Call them what you will, but at the prices we have pinned on them we call them cheap, and so does the public, judging from the way they are getting into them. Now is your opportunity to fix up very, very cheap. Splice out the coat and vest with a pair out of this lot.

Overcoats and Suits all go now, and we still have a fair line. These reductions of ours are recognized as REDUCTIONS. Think of this.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

Misses Mable and Hallie Toulson entertained a few of their friends at a sumptuous six-o'clock dinner Wednesday evening at their home on High st. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. John M. Toulson, Miss Sallye Beck; Messrs. Herbert E. Perkins, Arthur Bradley, George White and Professor Neilson. A unique entertainment followed the dinner.

Dr. Sheridan, of St. James M. P. Church, was given a pleasant surprise Wednesday night by a large company of his congregation.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheridan were invited out to tea, and on their return at 8 o'clock found the parsonage filled with friends of the church. A pleasant evening was spent. Refreshments were served. The pantry was filled with groceries and provisions in the style for which St. James people are proverbial. Mr. Sheridan is closing his third year of his pastorate at this church. The warmest and most cordial relations exist between the church and pastor. His return for another year is expected.

Dr. and Mrs. Herdman Schwatka delightfully entertained the members of the P. D. Q. Club and friends last week at their beautiful home, Gratitude, Md. A sumptuous supper was served from eight to ten p. m., consisting of turkey, oysters, a la Maryland, terrapin, chicken, chicken and potato salads, cranberries and all the vegetables for which Kent is noted, coffee, tea, chocolate, Maryland biscuits and wines. The remainder of the evening was spent in music, dancing and games, a donkey party being the principal one. Mrs. Robert Wickes won the first prize, a handsome piece of bisque bric-a-brac, and the booby prize a beautiful and useful house-bold article was won by Mr. George DeFord. Refreshments were served in an elaborate manner from 12 to 1 o'clock, the menu consisted of cream, chocolate, cocanut, oranges, nuts, ice cream cakes, orange and lemon jellies, ambrosia and wines. Those present were Dr. Herdman Schwatka and wife, Robert Wickes and wife, John Brice and wife, B. Neal Willson and wife, Walter Francis and wife, Charles Brown and wife, Misses Maude and Blanche DeFord and Maude Wickes, Messrs. Eugene Willson, George DeFord, George Francis, James Moffett, Herdman and Edward Schwatka. The guests found Dr. and Mrs. Schwatka a delightful host and hostess and the evening will long be remembered by their friends. Prof. Willson's splendid violin music added much to the enjoyment of the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Wood gave a grand dinner in honor of Wickes Sappington who was home for a few days Turkey, wild duck, salads, pickles, jellie, ham biscuits, cream, ices, cake and fruit were served for dinner. Those present were B. Neal Willson, wife and children, John Wood, wife and son, Frank Sappington, wife and daughter, Mr. James Wood and Mr. Burgess.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gale who have been among the leaders in all the social pleasures about St. James', were given a royal surprise last Friday evening by a large company of young people.

The fifth district as usual takes the lead in social events, and this season for gaiety and a good time among the young folks is without a parallel in this section. The last but not the least by any means for the season was a delightful surprise party at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Bennett Willson, Jr., in honor of their daughter, Miss Nannie, Tuesday evening, Feb. 27th. This was pancake day but the tactful hostess surprised her guests to their entire satisfaction by using instead, chicken, potato and Waldorf salads, pickles, jellies celery, olives, hot rolls, Maryland biscuits, tea, coffee and chocolate. Dancing, cards and other games were indulged in. Prof. Eugene Willson's orchestra charmed everyone present. Gene is a host all alone when drawing the bow. Those present were J. Walter Sutton and wife, C. Frank Wheatley and wife, R. B. Willson and wife, Mrs. W. M. Willson, Misses Nannie, Bessie, Lea and Sophia Willson, May Sutton, Maude and Blanche DeFord, May and Hattie Strong, Flora C. Wheatley, Emma Mills, Blanche Kilbourn, Lillian and Nealie Willson and Stella Biddle; Messrs. Spencer Biddle, Ringgold Jones, George DeFord, Richard Notley, John Allen and Ernest Willson, Earle Nicholson, Edgar and Miller Strong, Harry Essenwine, Elsworth Leary, Charles Jessop, Wilmot Crosby and Harvey Kilbourn. At 3 o'clock Wednesday morning we bade our host and hostess and Miss Nannie the central attraction a good bye, with a promise to return another season. The young men had planned to give their lady friends on that date an old time oyster scald, but bad weather caused this change in their program, but on Wednesday afternoon with fair delightful weather the above mentioned crowd enjoyed the blue points hugely.

ARMOUR'S fertilizers for the spring crops are on the market. Mr. Hiram M. Brown is the representative in this section and the scores of testimonials received by him are a most flattering recommendation as to the value of these fertilizers.

Pale, Thin, Nervous?

Then your blood must be in a very bad condition. You certainly know what to take, then take it—Ayer's Sarsaparilla. If you doubt, then consult your doctor. We know what he will say about this grand old family medicine.

This is the first question your doctor would ask: "Are your bowels regular?" He knows that daily action of the bowels is absolutely essential to recovery. Keep your liver active and your bowels regular by taking laxative doses of Ayer's Pills.

RED LETTER DAY EXERCISES.

The regular monthly meeting of the Kennedyville W. C. T. U. was held Friday evening of last week, March 2nd, in the M. P. Church. The first and twentieth of March being "Red Letter" days in W. C. T. U. work, one being the birthday of our National President, Mrs. L. M. N. Stevens and the other the birthday of General Neal Dow, known everywhere as the "Father of Prohibition," both days were celebrated on this one occasion.

With Mrs. Annie L. Redmile at the organ and Mrs. Shafer in the chair the meeting opened with a song service by the choir and the grand old song "My Country Tis of Thee" followed with prayer by Mr. Willie Fogwell, Mrs. Kelley, of Locust Grove, gave a very helpful scripture reading. Minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. Shafer read a most excellent sketch of our National President, Mrs. Stevens. A paper "The Virgin and History of the Union Signal" was read by Mrs. Acca Crew, the Union Signal was nicely represented by Mrs. Shafer who solicited subscribers to our national paper, four new subscriptions were received, it was moved and seconed that the Union present the paper to its president. Miss Ellen Copper read a most excellen paper written by Miss Willard, "The first time I saw Neal Dow." A very instructive paper "Give thanks for what?" was read by Mrs. Leonard Price in which the past was compared with the present showing how much we who live in this the early morn of the 20th century have for which to be thankful. Miss Anna Matthews gave a pathetic recitation, "The negro funeral." It was moved and seconded that Mrs. Shafer be requested to write to Mrs. M. J. H. Othoson, our President and express the kind thought and sympathy of this Union in her affliction, she being in a hospital in Baltimore and having recently undergone a somewhat critical operation. The meeting closed with a chorus by the choir, one new member was added.
