LOCAL MATTERS

School Teachers Resign.—The school board has received during the week the resignations of the following teachers—Miss Edna E. Lewis, at Coleman's; Miss E. Pauline Copper, at Chesterville, and Miss Sophia Miller, at Lynch. The board will meet on Monday next, June 23rd.

Fine Property to be Sold.—J. Waters Russell, real estate broker, will sell for the Kent County Land Co. about one dozen small farms—unimproved tracts—on July 8th, 1913. These tracts are a part of the Faithful or Everett Farm, 1½ miles from Chestertown, in Queen Annes Co. on the State Stone Road. This will be an unusual opportunity to acquire very productive land, desirably located—bound to advance in price. See advertisement in next week's Transcript for further information.

Will Entertain Horticulturists.—The firm of J. G. Harrison & Sons, nurserymen, of Berlin, Md., will entertain on the lawn of Mayor Orlando Harrison, the Maryland State Horticultural Society and the Peninsula Horticultural Society on July 31. Invitations will be extended to members and officers of Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Virginia Horticultural Societies. The Harrison Orchards show prospects of an immense peach crop, and the methods used in saving and growing this crop should be of interest to all peach growers.

Oder of Red Men.—Toghwogh Tribe No. 169, of the Improved Order of Red Men of the reservation of Massey, Md., gave a festival for the benefit of the order on the green at the M. E. Church last Saturday evening and a large crowd was in attendance. People both young and old came out to see the Indians in their war paint and clothes, and they claim that the Toghwogh Indians gave them their money's worth and had the finest festival ever held in Massey, and of course this made the Red Men feel happy, and they appreciate to their highest ability the kindness and esteemed courtesy the pale faces showed them, and forever may the pale faces and the red men be friends.

THE NEWS IN BRIEF.

The annual meeting of the State Teachers' Association will be held at St. John's College June 24-27.

The Md. Del. & Va. Railway Company is impuoving its wharf property here by a new dress of paint.

Mr. D. B. McMenamin has sold his car advertised in the TRANSCRIPT one time to Prof. Wm. G. Smyth, of Fairlee.

There were 38 automobiles on Washington field during the Alumni game on Wednesday afternoon by actual count.

Mr. Henry Anderson, now on the Legg farm, near Fairlee, will tenant Mrs. George W. Hatcherson's farm next year.

The Hubbard Farm near Morgan Creek bridge, has been sold to Mr. John Schauber, whose farm adjoins it. The tract contains 260 acres.

Mr. Wilbert Kendall, near Smithville, has rented Mr. Wm. E. Keyser's Handy farm near Fairlee, now tenanted by Mr. Clark, for next year.

The firm of W. S. and A. M. Culp has received the contract for the erection of a fine railroad station in Crisfield. The building will cost $10,000.

We shall be a guest of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce at a big dinner to be given to the Peninsula editors at the hotel Du Pont, on Monday evening.

Meeting of the Just Government League of Kent county will be held next Wednesday at 8 o'clock at the home of the president, Mrs. Simmons. All members are invited to attend.

The Just Government League will hold a meeting in Junior Hall, Rock Hall, on Monday evening at 8 o'clock. The speakers will be Miss Engel and Miss Frazee.

Rev. G. A. Morris, former pastor of St. James and Lynch, met with a severe loss one day this week in the death of a fine Dewey colt. Mr. Morris came to Kent to see the colt and it died while he was here.

Messrs. James Brice and Samuel Vannort, two of our early gardeners, have each a ripe tomato on their garden vines, and Mr. Vannort has roasting-ear corn in tassle. Mr. Joseph Harbison has ripe new potatoes.

Mr. George Brice left yesterday morning for his new appointment in New Jersey. He took his entire pack of fine fox hounds which he has sold to members of the Club, and was accompanied by Mr. John H. Moffett.

Mr. Charles G. Watts, a former prominent farmer of near Still Pond, has been appointed manager of the White Oak Coal Company, with headquarters in Cincinnati. Charles is a hustler and will make things hum, we are sure.

The graduates of the Chestertown High School were the recipients of numerous costly gifts. One of the young ladies received a fine new piano, another a handsome gold watch, and one of the young men received a fine gold watch.

The annual report of the Peninsula Horticultural Society has been printed. It contains the addresses delivered at the meeting in Wilmington last winter, and is a pamphlet of about 100 pages. It may be had free by addressing the secretary, Wesley Webb, Dover, Del.

The first new wheat of the season reached Baltimore last week. It came from Virginia and was ten days ahead of last year's earliest shipment. Owing to its being a little green it sold for 94 cents. Local dealers say that the price for new wheat will start at 90 cents.

