Rev. H. S. Thompson and wife left last week for Smyrna, Delaware, where they will make their future home. Mr. Thompson and his estimable wife had made many warm friends here who regret to lose them, but Mr. Thompson had been preaching for 55 years and on account of ill-health he decided to retire. We welcome Rev. Fosnacht and his good wife and hope that this may be a great conference year in Asbury M. E. Church.

Mrs. J. E. Bailey spent Thursday of last week with her daughter, Mrs. J. S. Barwick, of Sudlersville. A number of boys and young men spent quite an enjoyable time last Monday evening serenading Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Price at their home near town. Mr. John Phillips, of Wilmington, Del., and Miss Minnie Melvin, of Baltimore, were guests last Sunday of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Phillips.

Mrs. S. P. Manship and daughter, Miss Margaret, returned yesterday to their home in Philadelphia, Pa., after a ten days' stay with Mrs. W. T. Mallalieu.

A large delegation of politicians went to Washington, D. C., last Monday in quest of appointments.

Rev. J. G. Fosnacht moved from Clayton, Del., to the M. E. Parsonage last Thursday, April 10th.

Mr. Millard Slaughter lost a fine driving mare last Monday after a trip to Chestertown and returned yesterday.

Mr. F. E. Maddox, of Galena, spent Sunday with Miss Emily E. Spear at the home of her aunt, Miss Fannie Hurt.

Mrs. Annie Makenzie and Miss Lillie Jones, of Philadelphia, Pa., visited their sister, Mrs. H. L. Disharoon, a few days this week.

Miss Claire Ahern substituted a few days this week for Miss Araminta Brinsfield, who was quite sick at Bailey's Hotel.

Mrs. Gladys Jacobs spent the weekend with relatives at Townsend, Del.

Mrs. John Woodall was the guest several days this week of friends in Philadelphia, Pa.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of Asbury M. E. Church met on Thursday afternoon of last week at Mrs. P. C. Numbers.

Mr. Hansen Horsey, of Galena, was the Sunday guest of Miss Marian Lockerman.

Mr. John Brice, of Chestertown, spent a few days last week with his brother, Dr. Meritt Brice.

The Rev. William M. Warner died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Joseph Mallalieu, about 11 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Rock Hall Items.
Miss Dora Sewell, of Baltimore, was the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Mary Ashley, last week.

The Adventist Church was rededicated last Sunday after extensive repairs. A very nice little sum was collected to meet current expenses.

A couple of old trees—land marks on Main street have been removed to make way for an addition which is to be built on the Casey property used as a lunch room by Hayward Ashley. They were very large trees and will be missed when the hot suns of summer begin to get busy.

Billy Clayton and Walter Brier were at the State Council meeting of the Jr. O. U. A. M., as representatives from Rock Hall council. They report a full attendance and a very interesting session.

Thomas Ayres, of Chestertown, visited friends and relatives in Rock Hall this week.

Marion T. Miller has accepted the agency, in this town, for Johnston's Wood Dyes. This is one of the most satisfactory wood finishes on the market and is so simple that a mere child can accomplish excellent results.

Several of the merchants of Rock Hall have put in a little machine to hold gummed paper with which to wrap and seal bundles and packages. Very neat bundles are in evidence, it is also a great string or cord saver.

One of the young ladies, formerly of this town, now in Ohio, writes that she had quite an experience in the flooded section. Having to retreat to the second floor, things looked critical. The water was rising faster than 12 inches an hour. She saw houses and wreckage and dead bodies passing her windows. These are horrible sights, hardly imaginable, and require nerves of iron to pass through such trying scenes. She and her husband and child were rescued without loss of their belongings and moved into Cincinnati. Mrs. Lamb says she does not care to pass through another such ordeal. Her relatives here were much relieved by hearing of her safety.

Elmer Jones and Robert Diehl have opened a paint and repair shop, for bicycles and carriages, on the opposite corner from Reybold Wilson.

Worton Items.
Messrs. Sutton and Stafford are getting their horses in readiness for the coming training season.

Mr. A. S. Turner has purchased the stock of the Worton Mdse. Co., and will continue the business for a time.

Isaac Gibbs, road engineer, has been out this week superintending the plowing and scraping of Union hill.

Master Louis Sheats entertained a number of his school-mates at a birthday party a few days ago.

Mrs. H. M. Matthews has been quite sick at her home here, but is better at this writing.

Mrs. H. C. Cooper has been visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. Money, near Fairlee.

Rev. E. C. Sunfield preached a very good sermon at Union M. E. Church last Sunday afternoon.

The Mite Society held its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Harry Fowler last Wednesday evening.

Reginald, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Cooper was quite sick a few days this week with indigestion.
