ROCK HALL ITEMS.

At last, the Haman, Sun and Corporation bill, passed with flying colors, and with its passage came a telephone message to our oyster buyers on Tuesday, to throttle the prices on oysters, and the price dropped from 55 cents on Monday to 35 cents on Tuesday, and it seems probable that the price will continue to drop for a day or two longer.

Rev. Mr Burr, and his official board are considering the advisability of securing the services of a Japanese Exhibitor to give an exhibition of moving pictures representing scenes of the late Japan-Russia War.

The Odd Fellows, on Wednesday evening last, held their quarterly Smoker, after the close of routine business, there was quite a large attendance, and a jolly set they were. Among the subjects discussed was, "What are considered the three greatest evils of the country to-day?" Capt. Bill answered Rum, Money and Women, Marshindale answered Rum, Tobacco and Money, the Chair answered Rum, Trusts and the Acquisition of the Phillipine Island. After a free exchange of pros and cons, adjournment was had and all felt a similar occasion should be in order at an early date.

The Red Men, on Thursday evening held an open house after routine business, and Floor Work, with happy scenes, and refreshments. Nine of our citizens, were admitted into the mysteries of the Order.

Miss Willis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Willis, returned to her home last week from the hospital where she has been in care of a specialist, she is unimproved we bear. This good family have been undergoing a severe ordeal for the past few months, and the sympathy of our entire community go out to them.

April weather so far is decent, and our farmers and truckers are again making considerable headway with their work.

Mr. C. H. Smith, has a fine young colt suffering with the lock jaw.

Capt. Crane's manly stand in the interest of our water men during the legislature session is highly appreciated.

Post Master Downey, has been making some splendid improvements in the P. O. by removing the office fixtures to the rear of the room, this giving considerable room and convenience, also adding much to general appearance.

Tonsorial Artist, Snowden Maslin, has transferred his operations to the building lately occupied by Casey and Ayres butchers. He is now snugly fixed.

MILLINGTON ITEMS.

Mrs. Dr. E. G. Clark and Miss Agnes, of Middletown, Del., are spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Clark, near here.

Mr. Geo. W. Todd, of Wilmington, was in town Wednesday on business.

Miss Nema Price has returned to her home after spending sometime with friends near Baltimore, Md.

Mrs. Clarence Comegys and son Charles left for Gumberry, N. C., last Tuesday where they will join Mr. Comegys and make their home in the future.

An installation service will be held in the M. E. church next Sunday evening. At which the new officers of the Epworth League will be installed, no doubt this will be an interesting service, all are invited to attend.

Mrs. Edwin Gardiner severely burned her left hand on Friday last. In reaching across the stove the sleeve of her waist caught in the coffee pot upsetting it and the tea pot and spilling the boiling hot contents on both of her hands, the left was so severely burned that Dr. Gowman had to be called in to dress the wound.

Miss Willie Moffett returned home Monday after spending several days in Wilmington and Philadelphia selecting her spring line of millinery.

Mr. R. W. Moffett, member of the firm of Gillespie & Moffett, returned from Annapolis on Wednesday.

Contractor B. W. Duling has contracted with Rev. A. P. Prettyman, of Galena, to build an up-to-date house on the lot adjoining the home property and will brake ground for said house this week. About 5 years ago Mr. Duling put up one of the finest jobs in the country for Mr. Prettyman, who was so well pleased with that job that he is glad to obtain the services of the same contractor again. Mr. Duling has also broken ground for three more new houses in town this week.

The friends of Rev. Edwin and Mrs. Gardner, pastor of Asbury M. E. church, gave them a surprise Thursday evening in the way of a liberal donation. Quite a crowd gathered at the parsonage all laden with good substantial things and greatly enjoyed the evening.

Mr. D. James Hall, a well known man of our town and formerly of the firm of Hall & Gillespie, and Miss Mary Lillian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Turner were married at the home of the bride near here, Wednesday evening at 7.30 o'clock, by Rev. Edwin Gardner. Mr. and Mrs. Hall will reside on Mr. Hall's farm near town.

THE RADIANT EXPOSITION OF EASTER MILLINERY

Includes More Than a Thousand Hats

It looks like a Nation's Exhibit of Hats—this gathering of Easter Millinery. Few stores in the land dare venture a creation of a thousand hats. There are more than that ready in the Salon. Yet it isn't a venture—so many women who cherish effect and distinction in dress depend on us for millinery that we sell several thousand hats in a season.

You'd wonder in what the fashion consisted, there is such variety of shape and trimming. The fact is, there is no hard-and-fast line this year. You are left almost free to study your face.

