Our Merchants' Interest.

Read M. Kramer's half page advertisement on page 7, and see what he is offering this week in his big selling-out sale in Rock Hall. Fine chance to get big bargains and sell your eggs for 42 cents a dozen.

Black's wise merchant, B. S. Sutton, is making a specialty of salt this week. But you get any quantity of other big bargains there, and he is paying highest market price for eggs again this week.

Read Medders & Co's. full page advertisement on page 8. He has "Stove News" for you this week, but you will find several columns of other interesting "News". Read it. It will pay you, and you will gain money by it.

Clarence Thompson, Rock Hall's exclusive shoe man, has an attractive advertisement on page 1. Mr. Thompson's shoes' fame has reached all over the county and they have a splendid reputation for comfort, wear and durability. A pair of shoes will make a splendid Christmas present.

If you are needing a new suit or overcoat for Thanksgiving, Brown Bros. can fix you up in the latest models of standard makes. Brown Bros. carry the same make of clothes that are the leaders in the Hub, and several other big stores in the city. So why go to Baltimore for a suit when Brown Bros. can fix you up in a nobby Kuppenheimer suit or overcoat?

Does it Pay to Advertise?

If any one had declared four years ago that the time would come when a retail merchant would insert an 8 PAGE advertisement one time in order to attract business, he would have been considered foolish. Yet that is exactly what Brazer, one of Baltimore's big department store proprietors did in the last Sunday issue of the Baltimore American. And he did it in order to get more business. The great city merchants have realized the fact that in these times of high prices, the people are studying their interests and are learning through the newspaper advertisement when to any advantage. The people have been educated to buy where they can buy to best advantage, and they have learned this through newspaper advertising. The shrewd merchant has noted this change in the attitude of the purchasing public, and he is using the newspaper to tell the people what he has to sell and how much he will take for it. Do you suppose Brazer would invest his money in an 8 PAGE advertisement in a large city paper, if he did not believe it would pay him? Mr. Brazer's venture is the best argument in the world against the merchant who says advertising don't pay.

DIED WHILE VISITING SON.

Henry B. Layman Had Undergone A Surgical Operation.

Henry B. Layman, 3724 Park Heights avenue, was taken ill last week while on a visit to his son, Henry O. Layman, in Wilmington, Del., and died there Sunday morning. He had under gone an operation last summer and had never fully recovered.

Mr. Layman was born in 1845 in Christians, Del., began business in Kent county, but came to Baltimore and for nearly half a century had been a traveling salesman for Baltimore commercial houses on the Eastern Shore of Maryland. He had been for many years an active member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and for the past 20 years was an official of the Park Heights Church. The deceased was well and favorably known in Chestertown where he made business trips for years.

LETTERS ON HER LEG.

Remarkable Manner in Which a Young Girl Answers Questions.

Special Cablegram to The American. Paris, November 16—French physicians are puzzled by the weird faculty of Raymondette Bell, a 12-year-old girl, living near Paris, to reply to questions asked her by means of pictures and words appearing on her skin. The most recent demonstration of her ability was when a reporter asked her if she could tell his first name.

After a lapse of 15 minutes Raymondette replied: "Yes, here it is."
She bared her leg and the name Henri, which was correct, appeared in scarlet letters just above her knee. As the pictures and words disappear within a few minutes after they are called, a photograph of this name was taken. Several physicians have examined the girl, and all report that to all appearances she is perfectly normal and healthy.

Formed Eastern Shore Society.—Former residents of the Eastern Shore now living in Baltimore met this week at the call of Dr. J. Clement Clark at the Baltimore Club and formed the Society of the Eastern Shore. The object in forming the society is to create a firmer bond of union between the city and the Eastern Shore, as well as to furnish a means of closer social intercourse among the former residents of the Garden of Eden. Each county on the shore will be represented in the society, and it has been suggested that during each summer the society make a pilgrimage to one of the county seats or to Ocean City. It would be a most excellent idea for the society to visit Chestertown during Commencement week, because at that time the members will have the very great pleasure of meeting many old friends and renewing old acquaintances. We offer the suggestion to Dr. Clark and Senator Clarence W. Perkins, who are members of the society from Kent.

Through the influence of former Senator Clarence W. Perkins, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company ran a special train from Baltimore to College Park last Friday for the Washington-M.A.C. game.
