Accidents.

While out sleighing on Monday afternoon on Morgnec road Mr. J. E. Ferguson's sleigh ran into a "blind rut" in the road and Mr. Ferguson and Mrs. Eben F. Perkins, who was with him, were thrown out. Mrs. Perkins sustained a dislocation of the arm at the elbow. Dr. Hines rendered medical aid. Mrs. Perkins went to Philadelphia on Tuesday morning for X-ray treatment. We are glad to report that she is doing well.

Miss Mettie Loud, one of the popular teachers in Kennedyville school fell on the icy pavements on Friday morning last in Kennedyville while on her way to school. She sustained a compound fracture of the left arm above the wrist. Dr. J. W. Urie set the fracture and Miss Loud returned to her home here on the noon train. She is doing well, though having suffered considerable pain. On account of the severe cold weather and small attendance at school, no substitute has been required at Kennedyville.

During the fine coasting on Eliason's hill, several minor accidents have occured, one llttle boy getting a badly bruised eye, and Miss Marion Horn getting a sprained ankle.

Mr. George Perkins, of Philadelphia, brother of Messrs. Eben F. and Thomas W. Perkins, of this town, had the misfortune to fall on the icy pavements of the Quaker City recently and broke his arm in three places—above the wrist, at the elbow, and near the armpit. Mr. Perkins has been in the hospital, but we are very glad to state that he is improving.

Mrs. John Walter Skirven fell on the ice at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. Stockton Startt, near town, on Thursday and sustained a slight fracture of the small bone in her right wrist. Dr. Frank Smith set the fracture and Mrs. Skirven is getting along finely.

This Speaks for Itself.

Rock Hall, Md., Jan. 15, 1912.
Messrs. Editors:—DEAR SIRS.
I have had the lost satchel and contents returned to me through the prompt efforts of your valuable paper. Mr. Leaverton, of Fairlee, found the satchel, and when your paper arrived, he located where the satchel belonged and returned it to me. Thank you very much.
MRS. GRACE CROUCH.

Is such a nice letter as this worth anything to our advertisers? Mrs. Crouch's advertisement was inserted only once.

Sunday School Lesson.—The TRANSCRIPT has been granted the exclusive use in this county of Pastor Russell's great aids to intelligent Bible Studies. These aids are discriptive of the lessons taught in our Sunday schools every Sunday. They are great aids to all Sunday school teachers and scholars, and the TRANSCRIPT is fortunate to secure this valuable information from such an able divine as Pastor Russell. These lesson helps will appear in no other paper in Kent county except the TRANSCRIPT, and we urge our readers to make a careful study of them. The lesson for to-morrow will be found in another column of this issue.
