Call them what you will, but at the prices we have pinned on them we call them cheap, and so does the public, judging from the way they are getting into them. Now is your opportunity to fix up very, very cheap. Splice out the coat and vest with a pair out of this lot.

Overcoats and Suits all go now, and we still have a fair line. These reductions of ours are recognized as REDUCTIONS. Think of this.

Most Delightful Social Functions.

A genuine surprise was given R. S. Rowe, the retiring pastor of Kennedyville M. P. Church, and his estimable wife, on Wednesday evening, March 21. The kind people began to assemble about 8 o'clock and continued to come until the cosy and comfortable parsonage was completely filled. In due time all present were invited into the dining room, where toothsome and palatable refreshments of various kinds were spread in tempting array. Table after table was filled until all had partaken unto complete satiety, and enough was left to supply the parson and his wife until conference. The evening was delightfully passed in sacred song, innocent amusements and pleasant christian fellowship, and at a late hour the happy company returned to their respective homes, none going away dissatisfied. Among those present were the following: Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Jarrell, Mr. and Mrs. George Lane. Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Clendaniel, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar R. Pennington, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Baxter, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hagarty, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Rasin, Mrs. Joseph H. Weer, Mrs. L. A. Pennington, Mrs. Dr. Barwick, Mrs. Isaac Cleaver, Mrs. Henry Meredith, Mrs. S. E. Barwick, Mrs. Jas. Cain, Misses Katie Weer, Bessie Webb, Ada Cain, Helen Hagarty, Nellie Barwick, Elizabeth Barwick, Messrs. Wm Fogwell, Charles Smith, and Masters Hartley Weer, Theodore Jarrell, Frank Hurlock.

The St. James Sewing Circle was most royally entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Biddle, near town, on Friday evening. Although the evening was unfavorable the house was well filled. A fine supper was served and good cheer and happy heart reigned within. Fine music was rendered during the evening. Those present were: Geo. S. Biddle and wife, Elwood Morris and wife, John Gale and wife, Jesse H. Usilton and wife, Harry C. Willis and wife, Walter T. Morris and wife, Thos. J. Davis and wife, Walter Fowler, Robt. Smith and wife, Carroll Lollar and wife, Frank Mason and wife, Romie McCauley and wife, Herbert Matthews and wife, Wm. Ivens and wife, Robt. Kennedy and wife, Will Norris and wife, Mrs. Geo. Cooper, Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Kinsey, Misses Arsula Moffett, May and Hattie Strong, Sallye Sheridan, Maude Aldridge, Mae Usilton, Miss Maslin. Mabel Nicholson, Nellie Gillespie, Mary Gemmill, Alice Brown, Clara Biddle, Addie and Ethel Gale, Stella Biddle, Veva Hendrickson, Jennie Davis, Katie Fowler, Messrs. Harry Jefferson, D. B. Ford, F. G. Usilton, Harry Meekins, J. W. Crouch, A. W. Carroll, Romie Skirven, Samuel Lollar, J. E. Ferguson, Jarrett Sheridan, Lester Bowers, J. H. Thompson, Romie Morris, Henry Brown, Tom Matthews, R. McCauley, Thos. and Eddie Fowler, Wm. Davis, Spenser Biddle, Auther Prettymen, M. Asher, Geo. Hudson, C. Newcomb, Raymond Hudson, P. Biglow and others.

A Palatial Home.—Mr. Thomas G. Wroth will move into his new home on Front street, Chestertown, next week. The building is palatial in every sense and will make an ideal home. Mr. Wroth has given every detail of its construction his personal attention and it is a high compliment to his taste and skill. The style of architecture is colonial and is partly on the plan of Mr. Frank Jarrell's Washington Avenue home, the architect of whom was Mr. A. M. Culp. The builders of Mr. Wroth's residence were Mr. Frank Duyer and his able assistants and the workmanship is hard to surpass. The painting was done by Mr. Wm. Sappington who has displayed good artistic skill. The lower rooms and hall are all finished in hard wood, the upper rooms in light colors. The bath room fixtures are all white and with enamel bath tub, wash stand and closet. The building is heated by hot water installed by Mr. W. C. Sutton. It will be lighted throughout by electricity. The residence will cost abont $5000.

