GROUND BROKEN.

A Beginning Made on Handsome Building at Washington College—To Cost $35,000. Corner Stone Laying June 16.

Ground was broken Monday for the new administration building for Washington College that has been under consideration for some time. In this building will be concentrated all the work of the College, and it has been planned on a scale sufficiently large for this purpose. The building will have a frontage of 116 feet and a depth of 110 feet. In addition to the classrooms, laboratories and library rooms, there will be an auditorium capable of seating about 500.

The building will be of brick, with terra cotta and granite trimmings, three stories high, and will be one of the finest College buildings in the State. The contract price is $35,000. The money for the erection of the building is now in hand, and the recent appropriation by the Legislature will enable the college to equip and furnish the building, as well as make other necessary improvements to the other buildings.

The architect is Mr. John D. Thompson, Jr., and the contractors W. S. & A. M. Culp, of Chestertown.

CRIMINIAL COURT.

Civil Business Postponed—Judge Crothers Makes Good Impression—Judges Pearce and Martin Greeted Warmly—Liquor and Thieving.

The April term of the Circuit Court for Kent County was called last Monday morning at 10 o'clock, with Cheif Judge James A. Pearce on the Bench.

Other court officers were in their places as follows: James T. Dixon, clerk; Lewin L. Russel, deputy clerk; Andrew Medders, sheriff; Samuel G. Startt, deputy sheriff; William W. Beck. Esq., states attorney; John H. Greenwood, crier; and bailiffs Charles H. Hurlock, S. Q. Moody and William H. Blakeney.

After formal opening of Court and adjournment of the January term, the jury panel was called. Judge Pearce designated Robert C. Morgan as foreman of the Grand Jury, and the clerk drew the remainder of that body as follows:

Grand Jury—Robert C. Morgan, foreman; Purnel Jump, T. Romie Strong, Anthony H Johnson, Ralph Barnett, John P Cochran, John C, Davis, John E Hadaway, Charles S. Smith, Samuel S. Hurlock, Charles D. McClary, John Medders, Thomas G. Wroth, Perry B. Rasin, Daniel W. Hadaway, John S. Newnam, George Spencer Boulden, Jesse E. Ireland, Edgar J. Watson, Harry Holt, and William T. Dukes.

Petit Jury—The remainder of the panel comprise the petit jury as follows:

The dockets were read and case of state against Edward Armstrong charged with violation of local option law, was called and tried before the court. Verdict not guilty. W. W. Beck for state; R. D. Hynson for defendant.

Judge Austin L. Crothers arrived on the 11.30 train and took his seat beside Judge Pearce for the first time in this Court. He graces the bench with a most becoming dignity and evident fitness.

The Court took a recess until 2 p. m., when memorial services for the late Judge Brown were observed.

Wm. M. Slay, Esq., presented the resolutions of respect as adopted by the bar, and appropriate remarks eulogistic of the deceased jurist were made by Hons. Wm. M. Slay, M. deK Smith, Lewin W. Wickes, H. H. Barroll, R. D. Hynson, W. W. Beck, Sidney P. Townshend, Herbert E. Perkins, H. W. Vickers, Jr., R. Groome Parks and Judge Pearce.

The resolutions were as follows:

"We, the members of the Bar of Kent Co., desiring to place on record our high appreciation of the worth and public service of Judge Edwin H. Brown, late Associate Judge for this Judicial District, whose sudden demise in the midst of his labors on the 25th day of March last, in the 60th year of his age, so shocked this community, and also to bear testimony to our deep sense of loss occasioned thereby, do resolve

That the high character, intellectual force and legal ability of Judge Brown while at the Bar, placed him in the front rank of his profession, andearly marked him worthy of elevation to the Judiciary of this State.

"That, called to the Bench when in the full maturity of his powers, by the unanimous voice of the people, his wise administration of Justice therefrom, his urbane manner and devotion to his judicial duties abundantly fulfilled expectation, and won for him in the four and a quater years of his judicial career a high place in the confidence and esteem of the bench, bar and his fellow citizens of the Circuit.

"That in his untimely death, the public has lost a faithful officer, the bench of this Circuit a highly valued associate and the bar an upright, impartial and able judge.

