OPPOSITE STAM'S HALL.

JANUARY FESTIVAL OF BARGAINS!

COME!

To show our many patrons how much we appreciate your favors during the past year and how much we desire to serve you well during this great year nineteen twelve, we have prepared for you in our mid-winter sale much genuine merchandise, and you will find

Our Prices Formerly Low, Now Less Than Formerly.

COATS & SUITS!

All Coats and Suits must be sold. The plan we have adopted to reach this end is the following:

$28 Suits are offered at	$20.00
$25 Suits are offered at	18.50
$18, $20 and $22.50 Suits are offered at	15.00
$15 and $16.50 Suits are offered at	12.50
$12.50 Suits are offered at	10.00
Odd Lots, per suit	$5 to $8

Similar reductions made in Coats. Children's Coats will be sold Extremely Low.

HERE'S TO 1912

And ere it passes away, may your troubles cease and your joys increase wearing the J. & K.

Our Shoe Department is no longer A place to get shoes, but rather THE place to be fitted in fine shoes. We will take pleasure in proving this assertion.

We have finished stock-taking to-day, and we find, on account of liberal buying, that many departments should be decreased. Special sales which will be greatly to your advantage will accomplish this result.

☞Visit us early and often. It will pay you.

CHURCH WORK.

Chestertown M. E. Church, Rev. Louis E. Barrett, D. D., pastor. Services next Sunday, Jan. 21st, as follows: 10.30 A. M., sermon by the pastor, subject, "The Fatal Choice"; 2.15 P. M., Sabbath school and Pastor's Bible Class; 7 P. M., Epworth League Song Service, followed by sermon by the pastor, and evangelistic exercise. All invited.

The re-election of officers in Asbury M. E. Sunday school, Millington, took place last Sunday. The following were elected: Superintendent, Mrs. Kate R. Tonkin; asssistant, Mr. R. J. Taylor; secretary, Mr. Harry Higman; assistant, Mr. Norman A. Wallen; treasurer, Mr. R. J. Taylor; librarian, Mr. Wilmer Benton; assistant, Harry Wiest, Charles Moore; chorister, Mr. N. A. Wallen.

The Anti-Saloon League is planning to have the local option bill discussed from every pulpit in Maryland on January 28th, and the replies already received from pastors assure the success of the movement. The League has prepared leaflets which will be supplied free to the churches for distribution to all voters to aid them in writing members of the legislature on the local option question. The League reports that interest is stronger than ever before among the church people of the State.

The following officers were re-elected at the annual election of officers in Christ M. P. Sunday school last Sunday: Superintendent, Fred G. Usilton; asst. superintendent, Thomas D. Bowers; secretary, Chas. N. Satterfield; Treasurer, Miss Hattie Bacchus; librarians, Joseph and William Wheatley; pianist, Miss Anna Smyth; organist, Miss Marghuerita Dodd; superintendent primary department, Mrs. A. M. Bowers; asst. supt. primary department, Mrs. T. D. Bowers; supt. Cradle Roll, Mrs. J. Hydie Thompson.

Preaching services at the Presbyterian Churches by Rev. McGee as follows: Westminster 10.30 A. M.; Grace 3 P. M.; Worton 7.30 P. M. Sunday school every Sunday morning at Worton Church at 10.30 A. M.

Sunday, January 21st, in the Kennedyville M. P. Church. Sunday school at 9.30 o'clock, superintendent, John Medders, Cradle Roll superintendent, Mrs. J. W. Urie. Come and make 13 consecutive Sundays and get a premium of the "Little's Cross and Crown Class." Sermon at 10.30 by the pastor; 2.30 P. M. Junior C. E. Service; 7 P. M. Song service and brief sermon. Everybody cordially invited.

Rev. G. A. Morris, of St. James' Church, says, that nothwithstanding the thermometer was hovering around zero on Sunday, it registered 70° inside St. James' Church, and that the church is always kept comfortably warm. No one need remain away from Sunday services thinking the church too cold for comfort.

Betterton Notes.

Our community was shocked on Tuesday morning to hear of the sudden death of Mr. George E. Owens. On Sunday he was doing so nicely, we expected him to be able to come home the last of the week. His health had not been so good the last few months, and he and his children thought he had better have an examination, so they decided he should go to a hospital in Philadelphia. Rev. J. H. Beauchamp accompanied him. Under the special care of competent nurses and the very best doctors, he was getting long nicely, was sitting on the side of the bed talking to the nurse in charge when he fell over, life having gone out in an instant. We are certainly sorry to part with this dear brother. In our church we cannot replace him; he was faithful to the end, nothing except sickness and extreme bad weather kept him from his duties. Too much praise cannot be given the dear, dear departed. His way of living brought a great many of our young people into the church and they with him have been earnest workers. He was a member of all our church societies and superintendent of the Sunday school here ever since the school was organized. So we may well say he was the father of our Sunday school and spiritual advisor, of all our church work ever ready to stand by in time of need. His family has the deepest sympathy of the community. Mr. Owens is survived by a widow, four sons and two daughters. The sons are George W., ex-county commissioner; John S., proprietor of the Chesapeake Hotel; Howard F., manager of the Owens & Co., big department store, all of Betterton, and Joseph, of Philadelphia. Funeral services were held held in Betterton M. E. Church yesterday at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. H. Beauchamp. Interment was made in Still Pond cemetery, Wm. H. Krusen in charge.

The bay is frozen solid across, not even an airhole to be seen.

The cold weather has stopped work on the cannery.

Quite a number of our fishermen are making pound nets, and are going to fish these instead of drift nets.

Mrs. Wm. Wheeler and children are spending some time in Annapolis with her husband, who was appointed cloak room keeper, by Mr. Jas. G. Harris, delegate.

Mrs. Crawford Herelow, who is quite sick, suffered an attack Wednesday, but is much better at this writing.

Worton Items.

Our popular blacksmiths Messrs. Gears and Sheats have found this week a very busy one for shoeing horses.

Mr. C. C. Ivens has sold several fine cutters, as has also Mr. A. S. Turner.

Mr. Henry S. Rasin and Miss Clara B. Cooper, two of Worton's popular young folks gave their friends and acquaintances a surprise by being quietly married Tuesday morning at the St. James parsonage by Rev. G. A. Morris. They then took the train for a short trip. Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Rasin, the groom's parents, gave a 6 o'clock dinner in their honor, one eve this week.

Miss Eunice Cooper spent a few days last week the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. Money, of Fairlee.

Resolutions of Sympathy on the Death of Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Comly.

WHEREAS, It has seemed well to Him who is the Author of life to summon from our midst, the wife of our esteemed friend and brother, Samuel J. Comly, and

WHEREAS, The nobility of character, the fidelity to duty, the deep interest in all that pertained to the uplift of humanity endeared Mrs. Mamie Moore Comly to all who had the privilege of her friendship, we, the members of Kennedyville Grange, desire to pay the following tribute to her memory.

Resolved, That in the death of Mrs. Comly the community has met with an irreparable loss, her husband a devoted wife and her children a noble, loving mother.

Resolved, That we extend to the bereaved husband and children our deepest sympathy in their sorrow and commend them to Him who is too wise to err and too good to be unkind.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon our minutes, that they be inserted in our county papers and a copy be sent to the sorrowing family.
