LOCAL MATTERS

On the Snow.—The fine sleighing on High street has afforded excellent chance for speeding the flyers during the past week, and many have taken advantage of the sport. Among the fast ones seen were Wm. C. Townsend, Barrett Smith, R. F. Parks, Robert J. McWhorter, Julian Jones, Earle Nicholson, Mrs. J. Biddle Hossinger, Wm. T. Nicholson, Frank Miller, Wm. T. H. Whiteley, Charles Nicholson, Capt. W. C. A. Thompson, Kennard Aldridge, Dick Titter, Louis Lane, Mr. Bramble, and numerous others with fine turnouts.

New Tenants.—Mr. D. B. Stewart, of Baltimore, was in Kent and spent the first week of the New Year with friends. While here he appointed Messrs. Jones and Leaverton (H. Raymond Jones and Howard S. Leaverton) managers of his White Hall farm near town. These two young men are from two of the best families in the county and will make aggressive and up-to-date farmers and they will be welcomed in their new home and neighborhood. We congratulate them as well as Mr. Stewart in securing their services.

County Commissioners And Road Engineer Sued.—Mr. Harry T. Richardson through his counsel, S. Scott Beck, Esq., has sued the Board of County Commissioners and Road Engineer Isaac Gibbs for $150 damage for injures to his horse sustained on the public road near Lankford some months ago. The commissioners and engineer have been notified to appear here on Monday morning to answer. Hope H. Barroll, Esq., counsel, will represent the commissioners. This case will prove interesting as it will determine the responsibility for accidents on our county roads under the engineer system.

Big Timber Contract.

Mr. A. S. Turner, the hustling grain, farm implement and carriage dealer, has assumed a new role, and is now a full fledged lumber dealer. Mr. Turner has recently contracted with Mr. Andrew Vansant, of near Galena, to cut 8 carloads of hickory and white ash logs which he has purchased from Mr. Walter T. Morris' Churn Creek farm, and Mr. Vansant now has six men in the woods cutting the logs. Mr. Turner has sold the logs to a big spoke factory in Pennsylvania. He has also contracted with Mr. Edward Newton to cut 3,000 railroad ties from the same woods for the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, and Mr. Turner has recently given Mr. George Rash a contract to furnish two carlods of white hickory from the woods on the farm which Mr. Rash recently purchased from Mr. Burris. The woods on Churn Creek farm has proven a profitable investment for Mr. Morris, and Mr. Rash will also turn his woods to profit. Mr. Turner is a hustler, and he will make the lumber business hustle.

Mr. William C. Sutton, the busy plumber, will please accept our thanks for a handsome and useful calendar.

SHORT NEWS ITEMS.

Owing to the force of the gale, and the severity of the cold, only a few people from town attended the first lecture in the course at Washington College, on the "Music Master" given by Mr. Beilharz on Friday evening. Those who heard the lecture say it was splendid.

A light snow on Saturday night afforded fair sleighing on Sunday. Mr. Wm. T. H. Whiteley, one of our popular liverymen, was the first one seen in a sleigh by the TRANSCRIPT reporter. Quite a number tried out their steeds on the pike, and the going has been great.

The steamer B. S. Fordon last Saturday, after making Rock Hall wharf, was compelled to return to Baltimore, on account of the heavy ice which made during Friday night. Quite a number of passangers for Chestertown landed at Rock Hall and hired teams to bring them home.

The Port Deposit weather prophet has recalled his predictions for the weather, and apologizes to the public for his statements. Just as well, as the weather bids fair to kick his predictions to the winds. He predicted a mild winter, with the thermometer at 2° above zero. No wonder he should apologize for his folly.

The Court of Appeals has confirmed the decision of the circuit court for Cecil county directing Joseph Couden, surviving executor of Geo. P. Whitaker, to make distribution of part of the accumulated surplus of the Whitaker estate, the costs to the suit to be paid out of the estate. The amount involved is about $370,000.

The members of the Worton Road Drivers' Association held a preliminary meeting in Stam's Hall on Tuesday to perfect plans for the next season's matinee racing. Another meeting will be held next week. Mr. John Mallalieu, the experienced and capable trainer, will have charge of the track next season, and he will have a finer and much larger string of money winners in his stables.

The plumbers of the town have been kept busy during the week repairing bursted pipes. The severe weather has caused considerable inconvenience and damage. Monday morning was the coldest of the winter, the thermometer registering 2 degrees above zero at the College, and at the home of Hope H. Barroll, Esq. It registered 8 degrees at the home of Judge John H. Simpers and 5 at the home of Postmaster M. W. Thomas on Washington avenue. A cold blast broke out from the northwest early Tuesday morning and sent the thermometer scurrying downward after a rain on Monday night, but it has not reached as low temperature as it did on Monday.