"That we extend our sincere sympathy to his family in their great bereavement, and direct that a copy of these resolutions be sent to them.

"That these resolutions be presented to the Court at the April session and request that the same be spread upon its minutes."

WILLIAM M. SLAY,
MARION DEK. SMITH,
LEWIN W. WICKES.

TUESDAY

Judge Martin arrived in town Monday evening and was on the bench Tuesday with Judge Crothers.

Chief Judge Pearce left for Annapolis Tuesday morning.

The case of state against Mrs. Thompson, propietress of a boarding house at Rock Hall, charged with violation of the local option law was tried, and a verdict of guilty rendered. Judge Crothers imposed a fine of $600 and costs. Beck for State; Hynson for defense. The fine was promptly paid.

WEDNESDAY

George Davis and Herbert Brown, colored boys of Chetertown, were convicted of stealing brass wire from the electric light company and each sentenced to 6 months in the House of Correction. Judge Crothers in sentencing these boys told them if they had been at work instead of loafing about town smoking cigarettes they would not have gotten into this trouble.

Wesley Blake, colored, was convicted of stealing chickens from Mr. Fowler on Flatlands and sentenced to 2 years in the penitentiary. He was defended by H. W. Vickers, Jr. Blake has served two terms in the House of Correction and one term in penitentiary but says he never before was accused of the great crime of stealing chickens! W. W. Beck appeared for state.

Annie Brown alias Carroll alias Rasin was tried for bigamy, found guilty and sentenced to penitentiary for 18 months. She was ably defended by H. W. Vickers, Jr. Annie claimed that the preacher gave her a six months license at the end of which time she thought she was free to marry again!

James Sisco, colored, Rock Hall, was acquitted on the charge of selling liquor. R. D. Hynson, attorney for prisoner.

THURSDAY

Henry Smith, colored, was charged with selling liquor but was acquitted. R. D. Hynson for the defence.

The case of Jim Rogers, colored, charged with selling liquor to Chas. Waddell. Tried before jury, Beck for state; Vickers for defense. Verdict, guilty, and sentenced to pay a fine of $300 or six months in House of Correction.

Henry Chatman, another well-known colored resident of Chestertown, was tried for selling liquor; tried before jury, convicted and sentenced to a fine of $300 or be confined in House of Correction for six months.

The four cases against Capt. Henry Smith, colored, for alleged violation of local option law and against Charles Sewall for bigamy were postponed until next court.

Court adjourned Thursday.

DEATH'S HARVEST.

A Number of Well-Known Residents Pass to that Bourn from Which No Traveler Returns.

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Zerkle, after a lingering illness, died Thursday of last week at her home in Baltimore, aged 73. She was a sister of Mrs. Wm. H. Blakeny, of Chestertown, who attended the funeral. The deceased was a christian in deed and in truth. Dr. J. M. Holmes officiated at her funeral.

J. H. Rowlenson.

Mr. Joel Haddaway Rowlenson, 58 years old, died suddenly at his home, 1314 Harlem Avenue. Born in Centreville, Queen Anne's county, he went to the city when a young man and entered into the real estate business, which pursuit he followed more or less closely during his entire career. At different periods during his life he was employed on several of the papers in the city in capacities of reporter, printer and proofreader.

On the occasion of the murder of Dr. Hill, a prominent resident of Kent county, Mr. Rowlenson was detailed by Governor Brown in a small tugboat to take several negroes charged with the crime from Chestertown to Baltimore, and have them confined in the Baltimore jail. This was done at the instigation of the county officers on account of many threats of lynching. Mr. Rowlenson, accompained by city police performed the task. Later four of the negroes were hanged and the death sentences of the other four were commuted by Governor Brown.

Mr Rowlenson was for many years well known by Democratic politicians all over the State. For nearly forty years he was constant in his attendance upon sessions of the Legislature and has mixed in politics during all that time.

In recent years he had been regarded as a follower of ex-Gov. Frank Brown, to whom he was intensely loyal and for whom he had worked in various capacities.

He is survived by a widow, formerly Miss Alziro Story; three sons—Messrs. John, Perry and James Rowlenson—and one daughter, Mrs. Thomas R. Whitehead.

