STILL POND, - - MARYLAND

LAMBERT'S NEW RIVERSIDE HOTEL.

ROCK HALL ITEMS.

The terrible dusty condition of the roads and a failure to get together on conveyances, proved a knock out to the purpose of the secret benevolent orders of this town, to attend divine service at Wesleyan M. P. church on Sunday.

At the M. E. church on Sunday morning the large congregation were treated to an able sermon by Pastor Burr on the "Compassion of Jesus." At the evening service he preached a special sermon to young men. Tomorrow evening he will preach to the Senior Class of our High School.

The annual commencement exercises of the High School will take place on the 19th, at which time Hon. M. Bates Stephens will deliver the address to the graduating class. The faculty, pupils and patrons are looking forward to this occasion with fond anticipations.

Our people are not disposed to take much stock in the report about the new assessment law. The time to kick was before the assessors did their work, the fellow that knows so much now knew just as much weeks ago no doubt. Why didn't he kick then?

Mr. Charly Creighton, who was injured at Sparrows Point some time ago, is now able to hobble about on crutches.

Purse net fishermen of this place started out this week on their summer's work. They hope for better luck this season than they had last season.

Scores of our people were loud in their expressions of gratitude on Sunday and Monday because of the drouth's end. Life seems more worth living this week even the beasts of the field and vegetation seem imbued with gratefulness.

Cherries are ripe, and birds are feasting much to the annoyance of our friend Mr. Jack Collison who is kept busy fighting the birds off.

Merchants here report an increase of trade over April.

Contractor Mc Closky successfully moved the East Neck School house and out buildings up to Edesville the past week under the supervision of Superintendent Melvin.

Mr. J. A. Casy has secured the services of an up-to-date baker, who is now installed in the bakery in place of the one recently resigned.

Durding Bros. are applying a fresh coat of paint to the exterior of Alexander's department store.

Quite a number of our residents observed Decoration ceremonies on Wednesday at the M. P. cemetery. The Odd Fellows will observe Memorial Day ceremonies on Saturday June 2nd over the graves of their dead.

SASSAFRAS ITEMS.

Childrens Day Services will be held in the Rehoboth M. P. Church on Sunday evening, June 3rd. An elaborate program is being prepared and professionals will assist in the singing.

Master Frederick W. Shibles, of New York, has been visiting his uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander T. Laws for the past fortnight.

Children's Day was most beautifully observed on Sunday evening last in the M. P. Church at Warwick. Our organist here, Mrs. John F. Ernest assisted in the singing, the children did beautifully, Miss Bessie Gunkie one of our amatuers in music is greatly to be complimented for her beautiful solo assisted by her brother, Mr. Andrew Reynolds.

Capt. Andrew Woodall's death to this community was a severe loss, he was a gentleman of many fine traits and a conscientious good man, a man of keen judgement and sterling integrity, he made success of all his undertakings due to his good common sense supplemented by economy and an unwavering attention to business details. God blessed him and protected him these many years for his goodness to the poor. He was so kind and good to his fellowmen and was never known to do one mean act, surely a good man has gone, to know him was to truly appreciate him. He was very fond and devoted to his children and grand-children and they were all most devoted and dutiful to him. His children and relatives have our warmest and most sincere sympathy in their great sorrow but they have a sweet thought that one is safe he has gone "Home." His funeral was held from his late home at Georgetown on Tuesday afternoon last and interment in Westminster Presbyterian Cemetery near his late home, his six grand-sons were bearers. His funeral was most largely attended, it was eslimated that over 500 people were in attendance.

The death of Mr. J. Z. Staats, a well-known resident of Townsend, died in Philadelphia on Thursday last after an illness of five weeks, Mr. Staats married a sister of Mr. John F. Ernest, of this town who survives him with three daughters, he leaves a sister Mrs. Jas. Davis' near town, and two brothers, Mrs. William Staats, of this town, and Mr. Jacob Staats, of near Fairlee, to mourn his loss. Some weeks ago Mr. Staats was operated on for a tumor on his limb and his friends here all thought he was recovering, his death came as a great shock. His funeral took place from his late residence in Townsend on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, interment in the cemetery near the church, his family has the sympathy of the whole community.

THE baseball team of Washington College, robbed of Wilson and Moore, went into the game against St. John's in a crippled condition Saturday, and were defeated by the score of 10 to 3. This makes these two teams tie for first place.

ELIJAH STRICKLAND'S restaurant, on Calvert street, took fire yesterday morning, but was discovered in time to prevent serious damage.

THE LADIES STORE—H. F. JEFFERSON—CHESTERTOWN, MD.

Prices Pulsating With Economy

The new goods—dainty, delicate, desirable—the harbingers of this season's fashions, fads and fancies. Without style, a garment is nothing in the eyes of any self-respecting woman. She looks, also, for service and economy. Some greater writer has said: "The nearest approach to heaven on this earthly sphere is experienced by the woman happy in the knowledge that she is well gowned." And it is hardly necessary to say that the trinity, "Style, Service, Economy," are important features in her dress, skirt, waist, or whatarticle of wear she may be looking for. Journey hither, to the benefit of your pocket-book.