Splendid Array of Hats at $5.00 Almost as Many at $6 00 Between $7.50 and $15.00 There are Many More

And so on up to $43 50 for the finest. The variety fairly multiplying in hats of every shape and color, it seems, under the sun.

Stiff Hats for Tailored Suits Unlike Those of the Past

One Salon is devoted to the showing of such hats—a room where you may sit in comfort at a dressing table and try on hat after hat. Trig affairs, with little trimming but a world of style. Chief trimmings are wings, perhaps a bow of ribbon and quills. We've studied the question of stiff hats as carefully as dress hats. Yes, we've imported some. Beauties, too. Some of these have the daintiness of needlework mixed in. Prices range from $5 00 to $18.50.

Turbans and Bonnets for Matrons and Elderly Folk

We've gone into the subject of becoming headgear for matrons and elderly women in a new way. We've had designers study millinery from this viewpoint. If you've had hard work to get becoming style, not overdone, come to the Hochschild, Kohn & Co. Salons. There is seemingly everything from a pretty bonnet, with strings that tie, to a rather large turban. Chiefly black; black with white; beautiful gray effects. Here and there a bud of color on some. Prices range from $5.00 to $25.00.

Hats for Misses and Children

Straw bonnets, softened with frills of chiffon, ribbons and roses will be worn by girls from three or four to ten or eleven years of age. Quaint, pretty frames for young faces. Large showing of these. Prices range from $2.00 to $15 00. For misses and little girls, bows, ribbons, quills, and a few dainty flowers sum up the story of their hats. Some are big, floppy affairs, the under brim often a sweet surprise in its row after row of frills of Valenciennes lace. There are sailor and rolled brim shapes aplenty, too. Large variety. Prices range from $3.00 to $15 00.

About Untrimmed Hats and Trimmings We Trim Hats Free

More shapes and more trimmings — wider variety and finer qualities — than at any previous season. But prices are not high — as a matter of fact, we ask no more for fine, unusual things than is asked all around for the hopelessly mediocre and commonplace.

Our Mail Order Department is equipped to give prompt and accurate service The McCall Bazaar of Fashions will be mailed free every month on request. Samples of Silks, Dress Goods, Wash Fabrics and so on will be cheerfully sent if you will write for them.

SUES TOME INSTITUTE FOR $100,000.

Mrs. Evelyn S. France, wife of State Senator Joseph I. France, through her attorneys, Robert C. Thackery, of Elkton; John P. Poe and George Whitelock of Baltimore, entered suit Friday in the Circuit Court for Cecil County, against the Jacob Tome Institute for $100,000. This is the amount claimed by the plaintiff under the provisions of the will of her former husband, the late Jacob Tome, for his residence at Port Deposit, which she has declared her willingness to turn over to the Institute, but for which the Trustees have refused to pay the figure named in the will.

Royal Baking Powder Absolutely Pure

DISTINCTIVELY A CREAM OF TARTAR BAKING POWDER

It does not contain an atom of phosphatic acid (which is the product of bones digested in sulphuric acid) or of alum (which is one-third sulphuric acid) substances adopted for other baking powders because of their cheapness.

THE LADIES STORE—H. F. JEFFERSON—CHESTERTOWN, MD.

Economical Purchasing

From a sufficiently large number of special items to fill the entire page we have chosen two colums of those which seem to give the best representation to the various lines of the store, while at the same time being of greatest interest to the public. Practically the entire space is devoted to news of seasonable merchandise at economical figures as being of the most direct benefit to our customers right now—new fashions—new ideas—things not seen before. The brightest, most interesting store on the shore.

MILLINERY

Our Miss Wheatley has just returned from the Spring Openings the leading New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore Millinery Houses where she purchased a large and varied stock of the very latest and nobbiest things in Millinery effects that will go in the making of our quality hats—These will be offered to the wise purchasing public at economical figures.

Ready-to-Wears To Go

Late Winter and Early Spring Ready-to-Wear Hats —excellent styles are now marked at extremely low figures for immediate clearance.

98 Cents

Prices were double and more. In a week or two the Millinery store will be in a full Spring bloom; everything that savors of winter must be out of the way. Rear of Store. We take pleasure in announcing that we have secured the services of Mrs. Hitch for the Spring season. Nothing need be said in reference to her trimming as the many products of her handiwork—last season—are standing recommendations of her ability to please. Those who were fortunate enough to obtain one of her hats and the public generally will be pleased to learn of her return.

Ladies' Spring Wraps

Our entire line was purchased early and consignments are arriving daily—they are here in loose and close fitting backs—with and without collars—satin lined all through. Call and look them over and be convinced that we have the right things for warm season—You save money trading here.
