are all ready for you.

The new styles are very handsome—more attractive than usual, we think—and you know from long trading here that this store always gives its patrons the best at fair and satisfactory prices.

The Shapes Are Such

That Most Any Man Can

as the Lord made some men slimmer than they really ought to be, or taller, or shorter, or stouter, or both slimmer and taller, slimmer and shorter, stouter and taller, or shorter and stouter. Nevertheless the man who's built in an unusal sort of way doesn't feel like accepting his proportions as an excuse for ill-fitting garments.

Come In And Let Us Show

You How We Can Fit You

and the cost will be an agreeable surprise for our large output enables us to submit prices materially under smaller dealers. EVERY PIECE OF MERCHANDISE IN OUR ESTABLISHMENT IS MARKED IN PLAIN FIGURES, which makes trading here very satisfactory and an assurance of no partiality. Come look the line over while the assortment is complete.

LIVE LOCAL NOTES

Sold Out.—Max Freed, who has been merchandising in Piney Neck, has sold his stock of goods and horse and wagon for $1,000 to Mr. Lum Ashley, who will embark in the business. Mr. Freed expects to remove to Baltimore.

Box of Peaches.—Mr. Edgar Strong sent to the News office on Wednesday a box of twigs from his peach orchard on Grey's Inn creek. These twigs were filled with healthy peaches. Mr. Strong says he never saw a brighter outlook for plenty of fruit.

Cannery Closed.—The Numsen Cannery at the steamboat wharf will not be operated this season. The machinery was removed this week and shipped by boat to Charles county. The building has been recommended as an excellent place for the broom factory.

Farm Sold.—Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gears have sold their farm of 171 acres, near Fairlee, to Mr. Mellott, of Kansas, for $5,000. Mr. Gears expects to remove his family to Baltimore.

Removes to Town.—Mr. M. M. Rasin has rented the Dr. S. E. Ford home, on High street, and will remove his family to Chestertown June 1st. Mr. Rasin and his popular wife and children will receive a cordial welcome. Dr. S. E. Ford has removed to his newly purchased Wroth house, on Washington avenue.

A Good Thing.—The town sprinkler was started on Monday, and Driver John Latham has done good work. It has been a pleasure to every resident in Chestertown and greatly appreciated. Its a good thing, Messrs. Commissioners—keep it going. About 19,000 gallons of water were used on the streets Tuesday.

Week Day Schedule.—The Pennsylvania Railroad schedule for week days, beginning Monday, is quite an improvement over the present time table. The trains leave Chestertown at 7.40 A. M. and 2.32 P. M., arriving at 10.46 A. M. and 6 P. M. The Sunday train leaves Chestertown at 7.27 A. M. and 4.04 P. M. The freight train leaves Chestertown daily at 10.30 A. M.

Married.—Mr. William T. Bramble and Miss Ethel D. Coleman were quietly married at Chestertown M. E. parsonage Wednesday evening by Rev. W. L. White. The groom, who is employed in the composing room of the Enterprise, is an industrious, upright young man, while the bride is the attractive daughter of Rev. Wm. B. Coleman. After the ceremony they went to their new home on Quaker ave.

Soft Crabs.—Mail Driver Scoone, of Rock Hall, has been supplying Chestertown citizens with soft crabs this week at 40 cents per dozen. Mr. Chas. Kirby caught a dozen in Chester river on Monday.

The Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, in New York, has succeeded in placing a contract direct with Patuxent crabbers so that they are now enabled to sell them to customers at $1.50 per pair!

"Who Said Rats?"—Mr. J. E. Ferguson assisted by his neighbors and others killed 27 rats one day this week at his stable on High street. Mr. W. W. Hubbard on Washington avenve also captured a cage full. The belt, however is held out of town. "Uncle" Charlie Lindsay, the well-known Quaker Neck resident and jig dancer, with a dog and another man, killed 270 rats in one day and a-half on Mr. Henry Brown's farm below Pomona. Dr. C. R. Twilley has perhaps caught the biggest rat in this section, as he captured one a few nights ago about the size of a big kitten.

