A NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTION
—DEAL AT—
McINTIRE & SON'S,
Phone 72. RELIABLE MERCHANTS,
n18-1y. Chestertown, Md.

A Word of Appreciation.

The editors of the TRANSCRIPT desire in this manner to thank our numerous patrons and friends for the very prompt and widespread response to our bills which we are required to forward at the close of every fiscal year. These generous responses have enabled us to close one of the most successful years in the history of the business promptly, and we begin the new year with a clean balance sheet, and with a renewed determination to defend the interests of the people and tax-payers. We are very grateful for the many expressions of confidence in our policy and best wishes for our success. These splendid expressions more than compensate for the efforts made by the editors to uphold the interests of the people, and they make us feel that we are doing something worth while. The business is growing steadily year by year, the paper is becoming more popular with the people every day, as the number of new subscribers since the beginning of the year evidence, and everybody is happy. We express our thanks to everybody for their generous support, and hope that 1912 will be better still to us.

WEDDING BELLS.

MORRIS—BRINSFIELD

Mary Julia, daughter of Mrs. Matilda Brinsfield, of Betterton, and Mr. E. Elwood Morris, son of the late Judge Sheppard Morris, were quietly married at noon Wednesday, Jan. 24th. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride by Dr. J. A. Rood, pastor of the M. E. Church, South, at Chestertville. The bride wore a traveling suit of dark blue broad cloth with hat to match. After the ceremony a dinner was served at which only the immediate family was present. Miss Brinsfield was one of Kent's most successful teachers, having taught in the public schools for several years. Mr. and Mrs. Morris will reside near Cecilton where the groom is engaged in farming.

APSLEY—LYNN.

Capt. James E. Apsley, one of the most prominent watermen of Rock Hall, was married on Monday at Sacred Heart rectory, Chestertown, to Mrs. Gertrude Lynn, of 607 Orange street, Wilmington. Capt. Apsley accompanied by Mr. Walter H. Hadaway, met his bride at the train on Monday morning, and they proceeded to Sacred Heart rectory, where Rev. Joseph H. Heavey, united them in marriage. Capt. Apsley is one of the most popular "young" men in Rock Hall, and he and his bride were recipients of numerous congratulations upon their return to Rock Hall, where they will reside.

People You Know.

It is reported that Mr. John F. Howard, who has been engaged in the harness business in Chestertown for 47 years, will dispose of his business and remove to Baltimore with his wife in the spring. Mr. Howard's health and age prompt him to take this step. He will be greatly missed by his many friends. Mr. Howard is one of the town's oldest and most popular residents, having come here when a very young man. He began business here March 4th, 1865.
Mrs. William Robertson received this week the sad news of the death of her sister.
Mr. and Mrs. George D. Lofland spent several days early in the week in Baltimore.
Mr. and Mrs. James T. Crew have been entertaining friends at their home in Betterton the past week.
Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Cornelius entertained a large company of friends very pleasantly at their home near Lynch, on Thursday evening.
A number of well-known alumni of the college attended the banquet at Hotel Rennert last night.

Editor George R. Ash Dead.

Geo. Reynolds Ash, the owner and editor of the Cecil Democrat for 22 years, and State Auditor of Maryland, died at 1.15 o'clock on Thursday morning at his residence, Holly Hall, on the outskirts of Elkton, after an illness of only an hour, of acute indigestion, aged 52 years. This announcement will no doubt prove a great shock to his many friends in this county and throughout the state. Mr. Ash had been State Auditor for 12 years and he paid stated official visits here to examine the records in the Clerk's office and the office of Register of Wills. He was one of the best known editors in the state.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

WHEREAS, It has pleased our Heavenly Father in His infinite wisdom to call to his eternal rest our beloved brother and co-laborer, Mr. George E. Owens. Therefore, be it
Resolved, That the officers, teachers and scholars of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday School of Betterton deem it a privilege and pleasure to testify to his grand christian spirit, his great strength of character and the irreparable loss the church and Sunday School have sustained in his death. Be it
Resolved, That his exemplary life of faithfulness to duty, his unswerving devotion and loyalty to the church he loved so well will ever be remembered by us with deepest and most tender affection. And be it further
Resolved, That in appreciation of our deep regard for our brother, a copy of these resolutions be sent to his family and also be published in the county papers.

INEFFICIENCY OF ROAD WORKING SHOWN.

TO THE EDITORS OF THE TRANSCRIPT—GENTLEMEN:—So much has been said about the inefficiency of the present Road Law for Kent county, commonly called "The Gibbs Road Law", that it seems now, while the Legislature is in session, is the time for the facts, concerning the administration of this Law, to be laid before the public. In this way our tax-payers may know what has been paid and done. Let us at the same time bear in mind that there was a bitter contest waged in Kent county from the 13th of June until the 29th day of August. In answer to a letter addressed to Mr. Samuel Hicks, Clerk of the County Commissioners, asking for information as to the amount which the road engineer had disbursed from June, 1911, until June, 1912: Mr. Hicks states that the road engineer's fund for the roads and bridges is $18,979.88. Since June 13, 1911, until January 15, 1912, the engineer expended in the various districts the following sums of money:

First District	$2931.38
Second District	1359.41
Third District	3425.82
Fourth District	1367.20
Fifth District	389.90
Sixth District	1602.04
Seventh District	590.97
Gibbs' salary	958.31
Office expenses	96.96
Total from June 13th, 1911, to Jan. 15th, 1912	$12,721.99

From this it will be seen that the entire Fifth District has had expended on its roads from June 13th, last, the sum of $389.90! In the First District $2931.38 and in the Third District $3425.82 respectively were spent. The other districts speak for themselves. Everyone who knows the least thing about road patching or building, is aware of the fact that the largest expenditures are, or should be, made before the 1st of July in each year. That little or no work should be done on the roads after that date. There remains from now until the 1st day of June next in the hands of the engineer, applicable to roads and bridges, a balance of only $6257.89

In order that our people may know how this money was spent in each district, I requested from Mr. Hicks the names of all those who have received for road work sums of $5.00 or over. This list with the amounts received by each is given below.

J. C. Quinn	$ 47.25	J. W. Naylor	$ 35.90
R. C. Foraker	62.50	E. F. Foraker	16.50
A. W. Vansant	93.25	Jos. Webb	10.00
Amos Tibott	53.75	J. W. Pierce	20.75
Samuel Tibott	155.75	J. S. Newnam	26.96
W. M. Riley	32 40	Geo. S. Leager	17.50
P. T. Jones	66.75	Clark Colgain	10.50
W. H. Stradley	110.55	Clarence Maslin	119.50
Adolphus Davis	161.39	R. W. Johnson	180.95
J. C. Conner	420.00	Paul Dunn	29.75
J. P. Ahern	549.92	Chas. Cole	10.50
Isaac Gibbs, Sr	23.75	C. S. Maslin	14 88
J. C. Briscoe	48.75	W. B. Maslin	6.18
Wm. Durham	11.00	W. Gallager	7.70
A. W. Jones	10.50	Edw. Freeman	9.85
Thomas Quinn	29.80	Samuel Moore	5.00
W. B. Edwards	10.50	Bartus Wilkins, damage to team in bridge	30.00
Dudley Everette	63.00
J. W. Banchfield	382.64
			$28,85.87

For the information of our tax-payers I shall in my next letter give the various amounts expended in each of the other districts. It is doubtful if ten men in this county knew of these large expenditures by the road engineer before these figures were given by Mr. Hicks. The writer is frank to admit he had not the slightest idea of the extent of the money so spent. The people know how little good this money has done the county. Is there a single quarter of a mile in the whole county which a commissioner could not have done as well as this "engineer"? If so, where is it?
Very respectfully yours,
Chestertown, Md., Jan. 22d, 1912. HOPE H. BARROLL.

THESE WANT LAW REPEALED.

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE ASSEMBLY AND THE SENATOR FROM KENT COUNTY.

We, the undersigned, citizens of Kent county, respectfully urge and ask that the road law of Kent county, commonly known as "The Gibbs Road Law" be repealed at the present session of the Assembly, and we ask that you will introduce and vote for the bill printed below, so that the present system of working the county roads may be ended:
"An Act to repeal Chapter 403, and all the Sections therein contained, of the Acts of 1910 of the General Assembly of Maryland, entitled an Act to add 13 sections to Article 15 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Kent County," sub-title "Roads," etc.
Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland that Chapter 403 of the Acts of 1910, and all the sections therein mentioned of Article 15 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Kent County" sub-title "Roads" to follow Section 167 of said article 15, be and the same is hereby repealed.
Section 2. And be it enacted that this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage."

THE County School Board at its meeting on Tuesday by a resolution authorized its counsel, S. Scott Beck, Esq., to prepare a bill to be introduced in the Legislatuee providing for the bonding of Kent county for $25,000, with which to build two new school buildings—a primary school building for Chestertown and a high school building for Millington. The TRANSCRIPT has no criticism whatever to make of this move of the board so far as it goes. But it does not go quite far enough. Rock Hall is just as much in need of a new school building as is either Chestertown or Millington, and while we would be pleased to see new buildings in both towns, we would as much prefer to see a new building in Rock Hall, which has the largest school attendance of any town in the county, we believe, and the most dilapidated building in the county. We would suggest therefore, that the amount of the bond be increased to $35,000 in order to provide for a new building in all these towns. We would also suggest that the bill include the referendum clause, in order that the tax-payers may have the opportunity to decide whether they want such a bond issue.

Peerless Company's Dinner.

The annual meeting of the directors of the Peerlees Fertilizer Company was held on Monday in their office in the Hotel Imperial. The directors were royally entertained by the president of the company, Mr. Wilbur W. Hubbard. The business of the past year was discussed, and the showing made by the company was most gratifying in every respect. After the business meeting the directors were shown around the town and also made a tour of inspection of Mr. Hubbard's remodeled and beautifully furnished home on Front street. At one o'clock a splendid dinner was served by Mr. and Mrs. Rutter, proprietors of the hotel, and the guests greatly enjoyed the sumptuous and splendidly prepared menu.
The directors of the company are: Wilbur W. Hubbard, president; David B. Ford, secretary; Jesse Medders, treasurer; George T. Peacock, J. D. Bacchus, Wm. B. Usilton, H. H. Klinefelter, E. G.
