

H. F. JEFFERSON & BRO.,
THE LADIES' STORE,
Opposite Stam's Hall, CHESTERTOWN, MD.

SPRING MILLINERY READY FOR YOU.

The burning question for the ladies is: Where shall I get my new HAT? The question is a burning one because Easter is almost upon us. The place of purchase is important in that both you and we are vitally interested. We have tried our best to do our part by giving the millinery parlors a very prominent part of our store, and by placing therein for your convenience and selection the best and largest display of Fine Millinery ever attempted to be shown in Chestertown. New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore's best houses have contributed to this gorgeous array. Will you not visit us and test the correctness of these statements?

HUMIDOR LINENS

HUMIDOR LINENS

Some people go so far as to judge the general tone of a housewife's tastes by the kind of linen she uses in the home. If you wish to have splendid judgment passed upon you, use Humidor Linens, Strawbridge & Clothier's brand, and sold exclusively at this store. When the stamp "Humidor Linen" appears you will know it is pure linen, whether it be Table Linen, Napkins, Towels, Roweling, Crashes or any kind of Dress Linen.

Exclusive Patterns--Guaranteed Wear.

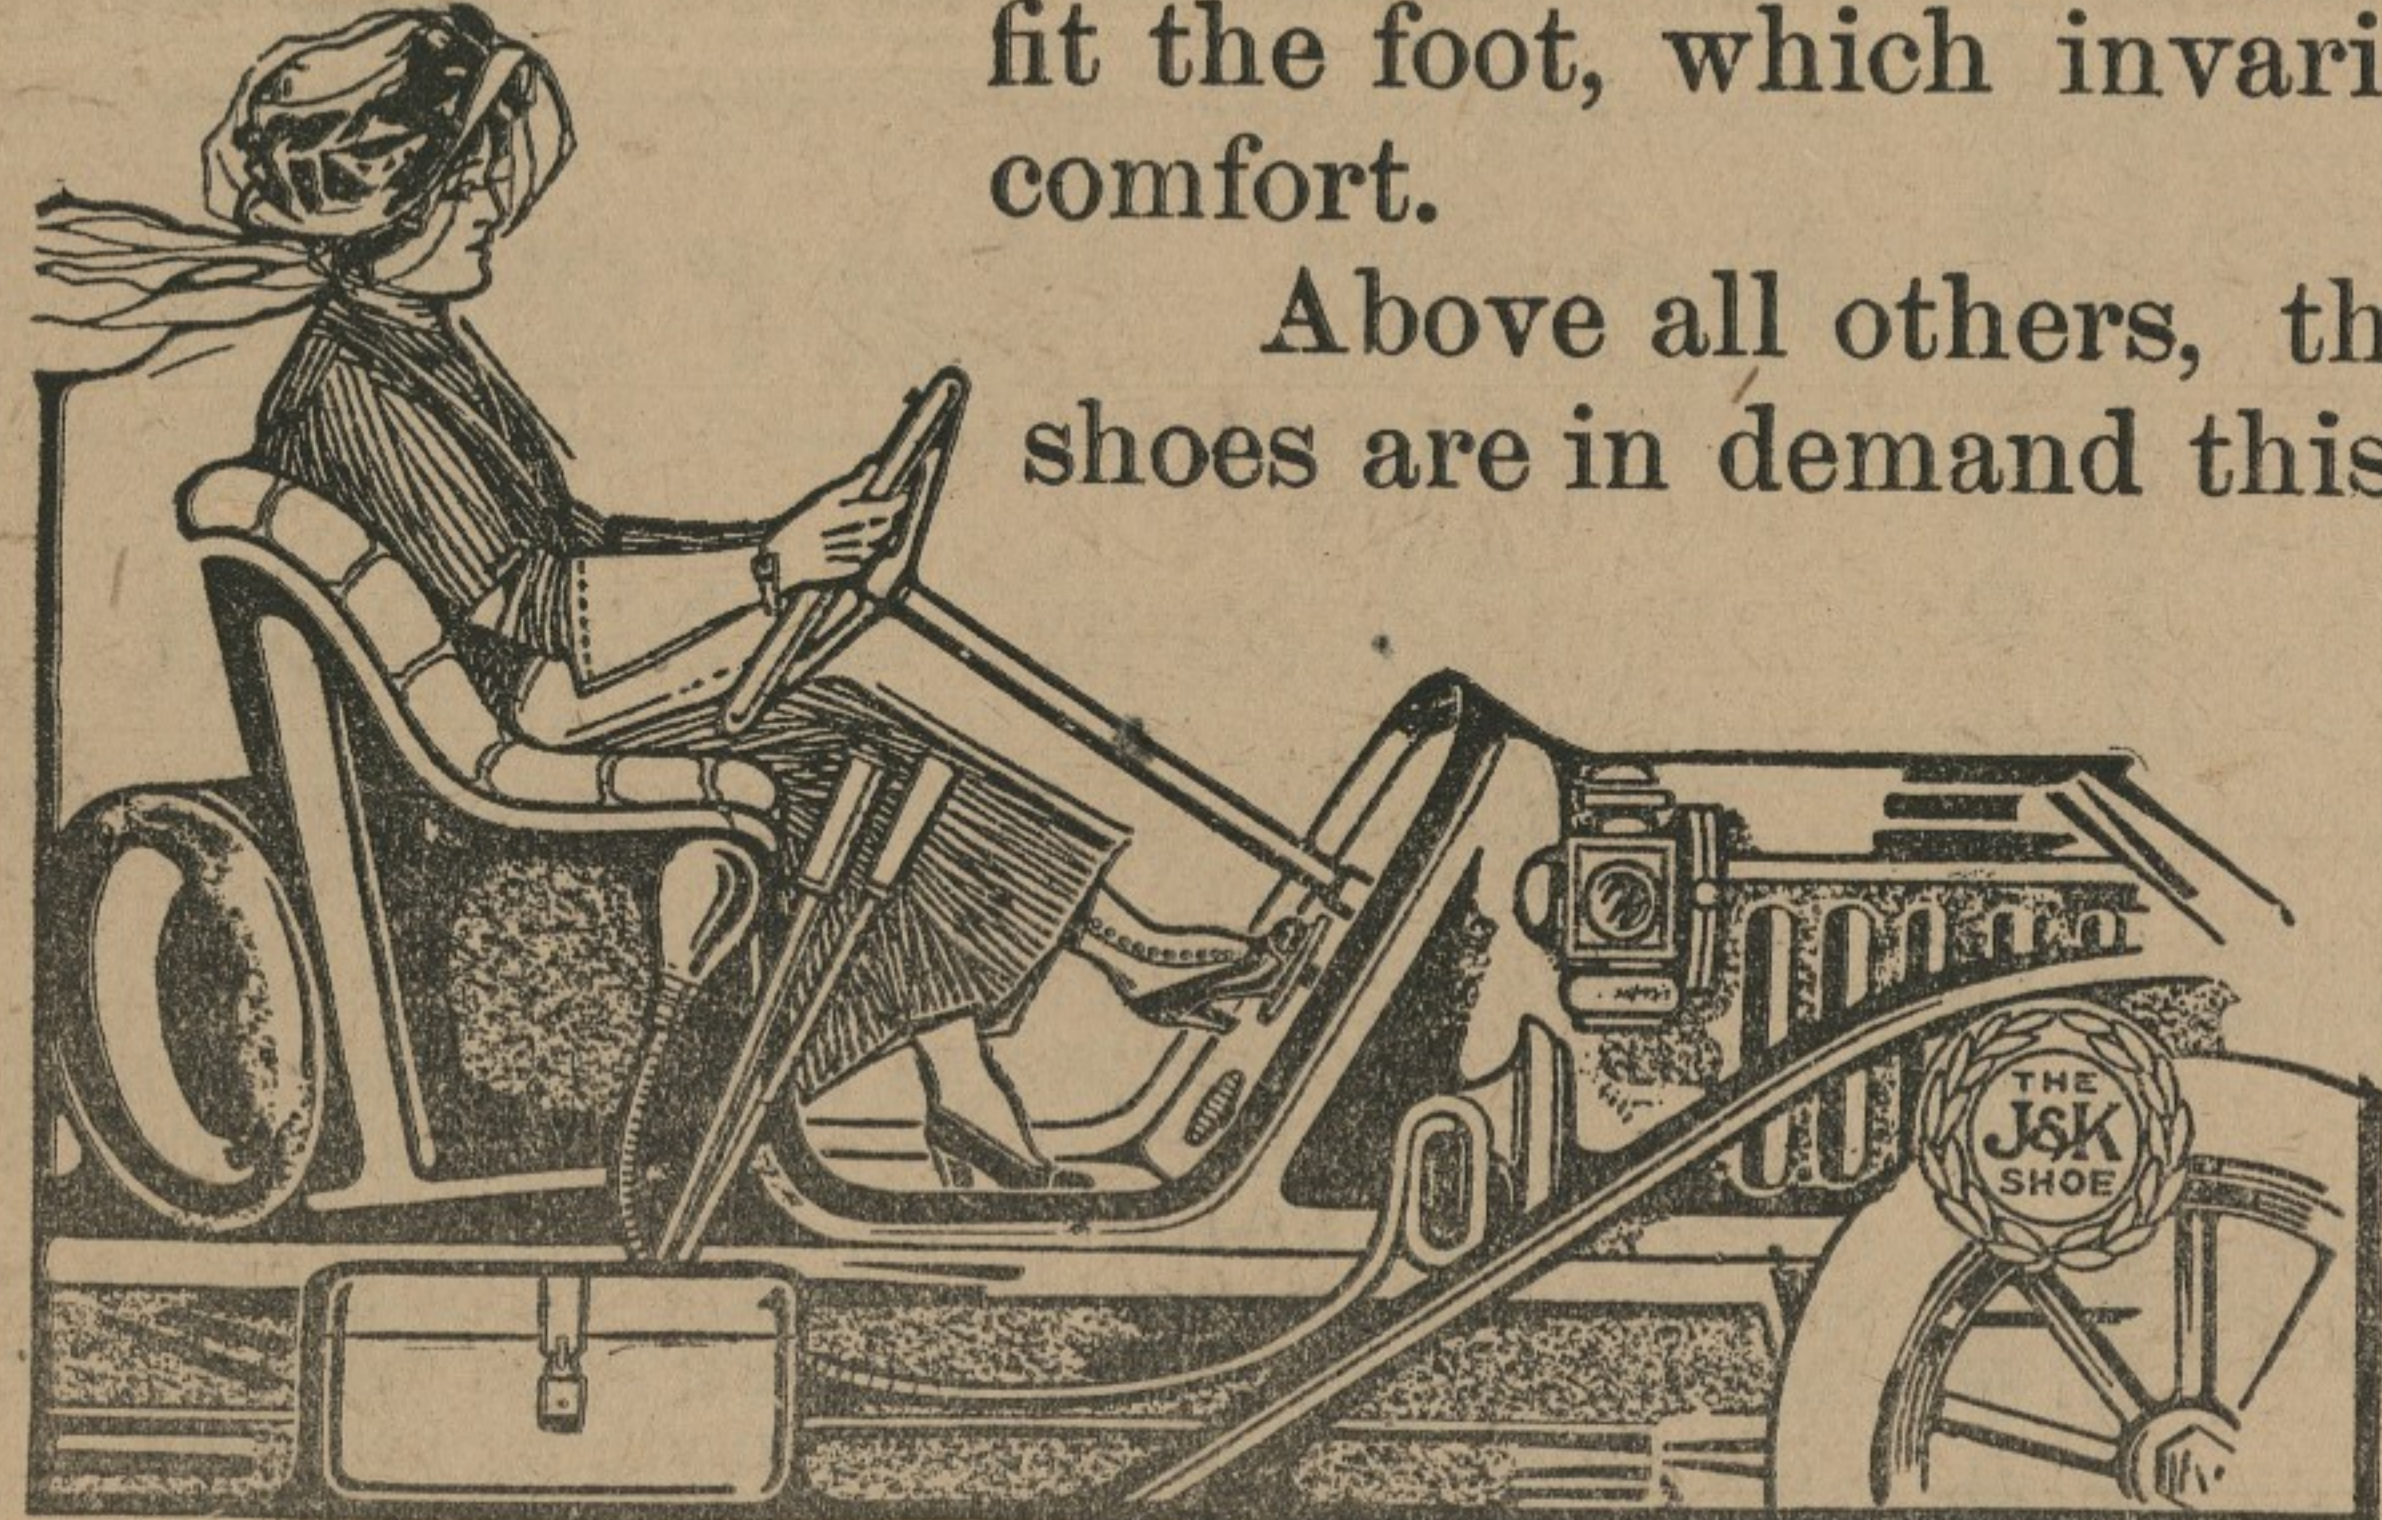

SHOES

THAT Are in Demand.

The J&K Shoes are making friends all the while, and "there's a Reason." Ask some of their wearers about them, or better still, come in and get fitted with a pair. The second pair will be a matter of course. The J&K is a style-leader, and every style is made to fit the foot, which invariably means comfort.

Above all others, the tan high shoes are in demand this month.

H. F. JEFFERSON & BRO.
The Ladies' Store,
Chestertown, Maryland.

In and Around Georgetown.

Capt. John Welch, of the Tolchester Steamboat Company, returned last week to his business after spending the winter with his family in town. Mrs. M. E. Emory, who has been quite sick the past week, is very much improved we are glad to state. Miss Marion B. Woodall entertained a number of friends at cards at her home on Wednesday evening of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lockwood, have returned home from a several days visit in Washington, D. C.

