

COOL FOOTWEAR

Most any one will tell you that the Russet Shoe is the most comfortable shoe you can wear, as they are cooler than other leathers and do not draw the feet.

We still have a fair assortment. Look in our windows for the new styles.

LOCAL MATTERS

Sells His Fine Home.—Dr. J. E. Graham has sold to his son, Mr. Harry R. Graham, his fine home on Front street, and Dr. and Mrs. Graham will go with Mrs. Wm. E. Jarrell to live in Mrs. Jarrell's home on Washington avenue. The "moving" will take place shortly.

Meeting of Musicians.—There will be a rehearsal of the grange choir in the Lyceum theatre on Wednesday afternoon at 2 P. M. to prepare for the grange picnic to be held in Klinefelter's woods on August 7th. Let there be a full attendance.

To Dredge Dock.—The Federated Club, of Chestertown, Mrs. Wilbur W. Hubbard, president, with local financial co-operation, will have the dock in the rear of the homes on Front street dredged to a depth of 15 feet, and their dis- agreeable refuse which collects with the ebb and flow of the tides. A dredge company from Baltimore has the contract at $150 per day, and their scope and scows will begin work shortly pulling away the mud.

Horses Poisoned.—Four valuable horses were poisoned on the Simonds farm near Hanesville sometime late Saturday night or early Sunday morning in some mysterious manner. One, a valuable brood mare, died, the others with the help of Dr. John Moffett are improving, except one, Boxwell colt, which became corded and otherwise affected. Dr. Moffett, however, is bringing him through. This is a case which should be thoroughly investigated by our officers, and if possible, the guilty parties should be arrested and severely punished.

SOCIAL WORLD.

Mrs. Mary E. Sutton has returned to her home in Betterton after spending several days with her daughter, Mrs. J. Edw. Stouffer, in Washington.

Miss Henrietta Merritt, of Baltimore, is visiting her uncle, Hon. James A. Pearce.

Mrs. Horace Reed and daughters are visiting friends in Philadelphia, Wilmington and Clayton, Del.

Dr. James Roy Micou leaves to-day for Virginia, where he will spend the month of August.

Prof. Theodore Pete has taken apartments at the home of Mrs. John Bell on College Hill.

Miss Hanby, of Wilmington, Del., is visiting Mrs. J. H. Sides and her sister, Miss Edith Fallowfield, on the avenue.

Mr. Wilmer Watson, who was held up and shot by a highwayman at Lake Royer, near Pen Mar, on Wednesday night, and who is now in a critical condition, is a distant relative of Mr. Harry and Miss Edith Fallowfield and Mrs. J. H. Sides, of this town. His first wife was Miss Bessie Fallowfield, of Centreville. He is formerly from Queen Annes.

The Baltimore Sun of Thursday says that Mr. Frank Jarman, who was farmed by the Raleigh, N. C., club by manager Jack Dunn of the Baltimore team, pitched his first game on Wednesday and won. He'll win more, too, if you give him a chance, Mr. Dunn.

A well-attended and very enjoyable meeting of the Pomona Grange was held on the lawn of Mr. Hero Seley near Fairlee, on Thursday. A profitable business meeting was held in the morning, and an enjoyable program was rendered in the afternoon. Full account next week.

During the severe electrical storm one night last week, lightning struck the tomato patches on the farms of Mr. Walter H. Haddaway and Alfred Wilson, in the Fifth District, killing 600 plants for Mr. Haddaway and 100 for Mr. Wilson. The whole made in the ground was plainly seen the next morning, and the occurrence is regarded as a most unusual one.

The management of the Fair Association has been unable to secure promotion of an exhibit from the granges of Kent and Queen Anne's counties owing to the pressure of farm business and an extra race will be carded for the third day. The Transcript has been awarded the contract for the printing of 5,000 book programs.

The first peaches of the season were shipped by the Chestertown Produce Exchange on Monday. They were grown by Mr. Wm. T. Nicholson. The exchange has been handling a large quantity of cabbage for Mr. John Bell, the expert grower, and they are now handling potatoes.

Messrs. Blackway & Waddell, the hustling proprietors of the Chestertown Bottling Works, have purchased a large motor truck from Graham & Clements, to take care of their constantly increasing trade. They have all the orders they can handle, and they will shortly enlarge their capacity.

Mr. Olin Stafford, who is organizing an Improved Order of Red Men in Chestertown, states that he has 25 pledged to membership, and the order will be instituted very shortly. This is a splendid organization with principles and a mission which any one can endorse, and it is hoped that there will be a large and influential membership in this town.

Messrs. James G. Beck, Clifton L. Jarrell, Philip G. Wilmer and Frank V. Simpers motored to Wilmington, Del., on Tuesday morning to attend the races at Wawasett Park. Mr. Beck, who is the president of the Kent and Queen Annes Racing Association, and Mr. Jarrell, the secretary, interviewed a number of horsemen, and they stated that they will enter their horses in the Chestertown races at Radcliffe Park in August.

