LIVE CHURCH NOTES.

On account of the indisposition of rector, Rev. Christopher Denroche, there will be no preaching in St. Paul's Church Sunday.

The Delaware Conference, colored, of the M. E. Church, finally adjourned last Monday morning. The appointments for nearby charges were as follows: Chestertown, J. R. Holland; Coleman, J. R Brinkley; Pomona, J. W. Bond; Melitota, S. A. Earle; Still Pond, F. T. Johnson; Galena, C. W. Moore; Catlin, C. A. Norwood; Sassafras, A. W. Lowber; Millington, F. J. Lee; Fairlee, R. H. Coleman; Crumpton, J. H. Adams; Chesterville, A. J. Waters.

Sunday was a red letter day in the history of Janes M. E. Church. There were hundreds of visitors in town some estimating the number at nearly 2000. Bishop McCabe preached to a crowded house in Stam's Hall Sunday morning and at night Rev. C. A. Tindley, of Philadelphia, preached. Over $110 was raised at the morning service, it being a record breaker. A score or more of white people attended all the services. The conduct of the colored visitors and others on Sunday and during the whole week was exemplary. Overflow meetings were held at both churches and in the tabernacle.

Sunday morning will be "Decision morning" at Christ M. P. church and at night the anniversary exercises of the Missionary Society will be held.

On account of the funeral of Dr. Hessey there will be no preaching at St. James M. P. Church Sunday morning or at Lynch's in the afternoon. The Christian Endeavor services will be held at both churches at 7.30 p. m.

DR. HESSEY DEAD.

After weeks of suffering from complication of diseases Dr. John H. Hessey, the beloved physician and friend of everyone, expired at his home at Hanesville Thursday noon

The family of which this well-kown physician of Hanesville is a representative is among the oldest of Cecil County and its members have been prominent in public life and business affairs of the Eastern Shore The exact date of the arrival of its founder in America is not known, but the records show that he came from Germany. Succeeding generations bore an active part in developing the resources of soil and in extending the value of commerce, so that to them, together with the representatives of other pioneer families, much of the local progress is due.

Near Cecilton, on the home farm, the subject of this article was born 1853, and there he was reared to manhood. His primary education was obtained in the local schools, after which he became a student in Washington College at Chestertown and remained a pupil in that old institution until his graduation in 1876. In the fall of the same year he entered the College of Physicians and Surgeons in Baltimore, from which he graduated in March, 1878, with the degree of M. D. At once after completing his studies he opened an office in Fairlee where he engaged in practice for three years. In 1881 he removed to Hanesville, where he has since resided, in the meantime building up a valuable practice. He was the only physician within a range of six miles, and that fact, together with his acknowledged skill as a physician, rendered his position in the community one of importance. In addition to the management of professional duties, he has given some attention to the fruit business and upon the farm which he owns he has raised peaches and pears. While this has been merely a "side issue," not the real business of his life, yet he has found it pleasant and profitable, and has the greatest faith in the Eastern Shore as a fruit-raising country.

The marriage of Dr. Hessey, in 1886, united him with Emma Nicholson, a most estimable lady, who survives him with three children Sarah, John and Emma Morgan. He attended services at the St. James M. P. Church and bore a part in many of the activities and benevolences of that denomination.

The funeral will take place Sunday at 11 A. M., Rev. J. M. Sheridan officiating. Interment in Chester cemetery, Jno. N. Dodd undertaker. The bearers will be Wm. J. Beck, Thos. J. Davis, Jesse H. Usilton, W. J. Tarbutton, Elwood Morris, Harry O. Willis, Frank Leaverton.

Other deaths will be found on Page 5.

Sudden Death — Mr. Samuel W. Walker died suddenly Thursday afternoon at his home near Hanesville. Mr. Walker after hearing of the death of Dr. Hessey seemed very much distressed and went out to his stable. His wife coming home found him in the stable doorway unconscious suffering with a stroke of apoplexy. He died a few hours after the first stroke. Dr. H. L Dodd was hurriedly called but the patient never rallied. Mr. Walker was a genial and well-thought of man and had been sexton of St. James M. P. church for about 15 years and will be greatly missed. He was 68 years of age and leaves a wife and four married daughters, Mrs. Harry Taylor, Mrs. John Myers, Mrs. Harry Lambert, Mrs. Lewin Newsome. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock, interment at St. James church yard. The bearers will be his four sons-in-law and Messrs. Walter and Elwood Morris.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Toulson gave a social at their home near Lynch Saturday evening March 24, in honor of Miss Hallie's 16th birthday; her many friends began to assemble at 7 o'clock, games and music were played during the evening and at 9 o'clock all were invited to the dining room where palatable refreshments of various kinds were spread in tempting array. Among the presents was a gold watch and chain from her parents, and other costly presents. Those noticed were: Misses Blanche Kendall, Ida Mason, Violet Kendall, Lizzie Toulson; Messrs. Frank Jones, Arthur Mason, Wilbur Kendall, James A. Toulson Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Morris; Mrs Crew and others. At eleven o'clock all bid good night wishing Miss Hallie many more happy birthdays.

