STILL POND, - - MARYLAND

ROCK HALL ITEMS.

We are glad of the reappointment of Capt. Jim Downey as deputy commander of this district. It means at least two years more of faithful police duty on Swan Point and adjacent oyster bars.

On his arrival home from work a few evenings ago, Mr. Jack Boyer, saw a sight that is calculated to bring forth cuss words of no uncertain sound, viz: a large and finely growing cabbage tillage was almost completely destroyed by cattle which had broken through the fence of an adjoining field, Jack, however, posessed his soul in patience and no doubt the owner of the cattle, who is much blessed with this world's goods, will reimburse the poor fellow for his loss.

Mr. George B. Sewell was taken to city on board of one of the local gasoline boats on Snuday morning to enter the hospital to be treated for appendicitis. He was accompanied by his physician, Dr. W. O. Selby. Mr. Sewell was in a precarious condition and could not be operated upon before Tuesday forenoon. At this writing little hope is entertained for his recovery.

The Assessors of this district are making good progress in their work. B. J. A. seems to be timid in his approach to property owners. He carries a piece of a curtain roller with which he taps his standing gear that his courage may not fail. Throw your stick away, Ben; everybody is anxious to meet you on the level.

Capt. Bob. Hynson returned from a Baltimore hospital on Wednesday to his home in Piney Neck. We are sorry to report that he is very little improved.

The 87th anniversary of the institution of Odd Fellowship in America and the 16th anniversary of the institution of Maxwell Lodge No. 27 I. O. O. F. was opened on Wednesday evening with a short business session of the lodge, followed with a supper of splendid menu Then followed oratory, song, music and other delightful features. Past Grand, J. A. Greenwood, made the address of welcome which captivated the large audience and made every one feel perfectly at home. The musical feature was in charge of Miss Anna Leary, who was ably assisted by Misses Julia Burgess, Agnes and Hattie Lewis, Mrs. Bessie Leary, Rev. J. W. Parris, and Mr. M. T. Miller. One of the most interesting features of the occasion was a broom drill by 14 young ladies under the supervision of Prof. J. A. Greenwood, principal of our high school. Much disappointment was felt owing to the failure of the Grand Lodge officials to arrive, their non-appearance was due to the illness of Grand Sec'y Wm. A. Jones, who sent a telephone message to that effect. Rev, J. W. Parris made reply to the address of welcome with well chosen remarks. This anniversary celebration has gone down into history as one of the very best in the experience of Maxwell Lodge.

Duling and his force of workman have already finished work on the outside.

The following resolutions of respect have been passed upon the death of Jas. T. Ferguson, by members of the M. E. Sunday school.

WHEREAS, The great and supreme ruler of the universe, has, in his infinite wisdom removed our esteemed young friend James T. Ferguson, who was for some time a member of the Asbury Methodist Sunday school, we feel it eminently befitting that we record our appreciation of a young life whose influence among us was for good in the cause of Christ, therefore.

Resolved, That the sudden removal of such a bright and interesting member of our Sunday School, even though he had been called away to other scenes to fight the battle of life—leaves a vacancy and shadow which will be deeply realized by the members of our school; therefore,

Resolved, That with deep sympathy for the bereaved relatives of the deceased, we express our hope that even so great a loss may be over-ruled by Him who doeth all things well.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be placed on the records of our Sunday school and a copy of the same forwarded to his mother and sister.

Now About the New Corsets

While a season changes everything in fashion from a woman's hat to her shoe, the most radical change this season has been in the corset. Past modes have been laid aside. Diagonal seam corsets are on the wane. Every figure that can be, is moulded into a slimmer tapering waist, with higher bust effect; a drooped, close-fitting hip; a comfortable easy bust, with plenty of room for natural breathing space. That, in a word, is the science of the new corsets. Needless to say that an unusual number of shapes are essential.

The store is at the very pinnacle of best in style and number of models. No pains have been spared to bring ultra-best, as well as most accurate in line and fit.

There are several points to be studied in the intelligent selection of a corset. Individuality above all; and to some extent the gown that is to be draped over it. Whether it be Princess frock, Princess girdle or Princess effect, the right corset is to be found here.

Corsets for such are longer below the waist, almost a skirt. There are specially tractable, clinging materials for this sort of corset. The lines, the boning, indeed the entire corset, is modeled to give longer slimness to the waist.

But there's a corset here for every style of gown or suit, and for every figure. The range for choice is wider than in any other—it is merely a question as to preference.

Gretchen Corsets are ours exclusively—and we are proud of them.

Redfern Corsets are in high favor with "dressy" women.

R & G Corsets are excellent—and there are the P. N., Royal Worcester, Nemo, Warner's Rustproof, Thomson's Glove Fitting, American Lady and W. B. Nuform.

Ferris, Equipoise Waists and H. W. Waists, Ferris Bust Supporters, H. W. Brassieres, Ideal Waists for Children, Hose Supporters, Bust Forms, Sachets, Silk and Tape Girdles and Silk and Linen Laces.

This is a complete corset store—you should kno it.

Our Mail Order Department is equipped to give prompt and accurate service The McCall Bazaar of Fashions will be mailed free every month on request. Samples of Silks, Dress Goods, Wash Fabrics and so on will be cheerfully sent if you will write for them.

Prices Pulsating With Economy

The new goods—dainty, delicate, desirable—the harbingers of this season's fashions, fads and fancies. Without style, a garment is nothing in the eyes of any self-respecting woman. She looks, also, for service and economy. Some greater writer has said: "The nearest approach to heaven on this earthly sphere is experienced by the woman happy in the knowledge that she is well gowned." And it is hardly necessary to say that the trinity, "Style, Service, Economy." are important features in her dress, skirt, waist, or what-article of wear she may be looking for. Journey hither, to the benefit of your pocket-book.