James. W. Sparks.

Mr. James W. Sparks, a well-known resident of Chestertown, died at the home of his son, William J., in Crumpton, Wednesday, April 11th, after a long illness aged 76 years. The deceased was a house mover of ability and was known for his industry and patience. He leaves the following children: W. J. Sparks, and Mrs. Emma Sparks, Crumpton; George M. Sparks, Chicago, Mrs. Lizzie Swensby, White Haven, Pa. The funeral took place Friday, Rev. E. O. Ewing and Dr. Sullivan officiating.

Mrs. S. Louise Beeks.

Mrs. S. Louisa Beeks, widow of the late John F. Beeks, formerly of near Still Pond, this county, died at the home of Mrs. William Rothstein, Baltimore county, last Monday morning of heart disease, aged 71. She leaves an adopted daughter, Mrs. John H. S. Ewell, of Alexandria, Va. The remains were brought to Chestertown Tuesday and interred in Chester cemetery the next day. The funeral services were conducted in Christ church by her Baltimore pastor, Rev. H. Medley Price, assisted by Dr. Greenfield. The bearers were John D. and Dr. Jas. W. Urie, Wm. G. and Thos. Rasin, Thos. Bradley, Steadman Cross; J. N. Dodd, undertaker.

Harry Hynson, aged 30, died in Baltimore Sunday at the residence of his sister, Mrs. A. W. Dilworth, 315 East 21st street.

SAMUEL COLEMAN

Samuel Coleman, a well-known resident of Still Pond, died Wednesday after a long illness, aged about 70. He leaves a widow and five children, viz, Mrs. John Atwell, Misses Jennie and Pearl Coleman, Samuel and Calvin of Baltimore. The funeral took place yesterday, undertaker Krusen in charge.

J. CLINTON RASIN,

Mr. Joseph Clinton Rasin died at his residence in Still Pond yesterday (Friday) morning, after an illness of one week of blood poisoning. He was in his 78th year. The deceased was well-known throughout the county. He took much interest in public affairs but never held office but that of Justice of the Peace from 1900 to 1904. He leaves a widow and several children, one son, Wm. W. Rasin is a nursery salesman in Baltimore. The funeral will take place at his late home on Sunday at 2.30 p. m., Rev. T. S. Holt officiating; interment in M. E. cemetery. Bearers: W. B. Price, F. H. Harpor, W. D. Pennington, George W. Atwell, G. W. Covington, J. B. Rasin. Undertaker W. H. Krusen in charge.

A QUIET HOME WEDDING.

Miss Iris T. Anthony, daughter of the late Captain and Mrs. Jonathan Anthony, sprung a complete surprise upon her many friends by quietly becoming the wife of Mr. John Masten, of Philadelphia, at noon on Monday.

The engagement was well known but the wedding was expected to be sometime in May or June. The home was tastily trimmed with ferns, &c, amid which pretty surroundings the ceremony was performed by Dr. Henry B. Martin, of Emmanuel church. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Ellsworth Bowers, of Lynch's, and the bride's brother, Mr. Harry D. Anthony, gave her away. The bride was handsomely gowned in a suit of grey panama cloth, white messaline waist, with hat and long sleeve glove to match. A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony.

The bride has been teaching in Kent schools for two years and was quite popular. The groom some years ago was postal clerk on the Kent train but is now on the run between Philadelphia and Cape Charles. After a short trip south they will take up their home at Harrington, Del.

THE Glee and Mandolin club concert on next Thursday evening promises to be a rare treat. The College boys have a fine program and a large audience will greet them.

Contented in New Home.—Col. Edward B. Emory has written to a friend in the county that he is comfortable and contented in his new home, near Rock Hall, Kent county. The dwelling is comparatively new, modern, convenient and finished from cellar to attic. The people, he writes, are honest, industrious, thrifty and social and provide liberally for their families. Rock Hall, he states is a thriving town of about 2,500 inhabitants and the surrounding rural sections, within radius of ten miles, with Rock Hall as a center sweeping north, it is full of villages, churches, schools and stores. Mr. Emory also states that farm labor is plentiful and reliable.—Record.
