Celebrate 18th Anniversary.—Rock Hall Council No. 149, Jr. O. U. A. M., celebrated its 18th anniversary on Thursday evening. A fine program of speeches and music was rendered. The speakers were: State councillor, Wm. F. Malin, of Chestertown; E. M. Thomas, state vice councillor, and Herman Mennerick, past state councillor, of Baltimore, William Clayton and Rev. J. W. Prettyman, of Rock Hall, Mr. Kirby, of Piney Neck, and Mr. R. F. Elburn, of Chestertown. Several members of the Chestertown Camp were in attendance.

To Build New Home.—Mrs. George B. McWhorter is preparing to erect a cosy new home on the vacant lot on the south side of her present Washington Avenue residence, on which is now her pretty flower yard. The house will be set back in the lot on a line with Mr. Robert J. McWhorter's home, in order to provide space for flowers, which Mrs. McWhorter loves so much, and the home will be fitted up with all modern conveniences. Work will be begun in the spring.

Woman's Auxiliary.—The Diocesan meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary will be held in Emmanuel P. E. Church, Chestertown, on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 12. Bishop Rowe, of Alaska, will address the Junior Auxiliary in the afternoon, and the Woman's Auxiliary at night. On Thursday there will be an all day meeting, and a lunch will be served to the visitors and congregation by the ladies at the Parish House. Delegates will be present from all parts of the Eastern Shore. Bishop Benj. Brewster, of Western Colorado, and Rev. Samuel Salinas, a Native Mexican, will speak Thursday afternoon and evening.

SALE OF USED PIANOS

Mr. Joseph Atwell, one of our progressive farmers, lost his valuable bay stallion last week. He died from an affection of the head.

Mr. George D. Lofland has sold his Maxwell runabout to Mr. Charles Beck. Mr. Lofland contemplates buying a Carter car in the spring.

Mr. Wm. F. Fowler's force is doing the work.

Monday was practically the first day of the gunning season, and "the woods were full of gunners, and dogs. There were several large bags and everybody got something."

The United Bargain Store, which for the past eleven months has conducted a business on Cross Street, has made an assignment for the benefit of its creditors.

Several owners of launches and pleasure boats which were sent adrift during a recent heavy storm, have not seen them yet. The Barrell boys' skill and Mr. John G. Westcott's launch are still at large.

Mr. W. Robert Huey and family have removed to the residence on Front street formerly occupied by Mrs. Conable. Mr. Wm. T. Hicks and family will go where Mr. Huey and family were.

A hen belonging to Mrs. Lawrence E. Duper stole a nest under the house, laid it full of eggs, and the other morning, bright and early, stalked majestically out, leading a brood of an even dozen young chicks.

Sheriff Wm. H. McKee and his family will remove his property, corner Maple avenue and Cross street, December 1, and Mrs. Cranor has rented one of the Leary houses, where Mrs. Fyie is. The latter takes the Elison home on Maple avenue.

Government officials who have been making an investigation of condition State that Menhaden and purse Netters in the Ocean and Chesapeake bay have practically caused the extinction of the bay shad, by catching the small fish and selling them to the fertilizer factories dotted here and there along the shores. It is almost certain that the Government will endeavor to regulate purse-net fishing in the Chesapeake bay and tributaries.

Major John K. Cree, who owns a fine bungalow property on Chester river near Quaker Neck wharf, is a lover of purebred poultry, and he devotes considerable time to the pleasure. Major Cree has one of the best laying strains of Rhode Island Red chickens of the market, and he has recently issued a neat pamphlet describing the egg laying qualities of his flock. These chickens are bred to lay and not for show purposes, and Major Cree will be glad to send anyone a pamphlet upon application.

Winter Chautauqua.
The Winter Chautauqua tickets are being sold for the small price of one dollar for the services of four high class entertainments to be given during the winter to continue the Chautauqua spirit.

These entertainments are of the same nature as those given during the summer—the first one November 15th—the Ethel Batting Company will be given at Fireman's Hall. Second, December 3rd—Ora Samuel Gray will be given at the Lyceum; the third is the Boston Lyrics; the fourth Gilbert At Lee Elbridge Impersonator, who is said to be better than the Impersonator at the summer Chautauqua.

Every one should have the benefit of a series of high class entertainments that are given solely for the benefit of the town for the small sum of $1.00. The single tickets will be sold for 95 cents. Tickets on sale at Stam's.

Foot Ball Notes.
An eleven of Chestertown young men journeyed to Centerville last Saturday and defeated the High School team by the score of 36 to 6. The Chestertown eleven consisted of Messrs Ford, Bros, Harris, Usilton, Smith, Howard, Brown, Sparks, Bartley, Robinson and Der-ringer.

St. John's College, Washington's old rival, was defeated Saturday by the eleven of the Pennsylvania Military College by a score of 27 to 0. St. John's and Washington College have each won only one game this season.

LOCAL MATTERS

Country Home Burned.—The country home of Mr. George Williams, situated near Smithville, was totally destroyed by fire about four o'clock Thursday afternoon, together with all the household goods except a few pieces of furniture on the first floor. The origin of the fire is unknown. Mr. and Mrs. Williams were not at home when the fire broke out. No one was there except the cook and children. The baby was asleep in one of the bed rooms and when the cook went to see how the child was getting along, it is said she found the room in flames. She snatched up the child and ran down to give the alarm but by the time neighbors arrived the house was a mass of flames. The building was a substantial brick structure and cost between $6,000 and $7,000 to build it. This loss, together with the loss on the furniture, is partially covered by insurance, in the Kent Mutual on the dwelling and in Mr. Edgar P. Beck's Agency on the household goods.

