CHRIST IS RISEN!

EASTER is here. Let it be a time when the old selfish habits shall be thrown off and a new life of unselfishness and kindness be begun. You pass this way but once; do some kind act and generous deed.

HON. THOS. A. SMITH made a strong speech in the House of Representatives Thursday on the Educational bill.

IT is the universal verdict that at this time there are plenty of peach buds and that the outlook is for a big crop.

THE Legislature just closed is said to have been the most temperate body that has ever assembled in Annapolis. Who says that the temperance cause is not gaining ground?

SENATOR BAILEY, of Texas, made one of the best speeches heard in Washington for many years. Even the Republicans conceded to Senator Bailey this distinction.

A LARGE BODY of Methodist ministers boarding at a New York hotel were astonished to find that the colored waiters refused to serve them because they only gave five cent tips! It is time this abominable custom of tipping was done away as it is becoming worse and worse.

SEC. BONAPARTE was called upon to decide whether the Government shall compel its employes who are of the Seventh Day Adventist faith to work on Saturday. He directed that no employe be excused from working on a day when the services of the employe are required.

THE House Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries last Friday agreed to favorably report the Senate bill, relieving motor fishing boats from the rigor of the recent enactment requiring a licensed engineer. The owner will have to take out a license but no examination to obtain the same is required.

THE eruption of the volcano Vesuvius has caused the loss of thousands of lives in neighboring towns and millions of dollars worth of property. The burying of Pompeii many years ago was an awful calamity but the loss of today is far greater.

THE election of a town commissioner for Chestertown will take place Monday week. The election is for a commissioner to fill the place of Mr. John W. Hyrons. He has made a first-rate official, accepting his pay in abuse with remarkable charity and patience.

At this writing Messrs. J. W. Hyrons and George D. Lofland are mentioned for the place, but we feel confident there will be no scramble for the place between them.

DOWIE has been deserted by his wife and thousands of his followers. Every dog has his day and it looks as if this man has had his.

THE coal strike is still unsettled. It is surprising that the operators should hold out when they know that the consumer will have to foot the bill in any event. The test has got to come—why not now?

THE NEW ASSESSMENT.

What a Representative Farmer and Property owner Thinks of the Valuations, &c.

MESSRS. EDITORS KENT NEWS:

As Kent County is about to have a reassessment of all the personal property, and as all property holders are vitally interested in the manner in which it shall be done, I think a little exchange of opinions about valuations will be appropriate and interesting to all of us at this time.

In starting out on this subject I want to say that I heartily approve of a reassessment, because most property is valued too low, which necessitates a high rate in order to raise the amount of money neccessary to meet the annual expenses of the County. Our County Commissioners are often charged with mismanagement and extravagance in the use of County funds, when the blame ought to be charged up to our assessors who valued our lands and other property too low. If our assessors had valued our good farming lands at from $35 to $50 dollars per acre and our poorer land at $20 to $30 per acre, our tax rate would have been below one dollar per hundred for the last several years.

While a high or low rate does not really make the taxpayer pay any more money to the county, yet the general tax payer argues that a high rate does mean for him to pay more money. We have about $100,000 to raise annually and if we have a low valuation the rate will be high or if we have a high valuation the rate will be low.

I know a gentleman who has two nice farms in Kent which are worth forty thousand dollars and he wants to purchase other lands here, but he says taxes are too high. While I think this gentleman is mistaken about our taxes being higher here than in adjoining counties, yet I know this notion prevails generally, therefore I am in favor of a much higher valuation on all kinds of property.

I think the cash value of all kinds of property is the best and safest rule for our assessors to be guided by. I think too, our personal property of stock especially ought to be classified with three grades, good, medium and common. Good mules from 3 to 10 years old ought to be valued at $125 apiece; good horses $100; medium mules from 10 to 15 years old, $75; medium horses 10 to 15 years old, $60; common mules and horses $25, colts, $20; good cows, $30; common cows and heifers $20; good sheep, $5; common sheep, $4; large hog, $10; small hog, $5. These figures are below the cost marketable value, but which would if adopted more than double our present basis of taxation on stock. The stock alone in Kent ought to make the basis of taxation between $100,000 and $200,000.

Household property ought to be valued low because it always has sold low and always will sell low at our vendues. There is being said a good deal about taxing notes and other securities and quite a number of persons are advocating a drastic inquisitorial method of finding this property. This will be quite a serious mistake I think, because few farmers have any cash money to loan and the notes they hold are for horses or other stock sold to other farmers which horses or stock will be assessed to the holder it will amount to double taxation which is not just or fair. Now what the property holders want and ought to have in this reassessment is a fair and uniform valuation throughout the County and I venture to suggest to the County Commissioners to call and require the newly appointed assessors to meet in a conference to discuss and adopt the best rules to govern them that will apply uniformly and impartially all over the county.

I want to venture another suggestion, that one republican in every district be added to the board of assessors. Minority representation is a principle that all appointing powers ought to recognize and follow faithfully. I submit this last proposition without argument, though it is the best idea of this communication and I could say a great deal in its favor.

"THE PRINCE OF INDIA" AT THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC, BALTIMORE.

Klaw & Erlanger's colossal production of Gen. Lew Wallace's "The Prince of India", which has just concluded an extended engagement at the beautiful Colonial Theatre in Chicago, comes to the Academy of Music, Baltimore, on Monday, April 16th, remaining for two weeks.

"The Prince of India", written by General Lew Wallace, author of "Ben Hur," and presented by Messrs. Klaw & Erlanger (the producers of that world-famous spectacle,) excels its predecessor from almost every point of view. While adhering to the reverent atmosphere which dominated "Ben Hur", it is a more interesting story, largely because of the greater dramatic possibilities.

The cast of "The Prince of India" embraces such prominent names as J. E. Dodson, Wm. Farnum, Wm. Beach, Gerald Lawrence, Sydney Herbert, Sarah Truax and Julie Herne, and is under the direction of J. C. Huffman, a master of the art of staging massive productions.

There will be matinees on Wednesdays and Saturdays, during "The Prince of India" engagement.

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE

Of Rock Hall, Branch of the Maryland Anti-Saloon League.

CHARLES S. PORTER, President.
MISS ANNA W. LEARY, }
MISS ADA JOINER, } Vice-Presidents.
MRS. MOLLIE DURDING, }
JAMES T. TAYLOR, Secretary.
MISS LYDIA ASBLEY, Treasurer.

The League meets the first Tuesday in each month, in Lecture Room of Rock Hall M. E. Church. All are most cordially invited who have an interest in this cause.

DECLARATION.

The Maryland Anti-Saloon League is an interdenominational, omni-partisan organization to oppose and drive the saloon from the state; to secure better temperance laws, to see that the present temperance laws are better enforced and break up speak-easies.

We ask no one to subscribe to any special religious creed, or to vote for any special political party, but cordially invite all persons, who believe the saloon ought to go from us, to join the League. In creed and politics we go no further than to urge all to stand by their convictions in church and state, and use every legitimate means to destroy the liquor traffic. Our effort is to free the helpless drunkard, and the Nation, from the thraldom of the drink evil, and take the temptations of this evil, and its attendent evils, out of the path of our boys and girls. We are banded friends of childhood, youth, inebriates, home and native land. If you believe with us, we most cordially invite you to sign your name to the following:

AGREEMENT-ROLL.

I, the undersigned, believe the saloon to be one of the greatest evils of our age, and would like to see it banished from the State of Maryland; would like to see the temperance laws better enforced, and speak-easies broken up. I therefore agree with the Maryland Anti Saloon League, to aid in every legitimate way, to bring about these desired results.