Horse Notes.—Rev. A. H. Covey has sold the chestnut stallion, Linkwood Hannis, which he recently purchased from Caroline county, to Mr. E. B Nelson, a New York buyer. Mr. Covey has bought back "Rex," the brown pacing gelding he sold three years ago, and reports him as sound and speedy as ever.

Reamer Roy, 2:20¼, a bay stallion owned by Mr. E. B. Emory, formerly of Queen Anne's county, died Friday morning last at the stable of Mr. George W. McWhorter, town. The horse was in an enfeebled condition consequent upon an attack of strangles which had kept him to his stall for about three weeks, and the long drive from Poplar Grove seems to have been too much for him.

"Light Foot," owned by Mr. Chas. L. Dodd, is the mother of a fine Bedworth, Jr., colt.

Safe Crackers.—An effort was made Saturday night to get into the big safe in the office of the Chestertown Strawboard Mill. The culprit procured the key from the pants pocket of one of the workmen entered the office and set to work with a chisel and hammer. The chisel had been left in the room by a carpenter who had been at work there Saturday. The night watchman, Tom Matthews, colored, says he heard the noise and called to know if it was Mr. Clay (the Superintendent) and receiving an affirmative answer, went on about his work. The safe was injured but the thief did not succeed in opening it. Some small change in a drawer was stolen.

Baseball—A movement has been inaugurated in Chestertown by friends of the boys to get a play ground and athletic field. Mr. John Gale Usilton has made a reasonable offer; it is hoped the effort to get a field will succeed. School Notes.—The teacher at Lynch's school in place of Miss Anthony resigned, has been appointed and will take charge on Monday next.

Examiner Melvin is arranging a tri-county institute for Cecil, Kent and Queen Anne's counties to take place in Chestertown about September.

Miss Nora Boston's school, of Goose Hill, will visit the Lynch's school at an early date and compete in spelling and mental arithmetic. This is in line with the NEWS' oft repeated suggestions as to more time being given to spelling and nothing will have a better effect than friendly rivalry among the schools.

New Fish Law—The new fish law passed for Queen Anne's prohibits any person to take, catch, capture or kill fish in the waters of the tributaries of Chester river within the jurisdictional limits of Queen Anne's, except of bonafide residents of Queen Anne's. The fine is not less than $20 nor more than $100. Under the provisions of this law there is nothing to prevent Kent countians from setting their nets anywhere in Chester river, provided these nets are not placed in any tributaries within the limits of Queen Anne's. Chester river fishermen will see that the Queen Anne's fishermen keep off of Kent territory.

Pastors Lost Money.—The Delaware Methodist Episcopal Conference (colored) had a sensation Saturday afternoon when Bishop McCabe called for reports of the pastors. Rev. J. M. Whitington, of Bridgeville, Del., stated that he had lost $50 while running for a car in Philadelphia. Rev. C. H. Green, of Aireys, informed the conference that he had lost $45 while in Chestertown, but didn't know how he had lost it. The Bishop requested that the losses be borne by the conference, and the members contributed sufficient to make up the deficiency. More than $7,000 was deposited in the bank here for missions.

Gasoline Boats.—Mr. Wilber Eliason, Jr., is making a specialty of gas engines, both marine and stationary, and is handling the Fairbanks, one of the best on the market. Mr. Eliason is installing, at Eliason's lumber yard, a 7 horse power engine in a 24 foot skiff recently purchased at Georgetown. This boat when finished will be a beauty. His large yacht will be installed with a 25 horse power engine. Mr. Thos. W. Eliason, Jr. is fitting up a 16 foot skiff at the lumber yard with a 3 horse power engine. Capt. Perce Rawleigh is assisting Mr. Wilber Eliason in installing the engines.

Special Meeting of Lawyers.—A meeting of the members of the Kent bar was held last Thursday in Chestertown to take action relative to the recent sudden death of Associate Judge Edwin H. Brown. State's Attorney Wm. W. Beck was made chairman and Herbert E. Perkins secretary. The following were present: Marion deK. Smith, Wm. M. Slay, Richard D. Hynson, Lewin W. Wickes, Wm. W. Beck, John D. Urie, S. P. Townshend, Herbert E. Perkins and R. Groome Parks. A committee consisting of Messrs. Slay, Smith and Wickes, was appointed to draft suitable resolutions to report to the bar meeting at the April term when suitable action will be taken.

Thieving.—Mr. Arthur M. Brown lost a goose and several turkeys last week.

Mr. John Bell thought he had lost a fine gobler but it strutted back home after a few days absence.
