffy caps, are not desired. It is much better to select for increased length of kernel than to select for small cob. Selecting for small cob results in reducing the size of the ear, and it is also an easy matter to reduce the size of the cob to such an extent that the pressure of the kernel causes the ear to break. The shape is that of a wedge having straight sides and edges. This shape admits of the kernels fitting together so compactly that little or no space is wasted. The germ, the most nutritious portion and the portion in which is located the embryo plant, should be large, smooth, and firm."

Ears of corn were produced from various fields and Mr. H. P. Skipper's ear was selected as the ideal corn to plant.

Mr. R. Irving Walker is the pioneer on the Eastern Shore in making tests from breeding beds and had a fine exhibit at the meeting. The News will explain this interesting and all important method next week.

The Ladies' Meeting.

While the gentlemen were discussing corn, the ladies were talking about the cultivation of small fruits, flowers, &c. The result of their discussions were embodied in resolutions to the effect that they earnestly requested that enough small fruits be planted to supply the table at all times during the season and that the "lords of Creation" allow them the services of a man one day a week for helping among the flowers. Special requests were made by Mrs. Skipper for an apple orchard; Mrs. Jefferson for a plum orchard; Miss McRochester, for a vineyard; Mrs Hurlock, that her lawn be put under the care of a landscape gardner instead of being used for potatoes; Mrs. Storey, for a violet bed, &c.

At six o'clock the company were invited to the spacious dining parlors where one of the fine dinners for which Rich Neck is becoming famed, was deftly served by attractive young ladies. The room was decorated by skilled hands and the table adorned with artistic touch. The menu bountifully provided included roast turkey and cranberry sauce, fried oysters, chicken salad with lettuce, jellies, slaw, pickles, celery and olives, hominy and gravy, sweet potatoes, Rich Neck biscuits, coffee, tea, fruits, etc., etc.

After dinner the company was favored with vocal and instrumental music by Misses Katie Catlin, Helen and Hettie Jefferson, Miss McRochester, R. Irving Walker and others.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Hurlock and niece, Miss Katie Catlin, Judge and Mrs. Chas. H. Jefferson and daughters, Misses Helen and Hettie, Mr. and Mrs. R. Irving Walker, Mr. and Mrs. S. Dewberry, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Anthony, Mr and Mrs. H. P. Skipper, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Story, Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Massey, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Baxter, Mr. and Mrs. F. T. English, Messrs. John McRochester and daughter, Elmer S. Jarman, Fred. G. Usilton, Chas. Baxter, Chas. McKee, Rumsey Anthony, Henry Smith and others. The next meeting will be held at Mr. McRochester's home.

KENT COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

County Commissioners met, full board present; minutes of last meeting approved and the following new business examined and passed:

Wm Steel, do, 1st dist	11 00
J. Wesley Richards, bridge keeper, ches river bridge, K. and Q	41 66

Treasurer Hadaway's report for the month of February shows $7,847.96 on hand from county taxes and $60 04 for State taxes.

Knocked Insensible.—Arthur Williams, a colored man, was severely hurt Thursday morning while cutting wood in Quaker Neck for Mr. Robert Ford. A limb of a tree fell and struck him in the head knocking him insensible. Mr. Robert Ford hurried him to Chestertown where he was given medical aid by Dr. H. B. Simmons. The blows caused concussion of the brain. At this writing he is improved.

Prospect Good.—Mr James S. Harris, of Still Pond, was seen by the NEWS reporter this week in reference to the outlook for fruit. He says the trees are full of buds and that they are in fine condition. He sees nothing up to this time of preventing a good crop of peaches. He says the farmers in his neighborhood are busy spraying.

Mr. H. P. Skipper, across the bridge, will begin spraying Monday. He thinks the outlook good for a crop of peaches.

Mr. S. R. Hurlock, of Queen Anne's, says the outlook at this time for a plenty of peaches was never better. His orchards are in excellent condition.

Won A Horse.—Miss Fannie B. Jones, daughter of Charles Jones, is the happiest girl in Smyrna at the present time. As the result of a 50 cent chance of a celebrated horse raffled off in Dover Tuesday, she was the lucky winner of "Elderonel" the fast bay gelding, by Box Elder, time 2.05½, and winner of the $5,000 race at Columbus, O., in 1903. "Elderonel" is a handsome animal, six years old and 16 hands high. She has been offered $350 for her horse but wants $500. There were 1200 chances and Miss Jones' number was 1091.

MILLINGTON ITEMS.

Mr. Wright Garton, of Baltimore, is spending the week with relatives near town.

Miss Belle Taylor, of Baltimore, spent the first of the week with her sister, Mrs. J. R. Wilson.

Mr. W. A. Wilson moved his family and household goods to Baltimore this week where he expects to engage in the grocery business. Mr. Wilson for the past number of years has resided on his farm, near town.

Mrs. T. A. Vansant and little Miss Fannie, are spending several days in Baltimore.

Mr. C. B. Husbands and family, of Philadelphia, have taken up their residence here and occupy a part of Mr. J. C. Numbers new double house.

Mr. Husbands is a poultry and egg buyer, he also buys pigeons,

The ladies of the Home Missionary Society of the M. E. Church hit upon a novel and successful plan to raise money to help on pastor's salary. Every member of the society pledged themselves to raise a dollar or more. They held a meeting at the parsonage last Tuesday evening to which the members and friends of the church were invited to hear how each one had earned their dollar. Some earned it by selling biscuits, another by selling ginger bread, others by selling cakes and fancy pies. All present seemed to enjoy a pleasant evening A silver offering was taken at the door. The proceeds were over $50.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Benton, near town, was crowded with a jolly company of young folks Monday last, it being the occasion of the 18th birthday of their daughter, Miss Lula. A happy evening was spent. Among those present were Wm. Penn and wife, Wilmer Benton, wife and son, Mrs. Geo. Jones, Mrs. L. A. Fallowfield, Misses Elsie Price and Elsie Jones, of Barclay, Mary Davis, Anna Folks, Daisy Felton, Lydia Jones, Lola Smith, Elva Dixon, Mary Tolson, Ethel Biglow, Elva King, Wm. Smith, Wm Weist, John and Harry Weist, Norman and Ed Baxter, John Dixon, Nevit and Frank Benton, Jonathan Jones, Raymond Edwards, Wright Garton, of Baltimore, Paul Harrison, H. Talbott, Tom Mann, Harry Higman, G. C. Carroll. Miss Lula received many pretty and useful gifts.

Miss Holebrook, of Philadelphia, has been the guest of Miss Pearl Ahern.

Mrs. Ford, of Centreville, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ford Phillips.

Mrs. J. L. Smith, Mrs. C. M. Hurtt and Mrs. J. E. Woodall attended the Gen. Conference of the W. H. M. S. at Harrison St. church, Wilmington, Del., last Friday.

Mr. B. W. Duling and brothers Olan C. and Oscar B., are finishing the interior of the Galena Bank. Mr. Duling and his two brothers are skilled mechanics and no doubt the bank will have a very pretty interior when finished.

Those interested in base ball met last week and organized. Mr. Ford Philips was made secretary. More than likely Mr. N. A. Wallen will act as field Captain. Hickey last season's catcher and third baseman and Moody who held up the left garden in fine shape have both gone to Wilmington, Talbott who played first base last season will also be out of the game on account of his work at the station. Rash, the youngster who did such splendid pitching last season will go on the rubber for the boys and will no doubt excell his good work of last year. Taking the team as a whole it will be a strong one and hard to down.
