SPRING THOUGHTS

The fast approaching time for warmer weather carries our minds gently to the thought of the various articles of dress, which we are are in the habit of providing. This time it is Shirts — something that half your life is lived in and ought to be your most congenial companion.

The $1.00 Faultless Shirt for this spring is made to fit just like our clothing and besides a matter of fit, they have other points of advantage over the average shirt that we'd be glad of the opportunity to show them to you.

N. B.—We will continue our Reduction Sale of Winter Goods a while longer If you want bargains, come get 'em.

CARD OF THANKS.

We, the members of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Colcman's do thank and compliment all who presented to our needy call and present to us a fine sum, which was collected by Mr. John H. Pierce. Though a non christian he is a faithful worker for the church. He like many who gave, yet non-christian, through their works and acts show that they feel it right to uphold the church, the grand fountain head of power. for in the church is the place to find that body that God says is the salt of the earth, so yet while they have not yet become christians, they want the fountain head of power kept strong. Waft on such a spirit for we know that the body of human man is a solid body of God's creation, though the body having many members yet one cannot help feeling its duty to the body. We do thank our many friends who have so greatly contributed to us in our time of need as we are taught the least done for Jesus is precious in his sight.

J. H. MURPHY, Chairman of Bldg. Com.

A SINGULAR FIRE

Discovered By Officer Getshall—Climbs In Window, Puts Out Fire Without Awakening Occupants.

Early Thursday morning while Officer Getshall, night watchman at Chestertown, was passing down High street near the wharf, he saw a dangerous fire in Mr. J. Frank Connelly's kitchen. He quickly aroused Mr. and Mrs. Worden, neighbors, secured a hatchet with which he opened the window and put out the blaze. The fire board was all afire and in a short while a big blaze whould have resulted. Mr. Connelly and his family were not disturbed and did not know of the fire and of their escape until they arose at the usual time Thursday.

Murderer's Freedom Over.

The two weeks' search for Isaac Winder, three days of which he says he spent in Baltimore, ended at 3.45 P. M. Tuesday on Mr. Jefferson Shanklin's farm near Loch Raven, Baltimore county, where Police Marshal Abraham J. Street, with his pistol drawn, came upon the condemned murderer while he was making a small fire in the woods. Winder was not armed and made no resistance. Although it is stated that Chief Street is undoubtedly entitled to the reward of $500 offered by the County Commissioners, he says he will not accept it. Winder was locked up in Towson Jail, with a guard over him; the death warrant was read and the watch set, and the hanging, it is expected, will take place March 30, as originally scheduled.

The murderer says the statements regarding his escape and his movements afterward, as told from day to day are correct. He read the papers during his period of freedom and kept up with the search. Winder declares he was in Baltimore, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week, and was in a saloon near Belair market. He met several policemen, he says, and among them, he thinks, was one of the men who first arrested him. In many quarters sympathy was expressed for Winder, though a criminal, because of the remarkable figh the made for freedom.

MARYLAND DAY was observed in the Chestertown public school yesterday with appropriate exercises.

Suplee, the president and secretary. Interest in the movement was shown by a very good attendance.

Hand of Death!

Mr. Benjamin C. Wells died at his home in Wilmington, Del., last week. He was an uncle of Judge E. S. Morris, of Sassafras, Mr. Wells formerly lived in upper Kent county and kept store in Sassafras in 1847, removing from Kent to St. George's, Del., and afterwards to Wilmington, where he has since lived. He was 87 years of age and leaves a widow, who is 81 years. This venerable couple had been married 64 years. He also leaves 3 daughters and 4 granddaughters. Judge Morris attended the funeral in Wilmington last week.

"How true it is that in the midst of life we are in death." Mrs. C. A. France, after spending two weeks at the home of her brother, Dr. W. O Selby, near Rock Hall, left for her home in New York on Tuesday. Stopping over night in Philadelphia she was taken suddenly ill with pneumonia and died on Sunday morning. Mrs. France has made many friends in Kent who were greatly shocked to hear of her sudden death. Dr. Selby left on Tuesday to attend her funeral. Much sympathy is felt for him in his sad bereavement.

