The Centre of Attraction

DOLLY MADISON Spring Style Creations are now the centre of attraction. And well they may be, since the various effects are good. It isn't that they are freakish, but rather that they display artistic modeling, with grace in every line.

The richness and refinement of custom makes find their counterpart in DOLLY MADISON SHOES. Yet hand-in-hand with aesthetic excellence is an ability to endure wear that is surprising. It will pay to get better acquainted with DOLLY MADISON SHOES.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

The P. D. Q. club was very highly entertained to a pan cake supper at Mr. Chas. M. Brown's, but the table was loaded with other things besides pan cakes, turkey, salids, biscuit, jellies pickles, wines, syrup of many kinds, coffee and cream. Among those present were: Carroll Willson and wife, John Brice and wife, Neal Willson and wife, Charlie Brown and wife, Miss Alice Willson, Walter Francis, Morgan and Charlie Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Willson gave their many friends a grand masquerade party on Friday evening. Among those who were invited and masked were: Mrs. John Brice, black mama and a grand one she made; Mrs. Charlie Brown represented her sister, you could of told they were sisters by their size and shape; Mrs. Carroll Willson, a negro preacher and a grand sermon she did preach in the ball room; Miss Alice Willson, cook; Miss Blanch DeFord, a dear little baby in long clothes while George DeFord made a grand nurse pushed her in the baby carriage; Nealie Willson, Queen of hearts and lots of hearts she made ache; Blanche Kilbourne, Queen of hearts also; Lillian Willson, a grand nurse; Maud DeFord, Dinah; Freddie Strong, a red devil and all the boys were afraid of her horns; Sophia Willson, spirit; Lee Willson, Mrs. Longworth with her costly bonnet looked charming; Hanna Willson, made a charming Queen; Bessie Willson, a lovely angel; May Sutton, a Japanese girl and all the boys wanted to dance under May's sunshades, Mrs. Robert Wickes, dish washer, Wilmot Crosby, India lady with lovely feather in his head; Allen Willson, waiter; Earnest Willson, chinaman; Johnnie Willson a great big nigger boy and John's mother did not want to own him; Notley Willson, a jew peddler; Harvey Kilbourne, a fat dutchman; Edgar Strong, clown; Miller Strong, Simple Simon and he wanted to kiss all the ladies, Earle Nicholson, Dude; May Morgan and Joe Brice, two lovers; John Brice, fox hunter; Walter Francis, a grass widderer, Charlie Brown, a poor miller and he was covered with flour, Hynson Beck, monkey, Carroll and Neal Willson, twin jump-jacks; others who were present to enjoy the sights and that grand music were: Dr. and Mrs. Schwatka, Walter Sutton and wife, John Brice and wife, Carroll Willson and wife; Neal Willson and wife, John Wood and wife, R. Willson and wife, Robert Wickes and wife, Misses Mable and Mattie Maslin, Maud Wickes, Mary Francis and Louise Willson, Messrs. Paul, Uel, Tilden and Frisby Willson, Charlie and Morgan Brown, Willie Francis, Franklin Wood and Mr. Travers, of Baltimore.

The house was beautifully trimmed with greens and cut flowers. Mr. and Mrs. Willson know how to handle a crowd, with ease the masks were removed, about ten o'clock Messrs. Willson, Ayers and Baker never played such music before as they did for all to dance for the old as well as the young, several said they never heard such lovely music in Kent county before. About twelve o'clock the handsome dining room decorated in red and and japanese colors was thrown open to all and the table was loaded with good things boiled and baked ham, beef tongue, deviled eggs, chicken, potato salad, biscuit, rolls, pickles, jellie, coffee and chocolate, Mrs Willson's cook knows just what this crowd likes best as she has cooked for them so often we all enjoyed our selves more than words can tell and Mr. and Mrs. Willson said they enjoyed it as much as we did. The crowd left as the sun rose and the roosters crowed wishing Mr. and Mrs. Willson a happy goodbye, hoping they would invite us there again soon.

EDESVILLE, FEB. 27, 1906.

There appears to be a general misunderstanding all round in regards to the "surprise" by the young folks of this neighborhood last Tuesday night, Feb. 20th, and the blame seems to have fallen in the estimation of a few where it certainly does not belong. The crowd was to go to Mr. John Brice's on that night but it seems as if Mr. Brice had made arrangements to entertain "those that never came" and so let it be known that Mr. and Mrs. J. Walter Sutton would like to be surprised, so boys take your girls and go there. Knowing the kind hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Sutton and not knowing Mr. Sutton was in Baltimore the coterie hied itself to Mr. Sutton, now Mrs. Sutton had that day been making preparations for the same crowd to be at her home on the following evening, as per arrangements and could not with respect to herself and guests to be entertained in her accustomed way or in a manner she would like, hence the publicity made and unkind feelings caused by—we trust, the unintentional thrust at one of the very best friends the young people of the old fifth has or ever had and we hope the writer of last week's communication may get what glory there may be out of his or her unkind publicity of a misunderstanding brought about by Mr. Brice's refusal to be surprised as he had made arrangements to entertain some fox hunters on that evening, so trusting by the time lent is over all hard feelings, if there be any, may have been eradicated and all go along as happily as before. I am to all

A FRIEND.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

Petition for New Road.

The Honorable Board of County Commissioners for Kent County, Maryland.

Gentlemen:—We, the undersigned taxpayers and citizens of the Seventh Election District of Kent county, Md., most respectfully represent that the public road leading from Pomona to Chestertown, is too narrow and inconvenient for public use. It being only 16 to 20 feet wide in many places.

Therefore, we urgently petition your Honorable Board to widen this road to at least 35 feet, because the public demands a wide road for security in passing rapid going vehicles near the county town as well as large loads of straw and hay.

As this road adjoins or connects the country with the county town and as the public traffic grows larger every year this necessary improvement ought to be made now, while the road can be built at less cost than any time in the future after new homes have been erected near the road making it more difficult to secure the right of way.

We respectfully submit this needed improvement to the consideration of our esteemed County Commissioners, hoping and expecting a favorable action thereon.

Very respectfully submitted,
