VOL. 68. CHESTERTOWN, MD., SATURDAY, JUNE 9, 1906. NO. 1

RIGHT IN IT!

GET IN THE RING.

We are now ready for the Spring and Summer with the best line of Clothing for Men, Boys and Children that we've ever had, and to the few who do not know about the superiority of our Clothing we say, GET IN THE RING! A suit from us will cost you perhaps a trifle less than if bought elsewhere; it will fit you better, and retain that same style and shape that you pay double the price for at the tailor shop. Grays are the leading shades this season—a very serviceable color, too—and we have plenty of them to show you. Our line of Spring Trowsers for Men and Boys is up to its old-time standard—the best and largest in town.

Hats and Caps—we have hats for particular men—men who are hard to suit—because we have them in all shapes and styles. Derbys, Slouches, Crushes and Straws, in all the latest shades and patterns.

If you want the best half hose on earth, we sell the interwoven heel and toe that wear just twice as long as any ordinary hose. We have the sole right to sell this hose in Chestertown.

Yours for business,

J. D. LUCAS.

$4.90

For a Fine, All Wool Cassimere Suit : : :

More than $1000 worth of All Wool Cassimere Suits, ranging in price from $8.00 to $16.00, will be SACRIFICED for the trifling price of $4.90.

These suits were left from last season, but you would never know it except they haven't the "vent" in back of coat. I positively will not carry one of these suits over to another season, as the remarkably low price of $4.90 for a suit worth anywhere from $8.00 to $16 00, ought certainly to move every one of them during the month of June. The best bargain to the earliest purchaser. This is an unprecedented price—an unprecedented opportunity—and if you are wise you will take advantage of it.

I have just opened, direct from New York City, $2,500 worth of the Newest and Latest Style Suits that money will buy, and if you are looking for a new, nobby and stylish suit, at the very lowest possible price, we invite your attention to this up-to-date line.

Respectfully,

THOS. S. BORDLEY.

TAX RATE FIXED.

By Good Management the Rate is not Increased—State Tax Reduction Does not go into Effect until Next Year.

The County Commissioners for Kent county sitting in special session Monday and Wednesday declared the tax rate for the coming year to be $1.15 on the hundred dollars. The commissioners have managed the county's affairs in a most economical and careful manner and it was because of such conduct of the finances of the county that the tax rate was kept down to that of last year.

The roads of the county never were in better condition than at present and the Board has been liberal with the schools, levying $20,000 for their use and $4,000 for improvements, an increase of $1 000 over last year. New bridges have been built and roads widened for the public's benefit, notwithstanding which, the rate is not made any higher.

The Commissioners provide a cash levy of $41,583.64 which is a slight increase over last year and more than $16,000 over the previous year, thus showing the progress toward a cash basis. The basis of taxation is $8,070,113.48; amount levied $92,806.30. The State tax is 23½, the decrease of 7 cents not going into effect until next year.

PUBLIC OFFICIALS PRAISED

An Unusual But Highly Proper and Commendable Action—Give Credit to Whom It Is Due.

On May 21, 1906, the quarterly conference of Wesleyan Chapel, Methodist Protestant Church, in meeting assembled passed the following:

WHEREAS, executive officers are so frequently indifferent to the demands of an outraged public, and

WHEREAS, it is so difficult to secure sufficient evidence for conviction; therefore,

Resolved, That we do hereby record our high appreciation of the faithful services rendered during the present term of the court by the Grand Jury in the indictment and by Judge J. A. Pearce and State's Attorney W. W. Beck in the prosecution and conviction of certain individuals in the county for the sale of intoxicating liquors.

Resolved further, That we do hereby call upon the several churches of the county to give like endorsement to this noble response made to the demands of an outraged Christian public.

Resolved further, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to each of the local papers for publication and a copy each to the Judge and State's Attorney aforenamed.

Signed by order and in behalf of the above named body.

J. W. PARRIS, Chairman.
M. T. MILLER, Secretary.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

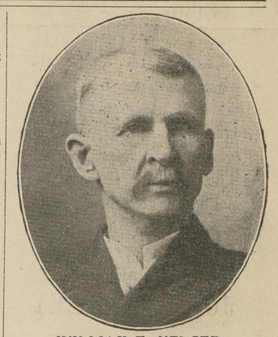

Mrs. Sarah Williamson Emory, widow of late William Emory, of Spaniards Neck, Queen Anne's, died at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. Robert Brice Massey, Sudlersville, last Saturday, in her 73rd year. She was the daughter of the late Sam'l Comegys, and Mary Ringgold, of Kent County. She leaves John Comegys, of Montana, Dr. Comegys, of Millington, Alexandria Comegys, of Middletown, Sam'l Comegys, of Queen Anne's and Williamson R. and E. T. Comegys, of Kent; her sisters are Mrs. Mollie Ireland, Miss Millie Comegys. She leaves five children, viz., Wm. C. and Samuel C. Emory, of Queen Anne's; Mrs. Mary Hines, wife of Dr. W. F. Hines, of Chestertown; Mrs. Nannie Massey, wife of R. B. Massey, and Miss Alice Emory, of Queen Anne's. The deceased was a woman of strongest religious convictions, a fond mother, kind neighbor and bore her long suffering with grace and patience.

The funeral took place Monday interment at Centreville, Revs. Hepbron, Stehl and Mitchell, officiating. The bearers were four brothers and Frank and Addison Emory, brothers of deceased husband.

