THIS COOL

SNAP HAS SUGGESTED WARMER CLOTHING to quite a good many, judging from the number of measurements I've taken. Yet by comparisons, the trade is becoming posted as to the difference in prices for same service, and the reason is quite obvious. When you stop and think—no stock, high rent and the various expenses which must of necessity enter into the cost of your garments—why shouldn't I do business? Look around. Post yourselves. Then there will be no difficulty in showing you the difference.

Respectfully,

W. E. MOODY,

Office under Voshell House, next to Robert McWhorter's, CHESTERTOWN, MD.

Dr. Cadman Lectures.

Rev. Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, the noted Brooklyn divine, lectured on literary themes to a good audience in the Lyceum Theatre on Tuesday afternoon. Dr. Cadman was here during the Chautauqua, and he completely captivated his audience by the power of his eloquence, and the beauty and scope of his language. Through the influence of Mrs. Wilbur W. Hubbard, president of the Federated Club, Dr. Cadman came to lecture. He was met in Mr. Hubbard's car at Elkton by Rev. Dr. Barrett, Mr. M. A. Touison and daughter, Miss Hallie, whom Mr. Hubbard had invited to escort the distinguished guest to Chestertown. The High School was closed in order to permit the teachers and scholars to attend the lecture, and the Woman's Literary Club took a prominent part in the occasion. After the lecture, which was a rare treat, Mrs. Hubbard, assisted by a number of the ladies of the club, entertained at luncheon in honor of Dr. Cadman and his wife. At five o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard drove Dr. and Mrs. Cadman to Denton in Mr. Hubbard's car. An effort is being made to induce Dr. Cadman to deliver a sermon in Christ M. E. Church here later.