Accidents.—Mr. Thomas B. Elliott, while papering a room at Crumpton on Friday, fell from the scaffold and injured his side. His son has arrived from Baltimore to assist him in his work.

Mr. Thomas N. McGinnes, residing on the Travilla farm, Morgnec, met with a painful accident Friday afternoon. While engaged in sawing wood with a circular saw his right hand was caught and all four fingers and thumb severed at the knuckles. Drs. H. Bauge Simmons and H. L. Dodd rendered surgical attention, and at last reports the unfortunate man was doing well.

Mr. George W. McWhorter has suffered considerably this week with an injured hand.

Base Ball.—Washington College took the second game of the championship series at College Park, Saturday by defeating Maryland Agricultural College in a sharply contested game by the score of 3 to 1. The Washington College boys found Dixon a comparatively easy proposition, while Wilson at all stages of the game was an enigma for the farmers, who only secured one scratch hit off his delivery and that in the first inning.

The features of the game were Wilson's pitching and the catching of L. Moore, who did not have a passed ball or a base stolen on him.

Washington College plays the final game of the series with St. John's College today on the home grounds. The standing of the league race is as follows:

	W.	L.	Pct.
Washington College	2	0	1.000
St. John's College	1	1	.500
Md. Agricultural College	1	1	.500
Western Md. College	0	2	.000

For the Children

To succeed these days you must have plenty of grit, courage, strength. How is it with the children? Are they thin, pale, delicate? Do not forget Ayer's Sarsaparilla. You know it makes the blood pure and rich, and builds up the general health in every way.

The children cannot possibly have good health unless the bowels are in proper condition. Correct any constipation by giving small laxative doses of Ayer's Pills. All vegetable, sugar-coated.

In a certain village church the congregation had been greatly disturbed during the hymns by woman who would persistently gossip. The minister devised a plan to stop this disturbance. At a given signal every one in the choir was to stop singing. One of the offenders, unable to check herself, was heard to say in a loud tone, "I always fry mine in lard." "As we now know," announced the minister, "that she fries in lard, we will proceed with the hymn."—Easton Gazette.

A Kent Countain.—Miss Bertha Whaland Wins Honor.—Of the 124 members of the graduating class of the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy, which held its eighty-fifth annual commencement last week in the Academy of Music, there were two who received the honorary degree of distinguished graduate, and one of these two was a young woman, Miss Bertha Whaland.

Miss Whaland, carried off the highest honors of the class, taking three prizes besides the unusually high degree of distinguished graduate. She won the Kappa Psi Fraternity prize of $20 in gold offered by the Eta Chapter to the graduate making the highest general average during the three-year course at the college. The pharmacy prize, a gold medal offered by Prof. Joseph P. Remington for original pharmaceutical work, went to this accomplished young woman, as did also the microscopical research prize, a Zentmayer microscope, offered by Prof. Henry Kraemer for the best thesis involving microscopal research.

She also received honorable mention in connection with the theoretical pharmacy prize, a troemner agate prescription balance, offered by Mahlon N. Kline for the best examination in theory and practice of pharmacy, which was awarded the only other distinguished graduate besides Miss Whaland—George S. DuBois.

Miss Whaland is a Marylander, and comes from good old Maryland stock, having been born in Chestertown, Kent county, where she lived in her early girlhood and where her father, Albert Constable Whaland, practiced law. Her grandfather, the late Dr. T. W. Whaland, was a prominent physician in Kent county and her maternal grandfather was the late Wm. Welch, State Senator from that county. His wife, Mrs. H. L. Welch, Miss Whaland's grandmother, who was a Miss Staples, of Cecil county, and who is closely related to the Nolands and other prominent families of Delaware and Maryland, still reside at Chestertown. Miss Whaland won a scholarship at the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy when she graduated from the high school of that city. She is a niece of Mrs. Henry Carville, and a cousin of Henry P. Hynson, of Baltimore and niece of Dr. C. W. Whaland, of Chestertown.
