SHAFER, REDMILE & CO., KENNEDYVILLE, MARYLAND.

THE RELIGIOUS WORLD.

Chestertown M.E. Church, Rev. Louis E. Barrett, D.D., pastor. Services next Sunday, Nov. 23d, as follows: 10:30 A.M., preaching by the pastor, subject, 'The Great Statesman'; 2:15 P.M., Sabbath school and pastor's bible class; 7 P.M., Epworth League song services; 7:30 P.M., preaching by the pastor. All invited.

Union Thanksgiving services will be held in the Chestertown M.E. Church on Thursday, Nov. 27th, at 10:30 A.M. Appropriate music by the choir, and a sermon by Rev. Dr. Graham, of the M.P. Church. All the churches are requested to unite in the service.

The Mite Society of the Presbyterian Church, of Kennedyville, will hold a poultry and oyster supper in Weer's Hall, on Saturday evening, Dec. 6th.

A State-wide Lord's Day Conference under the auspices of the Lord's Day Alliance of Maryland, will be held in Baltimore, Dec. 1 to Dec. 7. Hon. Joshua Levering, of Baltimore, is the president of the organization which is doing so much good in bringing about a more sacred observance of the sabbath. A fine program has been arranged and some of the most prominent men in the country will deliver addresses.

Dr. Robert Watt, District Superintendent, will visit Pomona charge and hold quarterly conference at Bond Chapel on Saturday, November 23d, at 3 P.M. He will preach at Bond on Sunday morning, Nov. 30.

Preaching at Mowbray Chapel tomorrow at 3 P.M. and Sunday school at 2 P.M.

Capt. Alfred Price, the noted evangelist who had been holding a successful revival on the charge, left on Monday. Capt. Price left a splendid impression with the people of Quaker Neck, and there is scarcely a home on the charge that has not felt the soul-stirring effect of his fine sermons.

After painting and extensive repairs, the M.E. Church of Johnstown, Earleville, was reopened for worship on Sunday, Nov. 16. Rev. J. A. Arters and Rev. W. K. Dawson, former pastors, assisted the pastor, Rev. G. L. Bartesty.

Christ Methodist Protestant Church, Dr. W. R. Graham, pastor. Regular services on Sunday, Nov. 23rd, and preaching by the pastor at 10:30 A.M. and 7:30 P.M. Subject for the morning sermon, 'The Two-fold Blessedness of Life.' Subject for the evening sermon, 'Two Boys Brought up in the Same Home and What Became of Them.' Sabbath School 2:30 P.M. Christian Endeavor service 6:45 P.M. Mid-week services, Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Still Pond and Betterton M.E. Churches, F. X. Moore, pastor.—Our Third Quarterly Conference will be held at Betterton next Friday night, Nov. 23, at 7:30 o'clock. All official members are earnestly requested to be present.

Work on the new Betterton Church is progressing rapidly. The corner stone will be laid on Sunday, Nov. 30th. The Still Pond congregation will be asked to worship with the Betterton people on that occasion. Rev. Dr. Barrett has kindly consented to preach and assist in all services. Many people of this county and elsewhere have a special interest in Betterton because of its amusements during the summer months. We trust they will likewise interest themselves in her religious life by being present at the corner stone laying and helping in the finances. Further notice will appear in next week's papers.

Orders of services for to-morrow, Nov. 23rd: Still Pond—Sunday school 9:30 A.M., preaching 10:45 A.M., Epworth League 7:30 P.M., evening sermon 8:00 P.M.

Betterton—Sunday school 2:00 P.M., preaching 3:00 P.M., Epworth League 7:30 P.M.

Rev. F. S. Cain, pastor of Kennedyville M.E. Church, has been conducting revival services for the past two weeks. Rev. A. B. Dupuy, pastor of Wesley Chapel, assisted him on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings.

On Monday evening, Nov. 10th, Bishop Adams confirmed a class of 13 (eight men and five women) at St. Luke's Church, Church Hill. The presentation of the class provoked surprise and many pleasant comments. The rector, Dr. Sharpe, has already begun the formation and instruction of another class which he expects to present about Easter. His purpose is to get the church into the candidates before they get into the church, therefore a rigid course of instruction is imperative.

The Ladies' Matinee.

Between two and three hundred people attended the ladies' matinee at Radcliffe Park on Wednesday afternoon and witnessed some excellent sport. The matinee was given for the benefit of the Woman's Relief Society, which is raising funds with which to establish an Emergency Hospital and an Old People's Home. The ladies sold the tickets at the gate and managed the affair finely, but they were compelled to call on the men to start and drive the horses. The net proceeds were between $50 and $60. The races were all interesting and hotly contested. The summary is as follows:

CLASS A. Dennis, Smith 2 1 1; My Sweet Pick, Stevens 1 2 3; Baron Rector, Bramble 3 3 3; Marvel Prince, Bell 4 4 4; Adversity, Miller 5 4 3; Eliza S., Toulson 6 dr. Time—2:28, 2:37, 2:37.