William W. Arthur, a former citizen of Chestertown, and an uncle of Messrs. J. D. and D. A. Bacchus, died at his home in Baltimore on Wednesday, aged 79. He was a hatter by trade and reached a high place in business.

Mrs. Mary P. McFeely, aged 60 years, widow of the late William J. McFeely, of Centreville, Md., died at her home in Baltimore Wednesday afternoon from paralysis. She suffered an attack about two weeks ago, from which she never rallied. Mrs. McFeely was born in Centreville, Md., and was a daughter of the late William F. Parrott, of that town, and a sister of Mr. James P. Parrott, of this town.

On March 16th, 1906, Ruth B., the daughter of Wm B. and Beatrice Stephens, departed this life, aged 5 years and 8 months. The funeral services were held on Tuesday at 2 P M., at parents residence, 6134 Westminster ave., Baltimore. Interment private, at Mt. Moriah cemetery.

A. L. SPARKS' Spring announcement will be found in this issue. His new line of dress goods, suits and silks will delight the eye of every lady while the millinery department is equally attractive. Miss O'Connor and Miss Taylor have arrived and have charge of this department.

RELIGIOUS NEWS.

M. E. Conference Appointments—Program of M. P. Conference—A Great Time Among the Colored Folks.

In another column will be found a full list of appointments of Methodist Episcopal Church Conference which adjourned at Pocomoke City Monday.

Rev. Vaughn S. Collins read a list setting forth the number of charges in the conference which paid less than $700 a year and recommended that no minister of the Gospel who is a single man should receive less than $500 and no married minister should be paid less than $700. Mr. Collins suggested, as a temporary remedy, to obtain an increase in salaries, that each minister in the conference should be assessed one-half of one per cent. of his salary for a fund to be distributed as nearly as possible to meet the requirements. The following committe was oppointed to report at the conference: Dr. Robert Watt, C. T. Wvatt, C. W. Prettyman, R. H. Adams and V. S. Collins.

Change In Conference Date.

The Board of Bishops will be asked to change the date of the annual conference session from the month of March to the first week in April, because of the weather.

Rev. E. C. Atkins was transferred from the Wilmington Conference to the Central Tennessee Conference.

The only demonstration at an appointment was that of Rev. R. H. Adams for Pocomoke City, which was received with applause. The conference then adjourned to meet again in 1907 in Smyrna, Del.

A committee of laymen from the church at Kent Island protested in vigorous terms against the assignment of Rev. Charles S. Baker to Kent Island.

Rev. James Easley, the new pastor at Fairlee and Worton, was given a big farewell reception Thursday by Harrison Street M. E. church Epworth League. Mr. Easley is President and Mrs. Easley, recording secretary.

Methodist Protestant Conference.

Considerable interest is being manifested by Methodist Protestants throughout the city and state in the coming session of the Maryland Annual Conference of that denomination, which meets at West Baltimore Station, corner Lafayette avenue and Gilmor street, beginning April 4. Rev. J. M. Holmes is the pastor of the church.

This body is composed of 137 ministers and nearly an equal number of laymen.

Four ministers have died during the year. These were Rev. W. S. Hammond, D. D., Rev. Geo. D. Edmonston, Rev. William A. Crouse and Rev. David Wilson, D. D. Dr. Wilson joined the Conference in 1845 and Dr. Hammond in 1851 and were two of the oldest ministers in the Conference, their names standing second and third, respectively, upon the official roll, the name of Rev. Dr. S. R. Southerland, now venerable in years, standing at the head of the list.

It is not doubted, but that Rev. Dr. Little, the incumbent, who has served the church so faithfully and well, will be re-elected President for the fifth year. This latter is the disciplinary limit.

The question of church union, which has been upon the tables for several years, will also come up for much discussion, when Rev. Dr. Thomas H. Lewis, who represented the Conference at the Dayton (O.) meeting of the three churches in February last, submits his report.