The Ford Motor Company, manufacturers of the Ford Automobile, have declared a cash dividend of $10,000,000 on their capital stock. The factory is located at Detroit, and Mr. Ford, who owns 51 per cent. of the stock, gets $5,800,000 as his share of the dividends.

There were 18 autos and any number of teams at Tolchester last Saturday to convey the passengers to Chestertown. There were blowouts and punctures and the dust was so thick that many of the passengers looked like huge lumps of mud, and don't say a word if it was not hot. But the boys had a good time.

Mr. Henry Krusen, who for years has lived at the head of Still Pond Creek, has purchased a lot on the hill above his wheelwright shop, and is building himself a cozy little home. "Uncle Henry" is one of the youngest elderly men in the county, and he and his estimable wife enjoy the esteem of a large number of friends.

Mr. Albert Wheat, who has filled of the position as clerk to real estate broker, J. Waters Russell, very acceptably for several years, has resigned to accept a position as salesman with R. F. Parks & Son, to succeed Mr. Augustus Ayres, who will take a rest on account of his health. Miss Lucie Frazier has accepted a position with Mr. Russell. Mr. Wheat's resignation takes effect July 1.

Mr. Richard C. Smyth, one of our oldest and most experienced farmers, said on Tuesday that it looks to him like the present summer will be a repitition of the summer of 1854. During that year there was a drouth in May and June. On Juue 23rd there was a terrific hail storm which destroyed everything, and from that time until November there was but very little if any rain, and crops and everything else were ruined.

WASHINGTON COLLEGE COMMENCEMENT.

Exercises Attended by Numerous Relatives and Friends of the Graduates as Well as Alumni.

Largest Graduating Class For Years.—Honor Men—Prize Winners—Degree Men—Society and Declamation Features.

The 131st commencement exercises of Washington College began on Saturday afternoon with an exciting game of base ball in which after an eleven inning struggle, the Mt. St. Joseph's team defeated Washington College by the score 8 to 7. It was a see-saw game from start to finish, and consequently the big crowd present was kept at fever excitement until the last man was down. Both teams were so evenly matched that it is a tossup as to which is the best team. Honors were about even in every position.

BACCALAUREATE ADDRESS.

On Sunday morning at 10.30 o'clock, Dr. James W. Cain, president of the college, delivered the Baccalaureate address to the graduates. A large audience was present, and the occasion was enlivened by splendid music by a student choir under the direction of Mr. James Cain, son of the president, with Mr. James L. Bacchus as accompanist, and Messrs. Andrew W. Pardew and James Madden as the soloists. President Cain selected as his text "Now abideth faith, hope and charity, these three, but the greatest of these is charity." The address was replete with ornate diction and fine thought, and was listened to with rapt attention. The sermon to the Young Men's Christian Association was delivered in the evening by Rev. Charles Laban Pardee, rector of St. Michael's parish, Naugatuck, Conn., who held the attention of his large audience in a masterly sermon.

BASE BALL.

On Monday afternoon another exciting game of ball took place on Washington field between the All Stars of Kent and Washington resulting in an eleven inning victory for the All Stars by the score of 9 to 8. Beck, of Millington, pitched a fine game for the All Stars, while Washington used both of their star pitchers, Biddle and Bowen.

MT. VERNON ANNIVERSARY.

The Mt. Vernon celebration at night was a departure from the usual set speech by a distinguished orator, and a most excellent program of declamations, orations, etc., by the members of the society, interspersed with fine music by Weber's Fifth Regiment band, of Baltimore, was rendered. A splendid audience greeted the society, and the program was one of the most enjoyable ever given by the society. A feature of the program was the presentation of the W. Frazier Russell medal for "The Mt. Vernon Man". The presentation was made to Mr. Marion H. Landing by the president, Mr. Andrew W. Pardew, in a very neat speech. The following was the program:

Address of Welcome.....Andrew W. Pardew, Pres
Overture:"Poet and Peasant".....Von Suppe

DECLAMATIONS

Oration on Garfield.....Wm. L. Baldwin
Cataline's Defiance.....Wm. G. Keller
Grand Fantasie "Home Sweet Home, the World Over".....Lampe

ORATIONS.

True to the Flag.....Marion H. Landing
The Passing of War.....Wendell D. Allen
Medley March: "Good Night".....Gamble
Presentation of Wm. F. Russell, Jr., Medal for "The Mt. Vernon Man" to Marion H. Landing.

DECLAMATION CONTEST.