THE NEWS IN BRIEF.
Local buyers were paying 63 cents a bushel for shelled and 55 for cob.
Mr. Chas. H. Jefferson has installed electric lights in his pretty home on High street.
Mr. J. E. Newton, on Mill road, is having his home painted in attractive colors.
The daughters of America held their monthly treat in Fraternal Hall on Monday evening.
The home of Mr. W. B. Copper on the Avenue is being attractively painted by Mr. M. E. Baker and force.
Messrs. Graham & Clements sold this week to Mr. Randolph Waddell a five passenger Buick touring car.
The price of eggs is on the rise, but don't tell the hens. They are retailing for 40 and 42 cents a dozen in city markets.
Mr. Joseph Atwell, one of our progressive farmers, lost his valuable bay stallion last week. He died from an affection of the head.
Mr. George D. Lofland has sold his Maxwell runabout to Mr. Charles Beck. Mr. Lofland contemplates buying a Carter car in the spring.
The home of Dr. H. Benge Simmons on Spring avenue is being beautified by an attractive dressing of paint. Mr. Wm. F. Fowler's force is doing the work.

OUR DEATH RECORD.

MR. JOHN H. WHITE.
Mr. John H. White, 75 years old, died at his residence in Salisbury last Friday. The deceased was one of the pioneer bankers of the peninsula, organizing the Salisbury National Bank in 1884, and being its cashier until one year ago. He was the father of Mr. J. Cleveland White, who, several years ago, married Miss Ethelinde Ringgold, formerly of this town.

MR. JOHN SUDLER.
Mr. John Sudler, son of the late Morning Sudler, died at his home near Sudlersville early Sunday morning of tuberculosis. His decline was rapid and early, and death was a surprise to his friends. Funeral services were held from his late home Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock, Rev. L. P. Corkran officiating. Besides a widow, Mr. Sudler leaves one brother, Mr. Arthur Sudler, of Baltimore.

MISS BELLE KEITHLEY.
Miss Belle Keithley died recently at the home of her brother, Mr. John R. Keithley, in Elk Neck. The deceased was a cousin of Mr. Keithley, one of our bakers.

IN MEMORIAM.
THOMAS WHITE.
Mr. Thomas White, one of Kent county's highly esteemed citizens, died at his home near Galena, at 12 o'clock P. M., Monday, Oct. 20, 1913, after a long illness, aged 97 years. Mr. White had been in ill-health for a long time, but throughout his illness never complained of his condition. The deceased was born in Galway, Ireland, and went to England when eighteen years old. In 72 he came to America. Interment in Catholic cemetery, Leansboro. The pallbearers were: Messrs. John T. Quinn, Thomas Donahoe, John Dunn, John Merriam, Edwin Chestnut and Wm. Maslin. Undertaker Wm. T. Hicks had charge of funeral arrangements.

Pomona Items.
Revival services at Bond Church have been carried on the past week by Capt. Alfred Price. He has given some fine sermons and the meetings have been well attended. There will be no service at Bond Church Sunday morning, 2:00 P. M., a song service; 7:45 P. M., preaching by Capt. Price. Bond is very fortunate in getting such a man.
Mowbray M. E. Church, preaching Sunday morning by the pastor, but there will be no service at that church at night on account of the revival at Bond.
Mrs. W. H. Toulson left last Wednesday for Standardsville, Va., to make quite a visit with her sister, Mrs. Gibbons.
Mrs. W. J. Maslin will spend the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Brown, of Baltimore.
Dr. Breckwedel and family left last week for California where they will spend the winter and probably make their future home. Mr. and Mrs. H. Clay Brown have rented the former's home for a year.
Mrs. Robert Ford received word this week of the death of her niece, in Middle-town.
Election day was spent very quietly in this community.

Our Merchants' Interest.
Vansant & Newsome are giving double votes on the Paino this week on all women's shoes. They are featuring the "American Lady" for their leading shoe for women. Better get in the game.
Votes on the piano in A. L. Sparks' window can be obtained at Vansant & Newsome's store. With every purchase you receive so many votes which entitles you to vote in the piano contest just the same as if you made your purchase at Mr. Sparks'.
H. Sacks & Son are having a big run on ladies and misses suitings, coats, and wearing apparel, and their gents' clothing and furnishing departments are very popular with the well dressed man. Their display in each department is very attractive.
Kilbourne & Bramble, Fairlee's big merchants, are offering flour this week at $4.80 per barrel. Every department in their big store is full of seasonable bargains and you will find their prices right. See adv. page 7.
B. S. Sutton, the wise Black's merchant, will pay 40 cents a dozen for eggs. He has everything in the hog killing line, and everything the farmer needs at prices that are a little cheaper, he says, than elsewhere. See him.
The Hub, Middleton's big double stores, enjoys a big trade because they have always advertised the truth about their goods. Their fall lines of men's, women's and children's outtings are better than ever. Give them a look and be convinced.
Overcoats are also a large feature of Mr. W. E. Moody's Tailoring business and he's making a number of them as well as superb fitting suits. Read his adv. in this issue. Compare prices and learn the difference in prices for this elegant tailoring service. In six days they are made from your individual measurements and delivered to you.
Who are leaders? Every one claims to be a leader in his line—are you a good judge? Bordley & Sons leave it to you and if you don't agree that they have the largest, best and most varied assortment in $15.00 suits and overcoats, they say no more. Why not get in with the crowd and look them over. "Everything for the man to wear." See their adv. in this issue.
William M. Hadaway, the Worton merchandise store man, is doing a bustling business because he gives prompt service and sells reliable goods at low prices. He is the leader in high prices for eggs and all other country produce. Try him and see.