The funeral of Capt. R. S. Emory took place last Sunday afternoon from his late home on Chester river and was attended by an unusual crowd of relatives and friends, attesting the high esteem in which he was held. Dr. H. B. Martin and Rev. E. B. Taylor officiated. Beautiful selections were sung by Mrs. A. A. Harris, Mrs. Mary Roberts, Prof. E. J. Clarke and Mr. Thomas W. Perkins. The bearers were Judge James A. Pearce, Richard D. Hynson, James H. Baker, Dr. C. P. Gilpin, Allan A. Harris, Wm. H. Cacy, Thomas Emory, and Francis Emory.

SUDDEN DEATH OF GEORGE TUCKER.

George Tucker, 75 years old, one of the best known residents of Dover, dropped dead Wednesday, while attending the funeral of his sister-in-law, at Church Hill. Mr. Tucker left Dover Tuesday with a party of friends and drove to the funeral of Mrs. Thomas Tucker, his death appeared to depress him, and after breakfast next morning he walked out and fell dead before the house, from which the corpse of his relative had been carried. He leaves three descendants, John W. Tucker, of Elkton, Md., Wm. Tucker, of Los Angeles, Cal., and Mrs. J. L. Bonsall, Jr., of Dover.

WILLIAM E. KEYSER,
The New Treasurer of Kent County.

LIVE LOCAL NOTES

HARVEST next Saturday.

CHERRIES are plentiful.

BETTERTON is looking prettier than ever.

SOME fine land is to be sold in Chestertown next Tuesday.

"SHEEP," caught a 17-inch rock off Chester bridge Saturday.

THE St. John's cadets numbering over a hundred are encamped at Tolchester and will remain there until Monday.

THE schools of the county will be closed Tuesday, June 19th, in honor of the exercises at Washington College and to the visit of Gov. Warfield.

THE Chestertown Strawboard mill will likely resume operations July 1st. New boilers, &c., are being installed and the machinery overhauled generally.

THE supper at Bond church this week was superb. The menu included fried chicken, soft crabs, fish, pig, salads, &c., &c. Mr. James Walbert's floral decorations attracted considerable attention.

THE contract for the bridge over Chesteryille branch has been awarded to Walter T. Pippin, of Chestertown, the bids being as follows: Walter T. Pippin $450; Canton Bridge Co. $626; York Bridge Co. $620.

Two 10-year-old boys from the Chestertown public school walked to Tolchester one day last week and were about to board the boat for Baltimore when apprehended by a friend of their parents. They were brought home and punished for their conduct.

"DEWEY PARK," that ideal love spot on the Sassafras river will open for the summer next Wednesday, June 13th. It will be under the same wise management of Shallcross & Massey, which guarantees good conduct and likewise a good time to all who visit the resort.

THE name of the steamer Emma A. Ford having been changed to "Love Point", it is said that the B. S. Ford will be changed to "Chestertown," and the latter will run up the Chester river during the summer.

June Drop.—The "June Drop" is on in earnest. It looks as if a big healthy peach way up on the top branch had said, "now, altogether, while the ground beneath us is nice and soft on which to fall." There are plenty of fruit left, however.

Farm Sold.—Marion deK. Smith, Esq., attorney, sold at public sale Tuesday the Hepbron farm, near Kennedyville, containing 279 acres, for $6,800. The Visitors and Governors of Washington College were the purchasers from whom it may be purchased at private sale.

Horse Notes.—Mr. Alday Clements has purchased the grandly bred trotting stallion, Maplewood Norval, record 2.23¼, sired by the great Norval 2 14¼, with 100 in 2,30 list, best son of the wonderful sire, Electioneer. 1st dam, Lulie J. 4 in 2 30 list, by the great producer Onward, 186 in the 2:30 list; 2nd dam, Lottie Wall, dam of 2 in 2;30 list, by Strathmore, the great brood mare producer, with 90 in 2:30 list; 3rd dam, Clara G. by Pacing Abdallah; 4th dam, Lottie, dam of 1 in 2:30 list, by Parson Abdallah, son of Abdallah 15. Maplewood Norval should be a great stock horse for this county.

Bankers' Meeting.—Preparations are being made by the officials of the Maryland Bankers' Association for the annual convention to be held on June 19th, 20th and 21st at Ocean City. The sessions are being held in the early summer this year in order that they may be over before the annual meeting of the American Bankers' Convention, which is always well attended by State bankers. Messrs. Alday Clements, Capt. Curtis E. Crane, Allan A. Harris and W. W. Chapman are the delegates from the Chestertown Bank of Maryland.

Snakes.—A well-known lady of Chestertown was horrified a short time ago to find a snake coiled upon her stairs. She thought it a carpet raveling and started to pick it up when away ran the reptile. The lady ran down stairs as fast as the snake and upon reaching the kitchen told the colored cook about it, to which the cook innocently remarked, "do you have them often!" The man of the house afterward arrived, found the snake and killed it. It had been accidentally brought in from the garden in a carpet.

Mr. James Dunbracco in opening the freight house doors at the Chester river wharf Monday night dislodged a big snake which coiled itself about his left arm! Mr. D. yelled from fright and threw the reptile off. A negro standing near took refuge behind his wagon!

Married.—A very quiet and pretty wedding took place last Wednesday eve., June 6th 1906 at 7 o'clock at the Kennedyville Parsonage by Rev. Albert Jamison. The contracting parties were Mr Clarence W. Fowler and Miss Rebecca T. Newcomb, of Worton. A reception took place at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Sam'l Newcomb. Only the relatives were in attendance. Quite a number of beautiful and useful presents were received.
