THE FIRST ANNUAL FAIR.

Attracts Great Crowds and Proves a Success in Every Particular.

The first annual fair and race meet of Kent and Queen Annes Driving Association opened on Tuesday with beautiful weather and the largest first day attendance ever seen at any fair in the county, it being estimated that fully three thousand people were on the grounds. The management spared no effort to arrange for the comfort and convenience of the crowds, and when the gates opened on Tuesday there were words of commendation and praise on all sides for the excellence of the arrangements and for the character of the buildings and exhibition tents. The horsemen were especially pleased with the stables and track, and all said that we have one of the finest opportunites ever seen for the development of a fine agricultural association. There was not a hitch in any arrangement, and President James G. Beck, Secretary Clifton L. Jarrell and their able assistants were untiring in their efforts to please everybody. Tuesday was children's day, the great feature being the baby contest, beautifully arranged by Mrs. Evelyn Harris, and a large corps of ladies and physicians from this and Queen Annes counties. Sixty-two chubby babies were entered in the contest and five physicians were kept busy from early afteroon until late in the evening examining the contestants, and such a crying and trying time you never saw in your life. The prizes were arranged and awarded in front of the grand stand on Wednesday afternoon. It is somewhat difficult to test the educational value of this contest to which we refer editorially, and it is quite certain that the baby contest will be a feature at succeeding fairs. The prize winners and their classes were as follows:

CHAMPIONSHIP.

Brown Metcalfe Roe 93, Helen F. Smith 92¼.

DIVISION 1.

Class 1—Marvin N. Williams 92, cup; William Edward Loller 91, ribbon.

Class 2—John J. Edwards 92½, cup; David W. Ingersoll, Jr., —, ribbon

Class 3—Brown Metcalfe Rowe 93, cup; John N. Bennett, Jr., 92½, ribbon.

Class 4—Mary Dudley 92½, cup; Francis Hill 89½, ribbon.

Class 5—Elizabeth Knotts 90½, cup; Ida Nickerson 90, ribbon.

Class 6—Bessie Jett Cain 92, cup; Beulah Clark 91½, ribbon.

DIVISION 2.

Class 1—James T. Anthony, Jr., 92½, cup; William B. Kinsey 90½, ribbon.

Class 2—Bradford Adam Sheid 90, cup; William Thomsen Brown 89, ribbon.

Class 3—Walter Elburn 92 2-10, cup; David B. Ford, Jr., 88 9-10, ribbon.

Class 4—Helen F. Smith 92½, cup and ribbon.

Class 5—Katherine B. Ford 91, cup; Edith S. B. Jarrell 90, ribbon.

Class 6—Virginia Jester 94, cup; Clara Emma Bramble 92, ribbon.

Score cards will be mailed to parents in one week. Duplicates must be made and sent to New York. Cups will be returned to Mrs. Evelyn Harris, who will have them suitably engraved and mailed to winners.

Paul Henry Harrison and Virginia Jester, winners of the first and second prize championship, were disqualified because of non-residence, and the judges awarded these prizes to Metcalfe Roe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Roe, of Sudlersville, and Helen F. Smith, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Smith, of Fairlee.

By the time the first race was called fully three thousand people were on the grounds, and the afternoon furnished some rich sport, the 2.25 pace being an especially classy race. Six starters faced the judges in the first event, the 2.35 trot, and Starter E. Lee LeCompte got his fields away in fine fashion. The footing did not suit three of the starters, and Belton H. and Princess March caught the distance in the first heat. Barron Dewey, a Baltimore entry proved the good thing of this event, though he was hard pushed in the last heat by that grand son of Peter-the-Great—Peter Margin—driven by A. H. Tyson, of Wilmington. The 2.25 pace was a sure thing for Dellan, that handsome son of Director General, driven by James Healey, of Philadelphia, and he won in straight heats. The contest for the place was a fine one, Jos. K. S. finally winning from Bell, a Baltimore mare, as an added starter. Mr. Wm. T. H. Whiteley's good horse, Billy Hailthorpe, was fourth in every heat. The 2.14 trot went to four heats, that speedy gray mare, Amo, owned by Mr. Phipps, of Pennsylvania, winning in straight heats, after dropping the first to Aero, Herman Tyson's entry. The second heat in this event was a corker, the finish between Aero, Amo and Miller Boy, being so close as to give the judges trouble to decide Amo the winner. The summary of the races on on Tuesday is as follows:

FIRST RACE—2.35 TROT; PURSE $300.

Mr. Webster McIntire was robbed of $34.50 Monday night, supposedly by a boarder whom he had taken during the fair. There were five boarders, and when Mr. McIntire retired at night he left his money in his pants pocket hanging in his room. The sheriff arrested several of the "boarders" and they were searched, but no traces of the money were found. They were given a hearing yesterday evening.