Miss Mamie Quinn entertained several of her friends at her home near Galena on Saturday evening.

Miss Margaret Maddox, of Snow Hill, is visiting her brother, Mr. F. E. Maddox, in Galena.

Master Julian Hurtt is quite sick suffering with a severe cold.

Mrs. James Cockran spent the first of the week with her sister, Mrs. Jos. Boyd at Galena.

Miss Bertie Brockson has returned home from a pleasant visit with relatives in Kennedyville.

The Sunday school class of Miss Mary E. Lynch held a bake in Galena on Saturday afternoon and was very successful.

Mrs. John Welch and Miss Marion Woodall were Wilmington visitors on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Jarvis, who have been spending the winter in the South, are spending several days with relatives in town before returning to their home in Wilmington.

Capt. J. E. Woodall and son spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Philadelphia on a business trip.

The funeral of Miss Anna Wallis Hall was held at St. Stephen's Church, near Millersville, Arundel county, on last Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Miss Hall was a niece of Miss Mary E. Wallis, of this town, where she was well-known and had many friends.

Galena Items.

Those on sick list--Mr. T. H. McIntyre, who has been sick, is improving. Guy Everett, is somewhat better. Our cashier, Mr. Maddox, is right sick at this writing--he has his sister here as his nurse. Mr. Walter Simmons, who fell from a scaffold some days ago, is getting around again.

Mr. James Davis, Jr., of Middletown, spent Sunday here with Dr. E. A. Scott.

Miss Carrie Dempsey has returned home after spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Connelly, Pine Neck.

We hear Mrs. Sallie Moffett, of Chestertown, expects to build a fine home here soon. We welcome her to our town.

Mr. T. H. McIntire has made quite an improvement to his home with a new coat of paint, by Mr. Lockman.

Mr. Wm. Steel is improving his home, and Mr. I. L. Dempsey is improving his Samuel Todd home.

Our big fishermen, A. W. Wilson and Mr. Scotten, go away this week.

Mr. James Caldwell, Jr., is filling Mr. Madox place at the bank while the latter is sick.

Those who attended the inauguration from here were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lockwood, Messrs. Guy Everett, S. H. Todd, Elmer Jarman, William Steel and J. P. Ahern.

Mr. L. R. Vansant and Mr. Steve Pierce killed 38 wild ducks one day last week. Who can beat that?

Mr. William Dempsey, of Wilmington, spent Sunday at home.

Mr. Robert Lushy, of Millington, has expected to move in a few days.

The young folks of the M. E. Church expect to have an entertainment next Thursday, 20th inst. Benefit of church. Come out and help a good cause.

Still Pond Notes.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Moffett, of near Cecilton, spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. William Ford.

Mrs. Clements is on the sick list and has been confined to her bed the past week. Mrs. William Stanley has also been kept indoors the past two weeks.

Mr. Clarence Ford is visiting friends in Baltimore.

Mrs. Charles Jewell visited Chestertown Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson, Jr., spent Sunday with friends near Worton.

The Epworth League Social and business meeting met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Medders Thursday night.

Although the night was cold and blustry there was a fine time after the business meeting. A short literary program had been arranged as follows: Duett by Misses Bertha and Alta Price; Reading, "It Wasn't the Dog," Miss Marian Hackett; Solo and Instrumental Music, Mrs. Jack Schofield; Games. Refreshments were then served, after which all left to meet again the first Thursday in April.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ford spent Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ford, Black.

Miss Hope Hackett has returned home after spending the winter months with her sister, Mrs. Lester Coleman, Roland Park, Baltimore.

Mr. Charles Jewell killed three fine geese one night last week.

We understand the entertainment given by the Ladies' Aid in Weer's Hall, Kennedyville, will be repeated here this Saturday night in Harper's Hall.

Next Sunday, March 16th, will be observed as Missionary Day at Still Pond Methodist Episcopal Church. Dr. Li Bi Ca, a noted Chinese physician, who has been in this country for several months studying modern surgery under Dr. Howard Seley, of Baltimore, and other prominent American surgeons, will be the speaker at the regular church service in the morning, and at the Sunday School Anniversary Anniversary exercises at night, 7:30 o'clock. Miss Li Bi Ca is at the head of a Methodist Missionary Hospital in China. She is a good speaker, and well acquainted with the English language. She will appear in Chinese costume. It is rare that the public is given such a splendid opportunity to see a Chinese lady and hear her speak. A packed house is predicted.