LIVE LOCAL NOTES

Big Sale.—The Robert H. Vandyke sale, advertised in the NEWS, was largely attended and auctioneer Hurlock got good prices. Nine mules brought $1350; horses from $50 to $140; cows from $25 to $45; hogs 6 cents per pound.

Alarmed.—A young lady on Mill street thought she heard burglars breaking in her home Tuesday night and alarmed the neighbors. Two stalwart citizens quickly came to the rescue, and each armed with a big revolver, searched the house but found no robber!

An Appreciated Gift.—Prof. Eugene Wilson, the skilled violinist of lower Kent, was made happy one night this week in a most unexpected manner. The young people of the fifth district in appreciation of his kindness in playing for them at the many surprises held during the winter purchared for him an elegant black aligator leather violin case lined with red plush, and with name on silver plate. When it was handed to him he was overcome with emotion and could only say, "well this is too much!" It was certainly a happy thought and very much appreciated.

Shot Himself Accidentally.—Mr. Ringgold Strong, son of Mr. Walter B. Strong, of Lankford, accidentally shot himself while gunning on Cedar Point last Wednesday. He had just stepped from a row boat and in lifting his gun from the boat it was discharged, the load taking effect in his right arm between wrist and elbow and setting fire to his coat sleeve. The wound, while painful, is not considered serious, and at this writing the young man is getting along well.

A Pleasing Lecture.—Bishop Chas. C. McCabe gave his celebrated lecture, "Bright Side of Life in Libby Prison," in the Chestertown M. E. Church on Thursday night before a packed house. It was a great treat and highly enjoyed. Mr. F. P. Hummer, president of the Epworth League, presided; Mr. George White sang a baritone solo; Mr. Kemp Bordley played a mellow violin solo; organists, Misses Anna G. Lambert and Mabel Toulson. A splendid reception followed the lecture in honor of Rev. Mr. White's return to Chestertown. The receiving party included Bishop McCabe and wife, Rev. W. L. White and wife, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Hummer, Misses Anna Smith, Irma Eliason, Mary Fleming and Jennie Hines. Bishop McCabe has given this address more than 1100 times, from which he has raised more than $200,000 for benevolent purposes.

A Pretty Wedding.

On March 14th a very pretty wedding was solemnized at the Methodist Episcopal church at Delmar, Del., by Rev. Z. H. Webster, the contracting parties being Miss Lorena Blizzard and Mr. M. Monroe Pote, son of Fred E. Pote, formerly of Kent county, Md. Miss Georgeanna Landon, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid and Mr. John C. Strong, of Wilmington, Del., cousin of the groom was best man. The party entered the church preceded by the ushers, Messrs. A. Harland Elliott and Vernon Hastings, under the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March rendered by Mrs. Mayme Lynch. The bride was attired in a gray traveling suit with hat and gloves to match and carried bride roses. The bridesmaid wore green with hat and gloves to match and carried pink carnations. The groom, best man and ushers wore the conventional black. The happy couple took the express for northern points including Chestertown, Worton and Kennedyville, Md., returning home April 1st and will reside in Delmar, after which Mr. Pote will resume his work as brakeman on the N. Y. P. & N. R. R. The out of town guests were: Messrs. John C. Strong, of Wilmington, Del., Wilburn Nelson, of Crisfield, Md., Mrs. Capt. Raynor, of Baltimore, Md., Mrs. J. Owens Kinder and daughter, of Norfolk, Va., sister of the groom, Mrs. Hiram Williams, of Seaford, Del., Mrs. Joseph Willin and Miss Fanny Welch, of Bridgeville, Del. Mr. and Mrs. Pote were recipients of many beautiful and useful presents.

Mrs. Dr. F. A. Walls is spending a few days with Philadelphia relatives.

Does Your Heart Beat

Yes. 100,000 times each day. Does it send out good blood or bad blood? You know, for good blood is good health; bad blood, bad health. And you know precisely what to take for bad blood—Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Doctors have endorsed it for 60 years.

One frequent cause of bad blood is a sluggish liver. This produces constipation. Poisonous substances are then absorbed into the blood. Keep the bowels open with Ayer's Pills.