Sheriff McKee, upon the complaint of Mr. Joseph A. Arell, made a raid on a chicken thieves in and around Mill-tota last Sunday morning, and arrested two colored men supposed to be the guilty parties. The men are named Clements Hicks and Percy Jones. The chickens belonged to Mr. Joseph Atwell, who identified them by one of his hens which had been picked by a guinea fowl. Some of the chickens were thrown in a branch, and were recovered by Sheriff McKee.

Chestertown will be the centre of entertainment galore during the latter part of August and first of September. Some of the scheduled attractions are: Three days racing at Radcliffe Park, Aug. 26-28; Chautauqua course Sept. 7-7; Downie & Wheeler's circus Septem- ber 8; a great excursion of Baltimore Epworth Leaguers to be entertained at the M. E. Church, Sept. 4; Democratic and Republican primaries, Sept. 8; and special feature attractions every night at the Lyceum Theatre. Let everybody come and "take in" every event.

THE NEWS IN BRIEF.

Fishing has been fine with hook and line down the river of late.

At least twelve of the town's pretty shade trees have died recently.

It will be lawful to shoot doves in Kent on and after August 1.

The Town Commissioners are giving the new road on High street a good coat of oil.

Don't forget the block carnival for the baby found on Washington avenue this evening. It is a fine machine.

Some one stole a number of fine chickens from Mr. Arthur Bacon, on Cannan street, last Saturday night.

The prospect for a large yield of corn in Kent and nearby Queen Anne's is especially bright.

Mr. T. Benjamin Durding was in Chestertown, on Sunday in his new "Carter car." It is a fine machine.

The trial of "Lumheart" Cann, charged with robbing the home of Mr. J. H. Sides, on the avenue, was held on Thursday evening. He was held for court.

Mr. J. F. Thompson, agent, has sold to Mr. Julian Brown, a five-passenger 1913 model Ford car, which he delivered to Mr. Brown this week.

Mrs. S. E. Fitch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Ahern, of Millington, lost a very valuable string of 250 ivory beads one day this week in Millington. She offers a reward in this issue for their recovery.

Dr. G. Allen Jarman has rented the residence on High street now occupied by Mr. Harry R. Graham and family, and Mr. Mingle and family will go where Dr. Jarman now is. The exchange will take place shortly.

Some of our farmers are much discouraged at their yield of wheat. One gentleman in the First District got only 400 bushels from 60 acres, while another in the Third got only 90 bushels from 25 acres.

A change of schedule of the Ches- ter River Line to take effect July 27th, from Baltimore, was received too late for publication. The steamer Corsica begins her tri-weekly trips next Monday leaving Crumpton at 2 P. M. and Ches- tertown at 5 P. M.

Mr. R. N. Stevens, owner of Hail Point farm, who advertised the farm for rent in the Transcript, last week, sent us this message this week: "Please discontinue the adv. 'Hail Point Farm for Rent' as I have rented it." See!

Convicted of assaulting Mrs. Kate Shelton, of Golta, Md., William Foreacre, of New Castle, was fined $10 and costs, and later the woman's husband, Ben- jamin Shelton, charged with deserting her seven years ago, was held in $500 bail for court.

Mr. Irving Ritchie, of West Vir- ginia, has purchased through J. Waters Russell the Warfield farm of 115 acres situated on Fairlee Creek. This is the second gentleman from West Virginia to buy a home in Kent in three weeks. Glad to have you Mr. Ritchie.

The Baltimore Sun of Thursday says that Mr. Frank Jarman, who was farmed by the Raleigh, N. C., club by manager Jack Dunn of the Baltimore team, pitched his first game on Wednesday and won. He'll win more, too, if you give him a chance, Mr. Dunn.

THE OLD WAY AND THE NEW

Once it took months to cross the Atlantic, now it takes days.

Once you could die and your friends know nothing about it for an indefinite period of time; nowadays the telegraph gets your obituary out in good season.

Once you had to propose by letter and have the "old man" intercept it, or by person and be embarrassed; to-day you can put the question over the phone and take no chances—other than that of being accepted.

Once you had to pay the same price for Low Shoes in July that you did in May; to-day you can step into Vansant & Newsome's and get your $3.00, $3.50 and $4.00 Low Shoes at $1.98.

Progress, which is largely a matter of keeping your stock clean and up-to-date has eliminated the carrying of Low Shoes over from one season to another.

A man can come into Vansant & Newsome's and get two pairs of these Low Shoes for less money than it took him in one pair ten days ago.

He can have 80 pairs to select from and he can be fitted to perfection, and not have to lay awake nights figuring his chances of a perfect fit and nursing corns.

A "lot" of Low Shoes, containing about 80 or 100 pairs, ordered—out.

All the shoes of this "lot," consisting of Tan Calf, Gun Metal and Pat. Colt, go out at $1.98.

No pair in the "lot" worth over $4 and none worth less than 3.00. All go at $1.98. Nothing charged.

VANSANT & NEWSOME.
