SOME folks "can be hoodooed" all the time, all some-time, but not all, all the time. There's quite a number awakening to the fact that I'm saving them from $3.50 to $5.00 on Suits and Overcoats, compared to what they've been paying for as good service. I deal with the New York branch of the International Tailoring Co., insuring the most modern, reliable and quickest service. No stock, no large rents and expenses generally. Hence I can afford to work close, and I'm satisfying a large proportion on this score. Investigate my plan. Respectfully,

W. E. MOODY,
Office Under Venable House, next to Robt. McWhorter's, n. e. CHESTERTOWN, MD.

On a Green Slope.

The above is the title of a charming little book of poems by Miss Mary Rob-ertine Stokes, Kent's sweet poetess, just issued from The Gorham Press, Boston, Mass. The book is dedicated to the mother of the poetess, and is com-posed of the poetic gems written by Miss Stokes from time to time, several of which were recently published in the TRANSCRIPT. Miss Stokes is a lover of nature. She is an artist with the brush as well as with the pen, and she has woven into her little book in a most artistic and rhythmic manner the beau-ties of nature as she has lived among them upon the green slopes and rugged hillsides of old Kent. We are proud of our Betterton poetess. She is the second artist in this county to sing in poetry, and the TRANSCRIPT will take this little gem which we have received through the courtesy of Miss Stokes, and pre-serve it in our library, where we may frequently peruse its pages in search of nature's beauties. The book is very attractive, and an edition of 500 volumes has just been issued. The book may be purchased for $1 per volume at the Eichelberger Book and Stationery Co., North Charles street, Baltimore.