Changes of Pastorates.

It is not supposed that there will be many changes in the pastoral work this year. There being no time limit, it is not an easy matter to forecast a change of pastors. It was rumored a short time ago that Rev. J. W. Kirk, of Allnut Memorial, was wanted at Salisbury, but as he has been so successful at the former place during the five years of his incumbency, it is hardly likely that his people will want to give him up. Among the changes in the counties it is rumored that Rev J. E. Nicholson, of Dorchester, will change, as will also Rev. George R. Hodge, of Deer Creek, Harford county, and Rev. Robert S. Rowe, of Kennedyville.

In point of growth of church membership, of property, Sunday schools, finances, etc., the statistics show a comfortable advance. The following is the report of the last conference: Full members, 24,571; probationers received, 1,564; Sunday schools, 272, with 25,813 scholars on the roll and 3,559 officers and teachers; also, 4,900 members of the Christian Endeavor societies. There are 291 churches and 105 parsonages, with a total value of $1,812,309. For the benefit of the superannuates and widows and orphans of deceased ministers there is an invested fund of about $80,000, the interest from which, together with the annual collections for that purpose, are applied to the beneficiaries. The ordination sermon on Sunday, April 8, at 11 A M., will be delivered by Rev. D. L. Greenfield, of Chestertown.

Detailed Program.

The program for the evening services follows:

Wednesday, April 4, 8 P. M.—Meeting in the interest of Sunday schools and Christian Endeavor, Rev. W. H. Litsinger, of Elizabeth, N. J., presiding. Addresses—On "Sunday Schools," Rev. George Hines, of St. Michael, Md., and Mr. Preston Fiddis president Maryland Sunday School Union; on "Christian Endeavor," Rev. James H. Straughn, of Lynchburg, Va.

Thursday, April 5, 8 P. M.—Meeting in the interest of literature and education. Rev. B. W. Kindley, of Seaford, Del., presiding. Addresses—On "Literature," Rev. F. T. Tagg, D. D., and Rev. T. R. Woodford, of Baltimore, Md., on "Education." Rev. T. H. Lewis, D. D., and Rev. H. L. Elderdice, D. D., of Westminster, Md.

Friday, April 6, 8 P. M.—Missionary meeting. Rev. F. C. Klein, of Baltimore, Md. address by Rev. F. H. Lewis, of Pittsburg, Pa.

Monday, April 9, 8 P. M.—Meeting in the interest of ministerial support. Rev. G. M. Clayton, of Pocomoke City, Md., presiding; addresses by Rev. Louis Randall, of Stewartstown, Pa., and Rev. Claybourne Phillips, of Baltimore, Md.

At a special members' meeting in Christ Church Monday Mr. Wm. B. Usilton was elected as delegate to conference and Mr. T. D. Bowers alternate.

Rev. John S. Bowers, who for 14 years has been pastor of Clark Memorial Independent Methodist Church, has been asked by the congregation to serve the church for another year. He will probably be returned by the Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, of which body he is a member.

Since he has been connected with Clark Memorial the congregation has removed from down town to St. Paul and Twentyseventh streets, where a handsome edifice has been erected.

Rev. F. T. Benson, pastor of St. John's Independent Methodist Church, Madison avenue and Laurens street, has been asked to return for the next year. He has served the present pastorate four years. Clark Memorial and St. John's comprise one corporation and are under the control of one quarterly conference.

The Washington, D. C., Post says, "The annual membership meeting of the Rhode Island Avenue M. P. Church occurred last night in the lecture room of the church, between 150 and 200 persons being present. The meeting elected Mr. Thomas J. Wilson as delegate to the annual conference next April, and he was instructed by a rising and unanimous vote to ask for the return of Rev, J. M. Gill, the present pastor, for another year. Rev. George Honey was elected alternate delegate. When Dr. Gill, the pastor, returned to the room every one arose, giving the Chantanqua salute and singing "Blest Be the Tie That Binds."

