HOSPITALS CROWDED

MAJORITY OF PATIENTS WOMEN

Mrs. Pinkham's Advice Saves Many From this Sad and Costly Experience.

It is a sad but certain fact that every year brings an increase in the numberofoperations performed upon women in our hospitals. Morethan three-fourths of the patients lying on those snow-white beds are women and girls who are awaiting or recovering from operations made necessary by neglect.

Every one of these patients had plenty of warning in that bearing down feeling, pain at the left or right of the abdomen, nervous exhaustion, pain in the small of the back, pelvic catarrh, dizziness, flatulency, displacements or irregularities. All of these symptoms are indications of an unhealthy condition of the female organs, and if not heeded the trouble may make headway until the penalty has to be paid by a dangerous operation, and a lifetime of impaired usefulness at best, while in many cases the results are fatal.

Miss Luella Adams, of Seattle, Wash., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"About two years ago I was a great sufferer from a severe female trouble, pains and headaches. The doctor prescribed for me and finally told me that I had a tumor and must undergo an operation if I wanted to get well. I felt that this was my death warrant, but I spent hundreds of dollars for medical help, but the tumor kept growing. Fortunately I corresponded with an aunt in the New England States, and she advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it was said to cure tumors. I did so and immediately began to improve in health, and I was entirely cured, the tumor disappearing entirely, without an operation. I wish every suffering woman would try this great preparation."

Just as surely as Miss Adams was cured of the troubles enumerated in her letter, just so surely will Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cure other women who suffer from female troubles, inflammation, kidney troubles, nervous excitability or nervous prostration.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all young women who are ill to write her for free advice. She is daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for twenty-five years has been advising sick women free of charge. Address, Lynn, Mass.

THE BELL OF STILL POND CHURCH.

Oh, bell of Still Pond, ring out,
Ring loud! Ring clear! Ring long!
And spread the tidings all about
To all the busy throng:
Ring out and speak to careless hearts,
And fill the evening air
With warning tones, that seem to say
Beware! Eeware! Beware!

Oh, bell of Still Pond, ring out
With accent sweet and clear,
And tell the thoughtful, anxious hearts
The day of grace is here:
Ring out the invitation loud,
Wherever they may roam,
And sav unto the penitent
Come home! Come home! Come home!

Oh, bell of Still Pond, ring out,
And let your joyful sound
Bring music to the new-born soul
That peace in God has found;
Ring out and let the happy heart,
In answer to your voice,
Sing with each peal the happy words,
Rejoice! Rejoice! Rejoice!

LIVE LOCAL NOTES

Crowded.—Every department of Mullin's store in Wilmington, Del., is crowded with Spring goods of the latest designs. Read advertisement for full particulars.

Insurance Statements.—In this issue of THE NEWS will be found statements of many of the leading insurance companies doing business in the United States. Every policy holder should read them.

Don't Be A Parlor Car.—"Don't be a parlor-car, young man," said President Floyel Luther of Trinity College yesterday, to the boys of Berkeley School. "Be the engine, the motive force, and not the parlor-car, the ornament—the thing which must be drawn. The educated man who serves others is the best in the world."

Big Eater.—On a wager of $1 William Outten of Seaford, offered to eat 15 raw eggs in 15 minutes. He accomplished the feat and then offered to eat a cake of soap if any one would pay for the eggs and soap, and put a forfeit of $5 if he did not do it. The bet was made and he ate the soap.

Oyster Season Will Close Soon.—The dredging season closed March 15, and shortly afterward the amount of oysters carried into Baltimore and shipped to other points began to decrease. April 25 is the date for the close of the tonging season, and at this time the tongers are working for dear life, catching all the oysters they can. The law allows the tongers about 10 days to dispose of the oysters they have caught, so the season will not end completely until about May 5.

Sale of Farms.—The property known as the Young farm, containing 600 acres, located near Cecilton, has been sold by Manly Drennen, agent, for the owners, to William T. Clark, of the First district, for $15,000

Mr. Thomas W. Jones has purchased the John F. Dawson farm near Ridgely for $15,000. The farm contains 210 acres, 175 of which is in cultivation, the balance being in Woodland. The Dawson farm has an interesting history, and was the home of Judge Dawson for many years. Mr. Lee Mitchell has also purchased a farm containing 30 acres from Hon. Thos. A. Smith for $3,000. Thus it can be seen that Caroline county real estate is bringing good prices.

OBITUARY.

DR. BENJAMIN S ROSEBERRY died at his home in Gardiner, New Mexico, on March 28th, 1906, of pulmonary relapse and pleuratic complications.

Dr. Roseberry was born Nov. 15, 1853, in Kent county, Md. He attended Washington College, Chestertown, Md., and graduated in medicine at the University of Maryland in Baltimore, Md, in 1874. He was married to Miss Winnie Price, of Kent county, Oct. 27th, 1874. He practiced his profession in his native county and in Baltimore, where he held the chair of Materia Medica and Therapeutics in the Baltimore School of Medicine for five years preceding his removal to Central Illinois in 1887, where he practiced until 1895, in which year he was obliged to remove to the Southwest, on account of pulmonary affection. Dr. Roseberry practiced medicine in Colorado and New Mexico until his death, being chief surgeon of the Raton Coal and Coke Co. and their successors, The St. Louis, Rocky Mountain and Pacific Co. He leaves a widow and two children, H. P. Roseberry, of Raton, New Mexico, and Mrs. J. Franklin Greenawalt, of Denver. He was a member of Gate City Lodge No. 11, A. F. & A. M., Raton Chapter No. 6, R. A. M., Aztec Commandery No 5, K. L., and Balut Abyad Temple of the Mystic Shrine, at Albuquerque. Dr. Roseberry was also a member of the New Mexico Medical Association.

The funeral was held under the auspices of Blue Lodge No. 11, with commandery escort, and the interment was in Fairmount cemetery. The funeral services were in charge of Rev. Wm Wylie, of the Episcopal Church. Numerous beautiful floral pieces, clusters and bouquets were sent by the lodges and friends. Dr. Roseberry had a genial, nappy disposition and none who knew him can forget the hearty welcome he always gave to friends. He was loved by many and was valued by those to whom he served and ministered. His position among the medical fraternity was one of honor and good fellowship. He will be missed by a large circle of friends, who sympathize with his family in their great loss. The best that can be said of any man is lovingly said of him, "He served his fellowman with love and faithfulness."

MEMORIAL RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas it has pleased Almighty God in his infinite wisdom to take from us one of the most esteemed honorary members of the Mount Vernon Literary Society of Washington College, Dr. John H. Hessey, and

Whereas his death has been such a great loss to the community, it is befitting that we, the members of the Mt. Vernon Literary Society of which he was once an honored president, express our appreciation of the work done by him during his membership, and our realization of the great loss which has come to the community by his untimely death.

Therefore, be it Resolved, That his earnest and efficient work in our organization and his association with our society be held in grateful remembrance.

Resolved, that we tender to the grief stricken family and relatives our heartfelt sympathy and our earnest hope that even so great a loss to them on earth may be doubly recompensed by his gain in the inheritance a happy home in the world beyond; and that although to them the Supreme hand that seized him in the midst of his active manhood may now seem unmerciful, our prayer is that they may soon realize that all is well.

And be it further Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be published in the papers of Chestertown, that a copy be forwarded to the bereaved family, and that a copy be entered upon the minutes of this society.
