are all ready for you.

The new styles are very handsome—more attractive than usual, we think—and you know from long trading here that this store always gives its patrons the best at fair and satisfactory prices.

The Shapes Are Such

That Most Any Man Can

as the Lord made some men slimmer than they really ought to be, or taller, or shorter, or stouter, or both slimmer and taller, slimmer and shorter, stouter and taller, or shorter and stouter. Nevertheless the man who's built in an unusal sort of way doesn't feel like accepting his proportions as an excuse for ill-fitting garments.

Come In And Let Us Show

You How We Can Fit You and the cost will be an agreeable surprise for our large output enables us to submit prices materially under smaller dealers. EVERY PIECE OF MERCHANDISE IN OUR ESTABLISHMENT IS MARKED IN PLAIN FIGURES, which makes trading here very satisfactory and an assurance of no partiality. Come look the line over while the assortment is complete.

Silver Service Completed.—The silver service for presentation to the cruiser Maryland on behalf of the people of this State has been completed by Messrs. Samuel Kirk & Company, Baltimore, and was viewed by the cruiser commission Monday. Col. Wm. J. Vanort was a member of the commission from Kent County and sent several sketches. The presentation is expected to be made Thursday, May 31. In the dssigns for the service the makers have endeavored to keep in mind the importance of the conditions and history surrounding such an undertaking. Almost every part and section of the State has played some important part in the history of the nation.

Dealing generally with the designs, the forms are simple and graceful, conveying the idea of hospitality and plenty, two things for which the State has been noted. The principal features of the decorations are national, naval, nautical and marine. Second in importance is the Great Seal of Maryland. On every piece is what is known as a border of invention and progress, illustrating numerous important events in which Maryland and its citizens have been pioneers.

Two serving waiters represent Kent county, the principal scene being Capt. Smith's voyage up the bay in the Shallop in 1608. The others are of Washington College, Claiborne's fort on Kent Island Caulk's field monument, the "Rock of Ages," the Independent Unitarian Church, the Courthouse at Chestertown and St. Paul's.

The scenes in Queen Anne's county include Blakeford, now the home of Mr. De Coursey W. Thom. The site was once an Indian settlement and afterward Fort Blakeford, which was built from the material of a house which stood on the site. The home was also occupied by Gov. Robert Wright, who was also a captain of the Continental forces and a Senator. Other scenes are the Wye home of Governor Paca, on the Wye river; the courthouse at Centreville and the Hemsley house, known as Clover Fields, the old home of William Hemsley, who was a member of the Continental Congress and a commissary during the Revolution.

Re-Elected—The Kent County school board organized Tuesday by re electing Mr. W. B. Copper, president and Prof. Milton Melvin secretary and examiner. Prof. Melvin is the right man in the right place and has succeeded in bringing the schools to a higher plane of usefulness and efficiency. The Board consists of President, W. B. Copper, Dr. W. F. Hines and Mr. Purnell Jump.

A $1,000 Team.—Mr. James Willis turned out this week in a new Waterloo carriage and double set of harness, purchased of Wm. Medders, driving his handsome pair bays. The outfit was estimated to be worth an even $1,000.

Something Just as Good. — Mrs. Hicks—Tom, I've just heard that the grocer's wife has a baby, a sweet little girl. Mr. Hicks—A girl, eh! Well, if that isn't hard luck. He's had a sign in his window, "Boy Wanted," for the last week.