The Declamation Contest for the Simpers medals took place before a crowded audience on Tuesday evening in William Smith Hall. There were five contestants as follows:

Declamation—"Valedictory in the United States Senate," Clay, Stephen Roberts Collins, Chestertown, Md.
Declamation—"Regulus to the Carthaginians," Kellogg, Daniel Hersey Hall, Chestertown, Md.
Declamation—"Spartacus to the Gladiators at Capua," Kellogg, William Getty Keller, Grantsville, Md.
Declamation—"The Contest in the Arena," Sienkiewicz, Marion Howk Landing, Marion Station, Md.
Declamation—"Crime Its Own Detector," Webster, Clyde McClellan Stouffer, Hagerstown, Md.

It is such a pity that there is not a prize for each contestant on such occasions, for every speaker usually acquits himself with such honor as to be worthy of a prize. However, the judges—Rev. Charles Laban Pardee, of Naugatuck, Conn.; Francis Trevelyan Miller, of New York, and Rev. John Franklin Carey, of Salisbury, awarded first prize to Mr. Clyde McClellan Stouffer, of Hagerstown, and second prize to Daniel Hersey Hall, of Chestertown.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES.

The 131st Commencement exercises of the college took place in William Smith Hall on Weenesday morning at 10 o'clock. The auditorium was crowded with relatives and friends of the class, which was one of the largest in the history of the college. The academic procession was an inspiring one as it marched from Middle Hall to the Auditorium, headed by Mr. Paul Judson Wilkinson, the representative man of the class and Weber's Fifth Regiment Band, which discoursed fine music for all the commencement features. First honor oration, "The Road to Success", was delivered by William Lester Baldwin, of Chestertown. Second honor oration was delivered by Mr. Newell Montgomery Corddry, of Snow Hill, Md. The address to the graduated was delivered by Francis Trevelyan Miller, editor in chief of the Photographic History of the Civil War, of New York.

The Class Shield was unveiled in the main corridor after the exercises. This was followed by the annual meeting and luncheon of the Alumni Association and it was very gratifying to note the return of so many of the Alumni to enjoy the commencement.

THE ALUMNI GAME.

It is estimated that more than one thousand people witnessed the annual game between the Alumni and Washington on Wednesday afternoon. The game was of course interesting, but the varsity team showed to much better advantage and won an easy victory by the score of 10 to 4. Metcalfe and Crew were in the points for the Alumni with Burris on the mound for part of the game, and Biddle and Pearson did battery work for the varsity. The line-up was as follows:

ALUMNI.	WASHINGTON.
Porter, 1b	Usilton, 1b
Orrell, 3b	Lewis, 2b
L. Crew, 3b	Meekins, 3b
Massey, lf	Wallace, ss

NOTES.

Prof. Theo. Peet, teacher of German and French, Prof. Howell, teacher of Philosophy and Education, and Mr. F. Stanley Porter, Athletic Instructor, have resigned as members of the staff of Washington College, to take effect at the end of this school year, and their places will be filled by the Board of Visitors in time for the next scholastic year. These gentlemen have made many friends here and they will be missed. Mr. Porter expects to take up the study of law.

Among the Alumni and friends who attended Commencement we noticed—State Insurance Commissioner and Mrs. W. Mason Shehan, Easton, Wm. H. Stewart and wife, T. Allen Goldsbourgh, C. B. Morris, Raymond Jones, Raymond Charles, Dr. Burris, Mrs. Meekins, Mr. Pardew, Miss Riggin, Miss McRochester, Albert Mackey, Rev. Mr. Gill, Dr. Valk, Hon. James E. Ellegood, Mr. and Mrs. Corddry, Miss Louise Grey, Mrs. Harvey Moore and Mrs. Crew, of Betterton, Mr. Wheatley and others mentioned in personal columns.

The ball at night, held in the new Gymnasium, was attended by one of the largest crowds in the history of Commencement time. Guests were present from all parts of the peninsula, from Philadelphia, New York and Baltimore and it was one of the most charming social features of Commencement week.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Fairlee Grange No. 249, realizing most deeply the loss it has sustained in the death of brother Joshua McCleary, wish to place upon record this testimonial of their respect and appreciation of one who was always deeply interested in the progress and prosperity of the Grange, and always faithful and conscientious in the discharge of all the duties it placed upon him.

Resolved: That we recognized in him a man of superior natural ability and call to remembrance his tender pathetic poems so expressive of the sorrows and disappointments of life. He was a kind husband, a faithful, indulgent father, a good friend, and a helpful neighbor. In the calm repose of death, may his troubled soul find rest and "light perpetual shine upon him."

We extend to the bereaved family, the widow, the daughter, the sons, and the grandchildren, our heartfelt sympathy in this hour of their sorrow, and commend them to the care of "Him who doeth all things well" and direct that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family, spread upon the minutes of the Grange and published in the county papers.
