THE HUB'S BIG DOUBLE STORES, MILLINGTON, MD.

SPECIAL ANNOUCEMENT

On account of the extremely cold weather, some of my patrons were not able to attend the great ANNIVERSARY SALE. and in order to give every one of my friends an opportunity to participate in the great MONEY SAVING event, we will extend this sale until the end of this month.

NOTICE!

Some people are apt to form a conclusion that because the prices in this adv. are so low that we'll be unable to furnish the goods at the advertised prices. The FACTS are that we never advertise an article unless we have it in stock. It may have happened to you to attend a sale even on the first day and ask for a certain article as advertised and the clerk would tell you sold out. If we advertise it, we have it.

This Sale Will be Continued Until the End of This Month.

Dollars saved are dollars earned. The purchasing power of your dollar is what you make it. If we show you how you can get $2.00 actual value for only one, it's your own fault if you don't take advantage of it. Are you contented to pay regular price for your clothes, when you can come here and make your dollars go twice as far.

Emmanuel Church.—Sunday school at 10; preaching at 11.

Trinity, Millington.—Sunday school at 2; preaching at 3. 7.30 illistrated sermon: Gods and Shrines of the Heathen World.

Stormy weather has been a great hinderanct to church work in the country, nevertheless people ought, at least, to show as much interest in religious matters as in business. It is bad personal and public policy just because the roads are not smooth, or weather a little inclement to "cut out" the public worship of God. The attendance on the public worship of God may be considered in the majority of cases, the thermometer of one's religious possession. The people who ignore the public worship of the Almighty are not community builders; they add nothing to the moral fibre of the growing generation; they are leeches sapping, so far as they can, the vitals of society.

Mr. and Mrs. Gale gave a wild goose supper Tuesday night.

Mrs. Holden has been confined to her home for some time.

Mrs. Chas. Spry, who has been visiting her sister, near Newark, returned Wednesday.

Mr. Jonathan Jones and Miss Daisey Felton spent Monday evening at the parsonage.

Mrs. Adolphus Davis who has been ill for some time is improving.

IN MEMORIAM.

LEONARD HYNSON MANN.

'Twas morning when the Saviour's voice
Called softly, "Come and rest";
He answered sweetly without a sigh,
"My work on earth is finished."

On Monday morning, January 8th, the Master came for Leonard Mann. About three years ago, this youth; who was growing into a giant oak of manhood, was stricken with the great white plague. He made a brave but losing fight. Everything possible was done for his relief and comfort. His was a beautiful spirit. Thro' all his great suffering no murmur of complaint was heard. He bore it with christian grace and patience.

Leonard was a grand young man, a general favorite with everybody, even the colored help on his father's farm. Always of a cheerful, happy disposition, he spoke a good word of everyone. He was a home boy, a mother's boy. Thoughtful and respectfully obedient to his parents he was always. A trait so beautiful to see, but so missing in the majority of our modern youths. Being very fond of out-door sports especially baseball and fox hunting he was always a participant in his well days. It seemed to us that he was needed here, but God saw otherwise. God's Will not ours be done. His death has left a vacant place not only in his home but in the community that can not be filled. But the happy thought, today Leonard is not a sufferer here but a bright shining light beckoning his loved ones and friends on to Glory.

A LOVED ONE.

Opportunity for Farmer's.

Mitchell Bros., of Harford county, by advertisement in this issue are offering to contract with the farmers of this section to grow 500 acres of sugar corn at $12 per ton, they to do the snapping. If the railroad is extended to Nicholson's they will locate their packing plant at that point. If not, they will locate their plant in Chestertown, or at any other point most convenient to the largest number of growers. This is a proposition which the farmers will do well to consider, and we advise them to confer with Mitchell Bros. and learn from them just what they propose to do.