THE GRIM REAPER.

MRS. C. M. MACFARLANE.

Mrs. C. M. MacFarlane, widow of Rev. Wm. R. MacFarlane, of the Wilmington M. E. Conference, and sister of Mrs. Wm. T. Hicks, of this town, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ray Gibbons, near Princess Anne, on Tuesday morning after an illness of ten weeks, aged 63 years. The deceased was well-known in this county, having visited her sister on frequent occasions. She leaves seven children—six daughters and one son.

Funeral services were held in Smyrna, Del., on Thursday conducted by Rev. E. Matthews, an old friend of the family. Mrs. Hicks attended the funeral from Chestertown.

CAPT. S. JACKSON DAVIS.

Capt. S. Jackson Davis, one of the best-known watermen in this section, died at the home of his brother, Mr. George Davis, in South Rock Hall, last Sunday morning at 9 o'clock after a long illness of asthma. Capt. "Jack," as he was familiarly-known, was very popular with a host of friends, and enjoyed the confidence and respect of all who knew him. Capt. Davis was unmarried. He leaves a mother, a brother, Mr. George Davis, and two sisters, Mrs. Charles J. Reiche, of near Pomona, and Mrs. William J. Hudson, of this town. Funeral services were held in Rock Hall M. E. Church at 11 o'clock on Tuesday morning, conducted by Rev. Mr. Corkran. Interment was made in Wesley Chapel cemetery.

LEONARD HYNSON MANN.

Mr. Leonard Hynson Mann died on Monday last at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Mann, near Lynch's, of heart failure and tubercular trouble, aged 21 years. Funeral services were held on Wednesday morning, conducted by Rev. G. A. Morris, pastor of St. James' and Lynch's M. P. churches. Interment was made in Still Pond cemetery. Undertaker Chas. L. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements. The deceased was a member of Camp N. 70, P. O. S. of A. of Worton, and was highly esteemed by all who knew him.

People You Know.

Rev. J. M. Sheridan, president of the Maryland Annual Conference, has the sympathy of the entire conference in the serious illness of his wife. At this time she shows little sign of improvement, but it is hoped that the skilled medical attention and careful nursing given her will result in her recovery. Mrs. Sheridan is the mother of Mrs. Walter T. Morris, of this county.

Miss Rebekah McFeely has been quite sick with a severe cold during the week.

Rev. Francis Little, of Baltimore, was the guest of his parents, Rev. Dr. and Mrs. F. T. Little, a part of last week.

Mrs. Thomas S. Bordley has been poorly during the week, having been suffering with her eyes.

Master Julian Duyer, who has been at the state sanitorium for sometime for the benefit of his health, will enter John Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, next week for an operation for abscess. He has not been doing as well as had been hoped for lately.

Directors Elected.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Third National Bank of Chestertown held on Tuesday morning the following directors were elected for the ensuing year: Hon. James Alfred Pearce, Hope H. Barroll, Wilbur W. Hubbard, Garrett Foxwell, Adam F. Huey, T. Benjamin Durding, Elmer E. Leary, D. Thomas Hurlock, George D. Lofland, L. Wethered Barroll and W. B. Copper. The board organized on Wednesday by electing Judge Pearce president, Hope H. Barroll, vice-president; W. B. Copper, cashier; Eben F. Perkins, teller; Robert Huey, book-keeper; Raymond Wilkins, assistant book-keeper, and Miss Palmer Carroll private secretary to the cashier.

The directors of the Chestertown Bank of Maryland did not fill the vacancy on their board on Wednesday which was caused by the death of Hon. Charles T. Westcott.

Telephone Talks.

The Silver Hill Telephone Company was cut in service on January 5th. This company is located in Quaker Neck and comprises the following subscribers: Wm. J. Maslin, Thomas W. Plummer, D. W. Ingersoll, Walbert & Biddle, Claude M. Blackiston and J. D. Burris. Major John K. Cree and Mr. Thomas J. Davis, two other subscribers will shortly be cut in. The completion of this line takes in nearly the whole Quaker Neck territory, and will no doubt prove a great convenience to the subscribers.

We are informed by Manager Joseph H. Nichols that there are at present 500 stations working on the Chestertown exchange. This service covers practically the entire part of the county below Galena.

Our Advertisers.