Dr. D. L. Greenfield preached one of the strongest sermons of his ministry Sunday morning to a large congregation, his theme being the "Transfiguration."

The Rector of St. Paul's, Rev. C. T. Denroche, will not be able to hold service on Sunday, March 25.

The Colored Conference.

This has been conference week in Chestertown, first since 1888. The 43rd annual session of the Delaware Annual Conference (colored) of the M. E. Church, opened Wednesday morning with 114 members and 11 probationers present. Bishop Charles C. McCabe, who presided over the sessions of the Wilmington Conference at Pocomoke City, is officiating at this conference. Rev. J. H. Blake was elected secretary and these assistants chosen, E. O. Parker, J. W. Fenderson, J. U. King, T. W. Cooper, J. C. Dunn, F. H. Butter, F. J. Handy, S. E. Maloney, C. S Spriggs, J. W. Bond, S. J. Parker. C. W. Pullett was elected conference treasurer. Edw. Randall, D. D., sec'y of Epworth League M. V. Kelly, D. D., editor Methodist Review, and J. G. Penn, of Epworth League, addressed the conference. The following were introduced; Dr. I. L. Thomas, field agent Church Extension Society; Dr. C. C. Jacobs and Dr. Rhoades, agents S. S. Union; Rev. W. A. C. Hughes, of the Washington conference; Dr. A. W. Lightbourne, of the Wilmington Conference; C. F. Clagg, book depository, Philadelphia.

In addition to Bishop McCabe, who is the guest of Mrs. John D. Kemp, a number of prominent speakers, officially identified with the benevolences of the Church, attended the conference and delivered addresses.

Among them were Dr. J. T. McFarland, editor Sunday School Union, and Dr. J. O. Spencer, President of Morgan College, guests of Mr. M. A. Toulson; Dr. James M King, secretary Church Extension Society guest of Mr. James Brice; Dr. Edwin M. Randall, General Secretary Epworth League, guest of Mr. Wilbur Eliason; Dr. W. P. Thirkfield, Secretary Freedman's Aid, guest of Rev. W. L. White; and Dr. A. B. Leonard, Corresponding Secretary of the Missionary Society.

On next Sunday morning, at 10.30 Bishop McCabe will preach in Stam's Hall.

Charges against W. J. Moore and P. O. O'Connell were not sustained but J. H. Harmon's case was referred to a special committee.

The next conference will meet at Camden, New Jersey.

H. A. Monroe, Presiding Elder of Philadelphia district, which includes churches in Boston, Mass., reported $1,031 raised for missions and $1,124 accessions. He attributed the falling off in colored population to removals to large cities.

N. W. Moore, of Centreville District, reported 539 accessions; $561 raised for education and $2,400 for benevolences. He estimates the real estate held by numbers of churches to amount to $638,462. The other districts were called and flattering reports presented. Conference will adjourn tomorrow night after the reading of the appointments.

GOLT ITEMS.

We are glad to report that our friend, Mr. Ralph Hewitt, has returned home from Philadelphia where he has had a very severe attack of typhoid fever. Every one seems glad to see him home again.

Mr. Wm. Simpler and son David, have been visiting in Wilmington.

Miss Bessie Merritt, of Warwick, spent from Friday until Sunday with her parents here in town.

Miss Mildred Matthews spent Sunday with her grandmother, Mrs. J. T. Matthews.

Mr. W. E. Matthews made a flying business trip to Philadelphia on Tuesday last.

Miss Addie Ford, Miss Brinsfield and friend spent last Saturday evening with Miss Mary McKay.

Some of our young folks certainly did enjoy the sleighing last Friday morning, although it didn't last very long.

One of our teachers, Mrs. Clara Rees, spent Wednesday evening in Chestertown with Mrs. Mary Rees.

Mr. C W. Spry came home Wednesday from the W. C. A., Dover, Del., to spend the Spring Holidays.

The Public School will hold an entertainment in the church hall on Wednesday evening March 28. Proceeds to purchase an organ for the Public School. Every one should be willing to come and help as it will be such a benefit to our school.
