Delaware Conference.

The colored residents of Chestertown and friends of Janes M. E. Church are to be congratulated upon the excellent manner in which they have entertained the 150 members of this conference. The homes are fitted up in fine style and the tables have been supplied with the best the market affords. Rev. J. R. Holland is pastor of the local church, and under his ministry they have raised about $1800. A new parsonage has been erected at a cost of $2000 and the church greatly improved. The entertainment committee consisted of Fred. Nichols, Harrison Jenkins, Moses P. Sterling, Henry Yorker, Wm. Jeffries, Marshall Pitman.

ANNAPOLIS NEWS.

Gov. Warfield has vetoed the Dawkins Labor bill. His strongest argument against the measure is that it denied employment to all minors.

The Legislature will adjourn Tuesday week.

The canal toll bill will likely pass the Senate but the toll will be reduced to 15 cents per passenger.

The new charter of Chestertown has passed the House.

The bill compelling Talbot county to pay half for building Kent Island Narrows bridge has passed the House. This means $10,000 to Queen Anne's tax-payers.

The bills to pay Galena and Millington $300 has passed the House.

The members of the railroad investigation committee are to be congratulated upon the happy outcome of their work.

An Annapolis despatch states that the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company has offered to buy the State's stock in the Washington Branch for $2,500,000. Thus it proposes to settle a question which, if left open, would result in vexatious litigation neither in the interest of Maryland nor of the railroad company.

There is good reason to believe that the Board of Public Works will acquiesce in it. The amount which the railroad company offers for the 5,500 shares of stock in the Washington Branch owned by the state of Maryland seems to be fair and equitable. This stock is carried on the State's books at a valuation less than one half of the purchase price now offered by the railroad company. That the value of the stock has increased vastly in the last few years has been the contention of those responsible for the protection of the State's interests in the Washington Branch. That contention is conceded by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, which, recognized the justice of the State's claim, proposes to pay $2,500,000 for stock for which the State originally paid $500,000.

If this offer is accepted, and it will be, the State tax will be reduced to 15 cents.

Mr. Crane's bill to extend the territory in which pound nets may be used in the Chesapeake bay off Kent county was unfavorably reported, Mr. Ewell moving to substitute the bill for the report. Mr. Lawder took exceptions to the motion, explaining the purposes of the bill, which, he said, would result in shutting off the Susquehanna as a fishing ground to the detriment of many persons who had large capital invested in fisheries.

"If this bill passes," said he, "fish cannot possibly get by the pound nets off Kent county, and the only way they could reach the Susquehanna would be by land."

Mr. Crane made an able argument in favor of the measure, in which he was seconded by Mr. Ewell, who analyzed the bill to prove his assertion that ample water would be left in which the fish might reach the Susquehanna without going ashore at any point. Mr. Cameron opposed the bill on the ground that it would work great harm to the fishing in the Susquehanna, after which Mr. Murdock moved to lay the whole matter on the table. The House decided to do so by a vote of 51 to 22, and the bill was then put to sleep finally by the adoption of Mr. Davis' (Cecil) motion to reconsider and to table that motion. Thus ends the fish legislation and Betterton claims that they have won a great victory over the lower bay fishermen.

MASSEY NOTES.

Mr. Clarence Neal has three very sick children, Dr. Scott is attending them.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Price have returned from Baltimore where they spent a very pleasant week.

Messrs. Steven and John Pierce have opened a first-class livery and exchange stable here.

Mr. E. M. Newnam, our crack mechanic is also a first class carriage and sign painter.

In last week's issue of a local paper the following note appeared: "Mr. John Richards spent last Thursday evening with Miss Mae Hickman." The above note is untrue in every particular and was written by a Massey school girl.

Building operations had to be suspended on account of bad weather but our little town is by no means dead as there is plenty of hustle going on getting ready for spring.

Mr. S. S. Hurlock one of our hustling young farmers is engaged in the fertilizer line and wood business. Hard to get ahead of this little town.

We are very glad to hear that our minister is coming back.

Mr. Barney McGuigan and Mr. Philip Ireland spent Monday afternoon in town.

Judge Brown's Decision.—Judge Brown, presiding at Elkton, ruled that the Clerk of the Court has no right to date traders licenses back to the 1st of May when they are taken out after that time and that merchants who have done business prior to taking out a license are liable to arrest and the process of the law.

THE spelling contest between the 5th and 6th grades of the Chestertown Public School resulted in a victory for the 5th grade, the averages being 92 to 74.

Laws, only died a few months ago, and Capt. Shibles was only ill two days, he leaves two young children 12 and 14 years old which is a sad case indeed.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fillinghan entertained at a delightful party in honor of Miss Leah Vansant and Miss Mattie Draper on Friday evening last. The following guests were: Misses Bessie Merritt, Cena Buckwith, M. Davis, Viola Hall, Leah Vansant, Mattie Draper, Messrs. James Merritt, Samuel Buckwith, James Davis, John Smith, George Philips, Harry Robinson, Morgan Robinson and Phenus Vansant. After a most delightful evening in games &c., all were invited to the dining room where an eloquent collation was served consisting of fruits, lemonade, ice cream, cakes, &c. It was in the small hour when the guests left for their homes.

Mr. Revell's Majority.—At the city election held at Seattle, Washington, T. P. Revelle, a former pastor of the Maryland M. P. Conference, was elected councilman in the seventh district. Mr. Revelle's election was a victory of the people over the practical politicians of that city. Mr. Revell's majority was 877, which was two to three times larger than any other ward councilman.

DRESS GOODS—Gray: Black: Colors

There is a wonderful unanimity this season as to the reigning "color" of the new spring dress goods. Gray! Of course a color now and then, but only as the exceptions that prove the rule. And white ground suitings—but they are of the family of grays.

And to say gray is to comprehend a very wide range of color effects. Disabuse your mind of the idea that gray means a dead level of monotony. On the contrary, designers and colorists have rung in an infinity of changes in tones, half tones, shadows, suggestions, combinations that are all different, distinctive, stylish—and gray!

And the loom has done its share in varying the effects, for never were such lovely sheer textures turned out in woolens.

There are blacks, too—thin, diaphanous, fine—in shadow checks, cords and plain weaves.

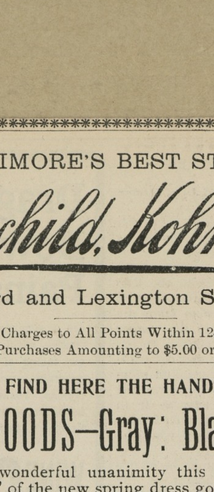

The colors—dainty colors—are in lovely shadow checks and in one-color beauty.

This stock of dress goods is full, fine and fair-priced.

Grays are $1 00, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75 a yard.
Black Fabrics are 50c to $4 50 a yard.
Colored weaves are 50c to $1.50 a yard.