A NOVEL DEPARTURE.—The hustling firm of Bordley & Son has instituted something new and novel in the way of business enterprise. In the future every Tuesday will be a big bargain day. This custom has long obtained in the department stores of the cities, and has become a huge success. Read their opening adv. in this issue and note what wonderful bargains can be had.

H. F. Jefferson & Bro's. January Festival of Bargains is on. The prices formerly low are less than formerly. Prove it by reading their big adv. on page 8.

Mr. J. H. Sides, agent will begin shortly a line of attractive advertisements, discussing the value of the Maxwell automobile. This is one of the best machines on the market, and you should consult Mr. Sides as to prices, before placing your 1912 order. Watch his advs. in the TRANSCRIPT.

Great crowds have been taking advantage of the Hub's, Millington's big double stores anniversary sales. If the Hub advertises anything in the TRANSCRIPT, they have it, and it will be to you advantage to try its merits.

Mr. Jacob F. Thompson is the agent for one of the most durable and serviceable automobiles on the market—the Ford. 1912 models of these popular cars are beauties, and their price cannot help striking the fancy of those looking for a serviceable automobile. Mr. Thompson will discuss in advertising form in the Transcript the merits of this automobile, and we advise you to talk with him about them before buying your 1912 car.

Davis & Sattergeld have a fine selection of Portland and Round Back Cutters, which are most useful articles these snowy days. They are the kind that make the racer go faster and the driver look better.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, Maryland, in Equity, No. 1798.

JOSEPH BROWN, Colored,
vs.
James Wright, Carrie Brown, George Brown, Joseph Wright, Joseph Thomas, William Thomas, Sylvester Thomas, Carrie Thomas, Joseph Thomas, Edith Harris Ringgold, George Ringgold, Hester Tiller, Alfred Tiller, Kosora Bright, William Bright, Mary Priscilla Parker, Emma Taylor and all the unknown heirs of Richard Hazzard, colored.

The object of this bill is to procure a decree of this court for the sale of the real estate of Richard Hazzard, colored, deceased, situated in Kent county, Maryland, and for a distribution of the proceeds to the heirs at law. The bill states:

1. That Richard Hazzard, colored, late of Kent county in the State of Maryland, deceased, died many years ago, and at the time of his death was seized and possessed of certain real estate situated, lying and being in the Second Election District of Kent county, Maryland, in that part of said district known as "Big Woods," and containing some 13 acres of land, more or less.

2. That the said Richard Hazzard left surviving him, the following children, namely: Caroline Hazzard, who married William Harris, both of whom are dead, and the said Caroline Hazzard Harris left surviving her, a son, Joseph Brown, the plaintiff, whose wife's name was Sophia Brown, but she is now dead. The said Caroline Hazzard Harris also left a daughter, Elizabeth Brown, who married James Wright. She is dead and left the following children, namely: Carrie Brown, who inter-married with George Brown and Joseph Wright; Annie Brown, who is dead, but who married Joseph Thomas and by him had the following four children, namely: William Thomas, Sylvester Thomas, Carrie Thomas and Joseph Thomas, all adults, and all living in Wilmington, Del.; and a daughter, Edith Harris, who inter-married with George Ringgold, both of whom live in the City of Chester, in the State of Pennsylvania. And the said Caroline Hazzard Harris left a daughter, Aggie Harris, who married Samuel Tillotson; they had two daughters, one Hester Tiller, she married Alfred Tiller, both of whom live in the "Big Woods," and the other daughter of Aggie Harris Tillotson was Kosora, who married William Bright, both of whom also live in the "Big Woods." And the said Richard Hazzard left a daughter by the name of Mary Priscilla Parker, who, your plaintiff is informed, resides in Chester, Pennsylvania. And also Richard Hazzard also left a daughter, Emma Taylor, who, your plaintiff alleges, resides in the city of Philadelphia, in the State of Pennsylvania. And these, your plaintiff alleges, are the only children and heirs at law of the said Richard Hazzard known to him; and it is unknown whether the said Richard Hazzard left any other heirs surviving him.

3. That the said real estate is not susceptible of partition without material loss and injury to the parties entitled to interests therein as above stated, and that in order to make division of said interests it will be necessary for said real estate to be sold and the proceeds divided among the parties entitled thereto according to their several interests therein. It it thereupon, this 11th day of December, 1911, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent county, in equity, that the plaintiff by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper, published in said Kent county, once in each of four successive weeks before the 15th day of January next, giving notice to the said non-resident defendants, Edith Harris Ringgold, George Ringgold, Mary Priscilla Parker and Emma Taylor, and the unknown heirs not named in this proceeding of Richard Hazzard, warning them to appear in this court by person or by solicitor, on or before the 1st day of February next, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
