THE Democratic State Central Committee will meet May 24 in Baltimore.

A BROOM FACTORY would be located in Chestertown if the town will offer some inducements.

THE President has been caught in the Rate bill trap. "He cannot see a trap without wanting to play with the spring," was well said by Senator Rayner.

EDITOR WILLIAMS of the Cecil Whig has discarded the editorial "we" from his writings, and uses the singular "I" in preference. A very sensible innovation—whether the rest of us follow or not.

THE NEWS is glad to be able to state that the Town Fathers have arranged to start the sprinkler next week. The delay has been caused by repairs being made to the cart. The streets also are to be scraped which will be quite an improvement.

THE meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Easton Diocese in Chestertown this week has been one of unalloyed pleasure to everyone participating. The members have impressed us with their courteous bearing, attractive persons and intelligent discourses and proceedings. The door is open any time you wish to re-enter the portals of our town.

FROM the best information obtainable Senator Gorman is not alarmingly ill. His son, the State Senator from Howard county, has assured anxious and sympathetic friends who have inquired as to the condition of his father that the family and the physicians in attendance do not consider the distinguished invalid is in any immediate danger.

SENATOR Tillman charges the President with acting dishonorably on the Rate bill but Roosevelt replies that statements made against him are false. It will be remembered that he made a similar denial concerning Judge Parker's charges that a prominent life insurance company was contributing to his campaign fund!

THE object of reassessment of personal property is to place every tax-payer on an equal footing so that the poor man will not have to bear burdens which belong to the rich nor vice versa. In nearly every case where there is opposition it comes from the man who is not paying all he should. Every citizen should aid in making this assessment as near correct as possible. It is a vital matter in which every tax-payer is interested. It is being made for no other purpose than that justice may be done and that all shall help bear the burdens of expense.

An Eminent Young Surgeon Dead.

The Philadelphia papers announced the death of Carl Vischer, one of the most eminent surgeons of that city. He has been ill for three months of diabetes and sought the best treatment in this country and Europe, but in vain, he died at Bellefonte, Pa. He was only 34 years of age but had reached the top round in his great profession. Dr. M. Earle Usilton writes: "Dr. Vischer has been my closest and best friend ever since I have been in Philadelphia. Oh, how I shall miss him!"

Growth of Campaign Funds.

Congressman William Sulzer, of New York City, in the coarse of a recent speech in the House of Representatives, gave attention, in an interesting manner, to the growth of the funds used by the Republican and Democratic Committees in national campaigns, as follows:

Year	Republican.	Democratic.
1892	$ 1,850,000	$ 2,350,000
1860	100,000	50,000
1864	125,000	50,000
1868	150,000	75,000
1872	250,000	50,000
1876	950,000	900,000
1880	1,100,000	355,000
1884	1,300,000	1,400,000
1888	1,350,000	855,000
1896	16,500,000	675,000
1900	9,500,000	425,000
1904	3,500,000	1,250,000

MISS KRUPP, who is the daughter of the late founder of the Krupp Gun Works of Germany, has been asked to wed by 1362 different men, more than 300 of them being princes, dukes, counts and the like. She has accepted one, according to report, but his idenity is kept secret. Miss Krupp has an income of $5,000,000 a year. The Kent county girls haven't such large sums of money but they have other attractions.

Farmers and all who are interested in agricultural success are reminded that the church will pray to God on next Sunday the 20th of May for His blessing on the crops of 1906. They should certainly go to church on that day and unite in this special prayer meeting which will be held throughout the whole world.

Arrests.—Capt. Downey, of the police boat Anna B. Smith, was in Chestertown this week and in an interview with the NEWS man stated that he had made 16 arrests during the past season, These violations were among the tongers who paid their fine without quibbling. He thinks the prospect for oysters next year was never better. Capt. Downey has made a faithful officer.

STRANGE STORY OF A PEARL

Interstate commerce between Maryland and New York is involved in the strange story of a pearl that was found and lost and found again by John Williams, an oyster dealer.

Some three week ago Williams attended an oyster supper at the home of a friend. In one of the oysters he found a large, oval-shaped pearl, with a peculiar little red spot in one end. Its value was estimated to be about $200. A week later he went to visit his father at the old home in Weston, Md. He lost the pearl in the yard the day before he left for New York. His father raises chickens for the market, and many of his customers are in New York and vicinity.

Last Sunday night Williams entered the butcher shop of Henry Liefer, in Linden avenue, Jersey City. He ordered two chickens, and as the butcher dressed them a large pearl fell out on the block. Williams at a glance recognized the jewel he had lost in Maryland. Liefer scouted the idea and refused to give it up. When the crate in which the chickens had been shipped was brought up it bore the name and address of Williams' father in Weston, Md.

Liefer claims that as Williams has not yet paid for the chickens the pearl is his property. Williams declares that he will go to law with the question unless the butcher restores the pearl to him.

His remains were brought to his late home in Kent county, Del., where funeral services were held on Thursday, April 26th, conducted by his late pastor, Rev. E. H. Collins, of Marydel, Md. Interment was made at St. Pauls cemetery. The following were the respective pall bearers: Dr. W. Frank Smith, Frank Leaverton, Bertie Brouch, William Clark, J. W. Atkinson, Charles Atkinson. Gone but not forgotten,
Sweet bud of earth's wilderness, rifled and torn!
Fond eyes have wept o'er thee, fond hearts still will mourn;
The spoiler hath come with his cold withering breath.
And the loved and the cherished lies silent in death.
He felt not the burden and heat of the day,
He has passed from this earth, and it sorrows away.
With the dew of the morning yet fresh on his brow,
Sweet bud of earth's wilderness where art thou now?
And oh! do you question with tremulous breath,
Why the joy of your household lies silent in death?
Do you mourn round the place of your perishing dust?
Look onward and upward with holier trust!

By his wife.

"Ah, yes! the hour has come when thou must hasten home,
Pure soul to him who calls,
The God who gave thee breath
Walks by the side of death
And naught that step appals.

By Annie.

He shall sleep but not forever,
There will be a glorious dawn,
We shall meet to part no more
On the resurrection mourn!

By Mary.

Dearest husband thou has left us,
And our loss we deeply feel
But tis God who has bereft us
He can all our sorrows heal.

LEGAL HOLIDAY.

WEDNESDAY, May 30th, being Decoration day, and a legal holiday, the Kent County Savings Bank will be closed. All paper maturing on this day may be attended to the following day.
